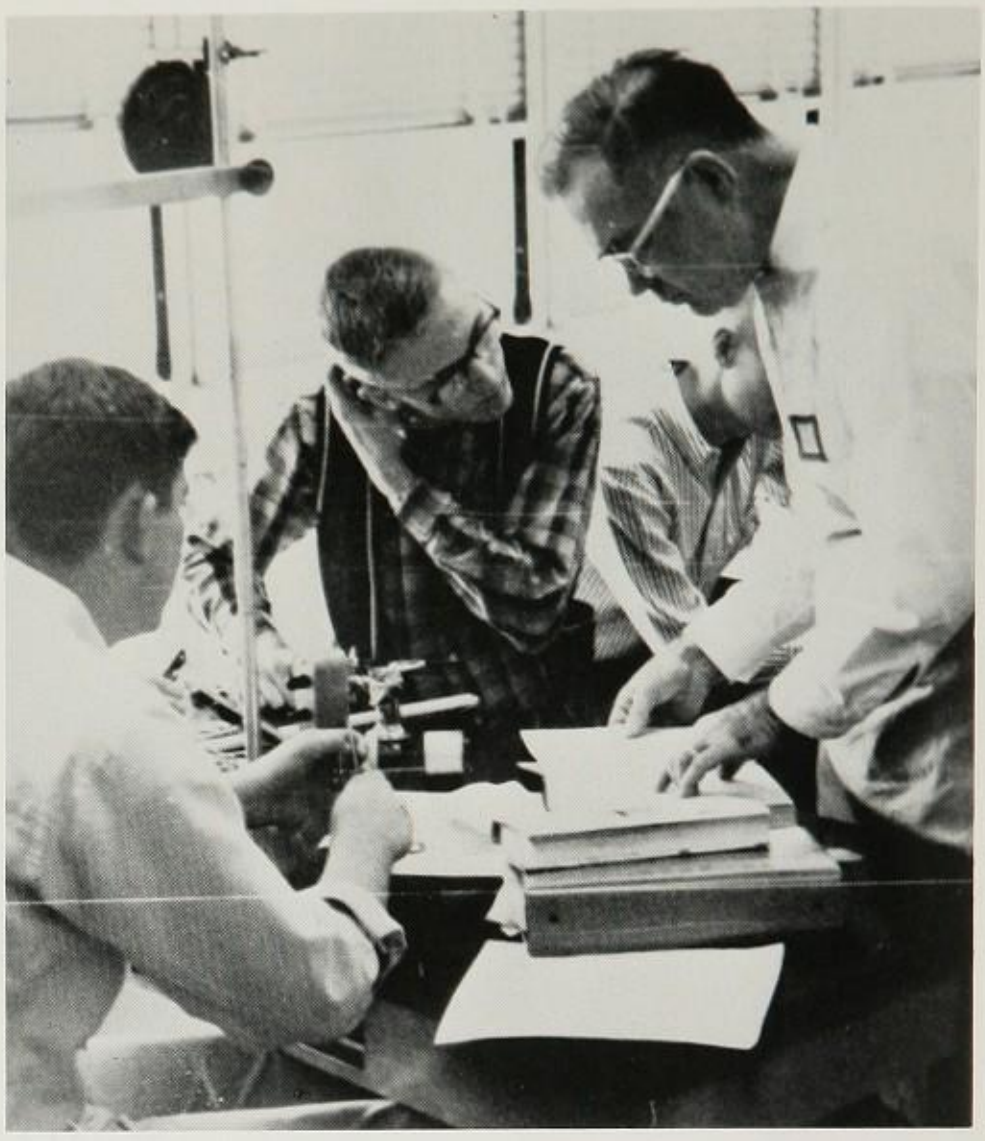
EACH PERSON FULFILLS A VITAL POSITION

Mike Wooten and Ronnie Wesch listen as Mrs. Hancock and Sharyn Staecker instruct them in decorating the gym.



Mr. Slaughter searches for the answer to Bill Skocpol's question.

At Senior Assembly, the Seniors learn of plans for their year-end activities.

Tom Blasutta and John Howie follow their fellow trackmen at a meet.

IN SCHOOL LIFE

Daily happenings and the persons involved in them form a complex pattern that is the heart of life at RHS. Each person fits himself into his particular niche in the pattern, placing himself among the surrounding people and events so that he is a small but very necessary unit of the entire scheme of action and ideas.

The outward pattern in which each person has a vital part is obvious; it is based on adherence to a daily schedule of fifty-five minute periods, thirty minute lunch periods, and thirty-five minute activity periods. But this readily noticed, outward pattern of RHS life is not the most important one for each person involved.

Lynn Glass and Judy Booker try to catch their teacher's attention.

A couple of admirers corner Ted Mumaw after a game.

Secretary and student work out a problem together.

Alice Wright watches the play, awaiting her cue to begin playing.

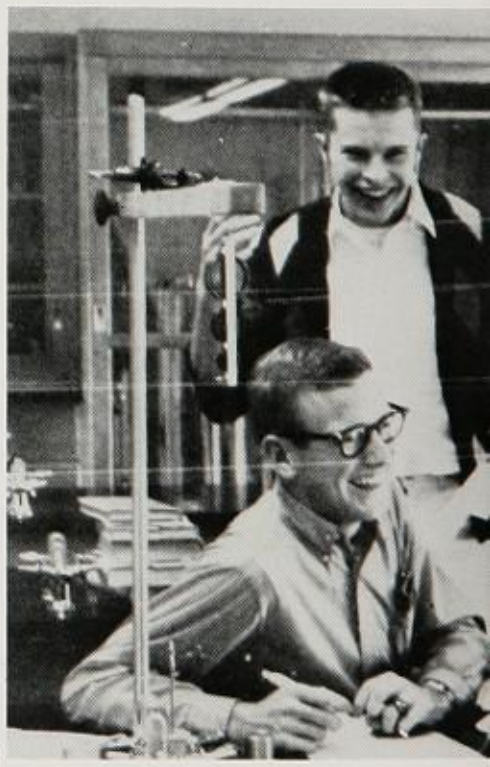
Kay Forsyth assists students signing up to have their pictures made.

RHSites join in showing their hope for a victory.

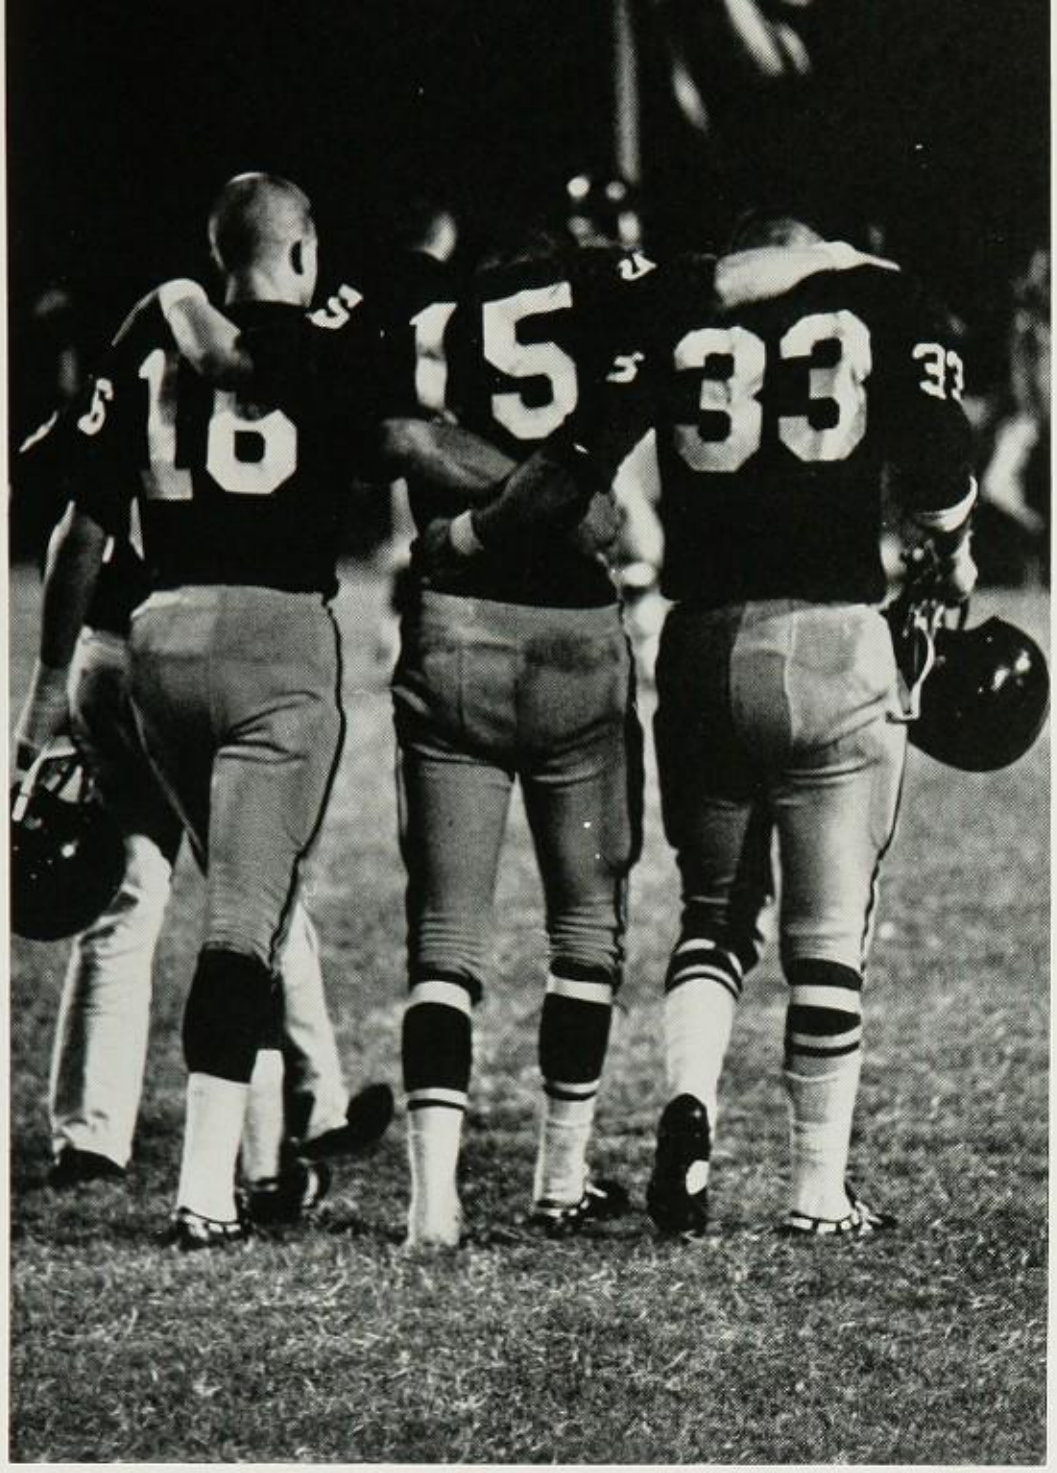
Members of the Golden Eagle Band work together in a precise half-time routine.

INDIVIDUAL THOUGHTS AND ACTIONS MESH FOR A COMMON PURPOSE

In the early morning hours, three senior Eaglettes wash away their old artwork.



Many girls use their lunch hour for talk rather than eating.



Terry Baughman and Steve Higgins help an injured Greg Langeloh to the field house.

RHSites are not as concerned with the arrangement of time marked by ringing bells as they are with the invisible pattern of personal ideas and feelings that adds sparkle to all the school hours. These emotions and thoughts fit together like a jigsaw puzzle each day in instance after instance. At Eagle athletic competitions, spurred by a common desire to encourage their team, RHS students and faculty yell and applaud as a whole. With a bonding sense of humor, they laugh at a silly announcement. Out of each students thirst for knowledge grows a singleness of action for the whole student body as it listens to a speaker. Perhaps more than in any other way, the school-wide project to help others less fortunate shows RHSites fitting themselves into a pattern based on a common emotion or idea.

Physics students mix fun with their studies.

Mrs. Wright aids an inquisitive student as others look for books on their own.

UNIQUE OPPORTUNITIES FOR SELF-DEVELOPMENT MAKE RHS MEMORABLE

Ted Mumaw, Ann Lambert, Lynn Glass, and Mike Bullock laugh at a private joke.

Tense Eagle players silently root for their teammates.

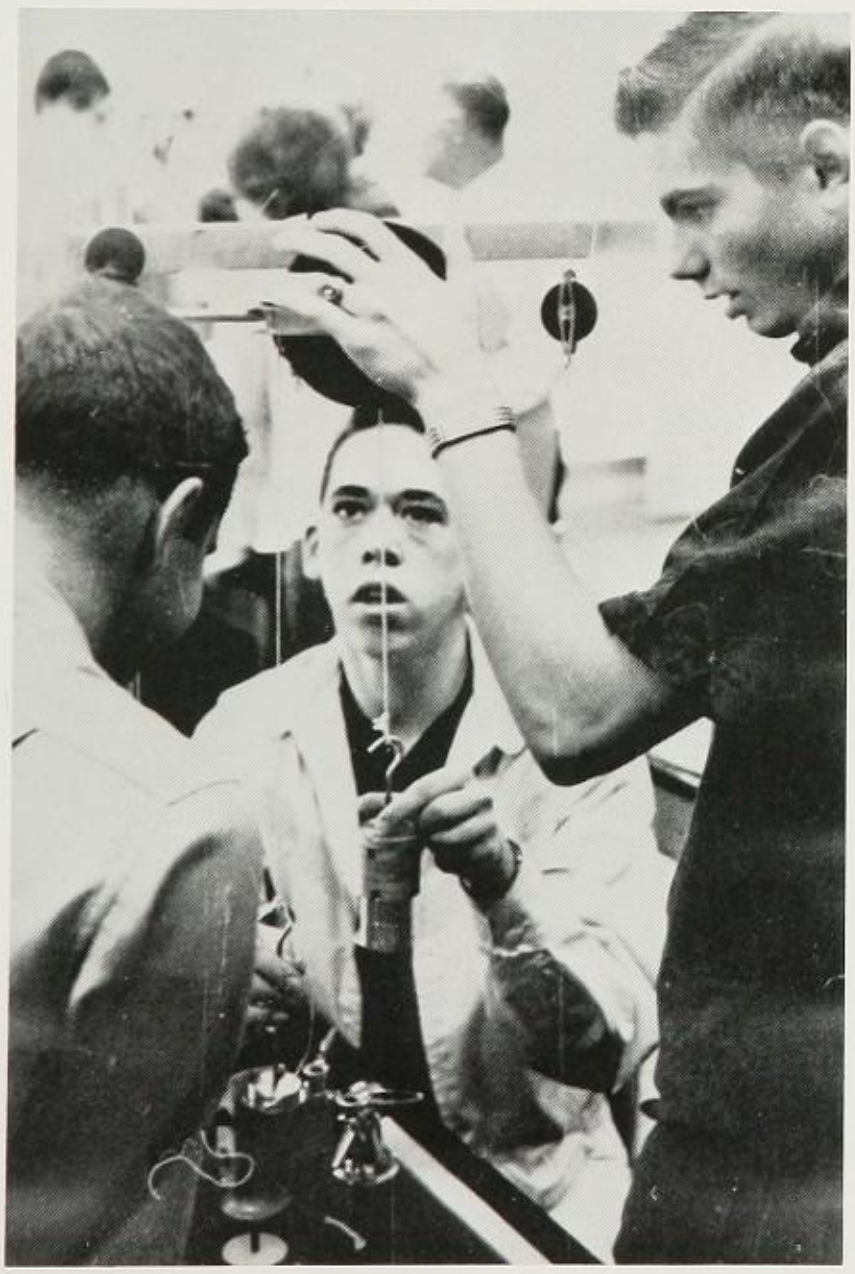
Physics students watch Don DeRegnier show his muscle development.

Though RHS life has both an external and internal pattern, it does not force each individual to forfeit his development as a unique individual. Both classes and extracurricular activities are designed to encourage each student to find and promote his personal talents. Those students who excel as individuals and shine in the opaque pattern of student life do so in dozens of ways, from showing unusual leadership to displaying striking musical abilities. In particular, those who achieve scholastically, whether through contests like Interscholastic League or strictly through grades, demonstrate the presence of RHSites who fit into the pattern of school life and simultaneously add a touch of originality to it.

James Franklin looks over his letter jacket as Wendell Housley and John D'Aloia prepare to hand out another.

Site of many memories is the RHS gymnasium.

Chuck Marstrand searches for the "why" of an experiment.



Memories of RHS are not made by any obvious, pre-planned scheduling of events, but rather by the spontaneous meshing of those at RHS into a pattern based on a common idea or emotion. Not the exacting timetable of daily happenings is remembered, but the shared enthusiasm of a poster party, delight at a surprise vacation, fear of a sudden pop test, or reverence during the singing of the alma mater. The particular pattern of student life at RHS and the opportunities it offers each person to find his own place, whether simply to hold or to enhance, sets the school and remembrances of it apart from all others.

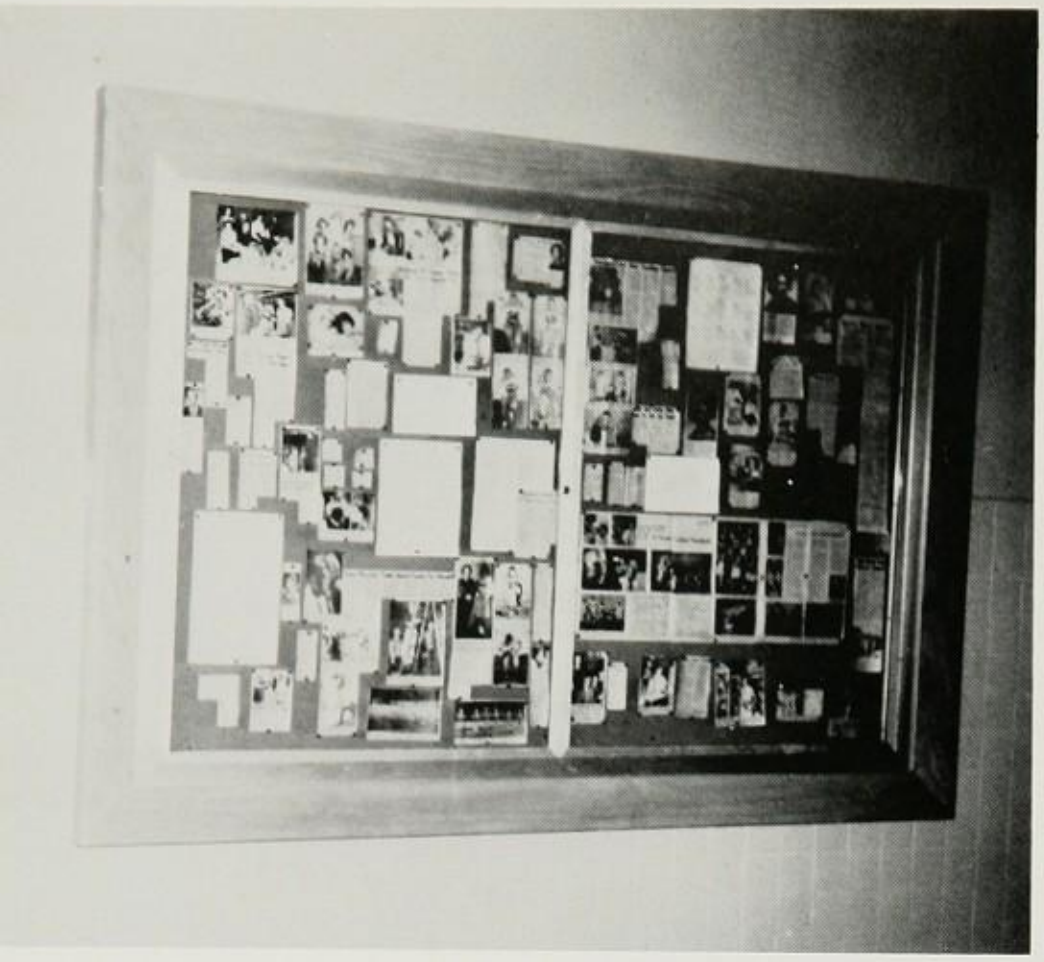
ACTIVITIES

As the Eagles fight for points, the Eaglettes, Cheerleaders and student body vigorously voice their support.

ACTIVITIES ARE ESSENTIAL AT RHS



The current events board keeps us informed as to the activities of RHS students.

Members of the Student Council continuously work hard to better RHS in our eyes and in the eyes of others.

The lunch period is given hearty approval by class-weary students.

Assemblies are always approved quite emphatically by Eaglites, and present many topics of interest to all students.

The domain of RHS is always enveloped with achievements of the many, fine Eagles.

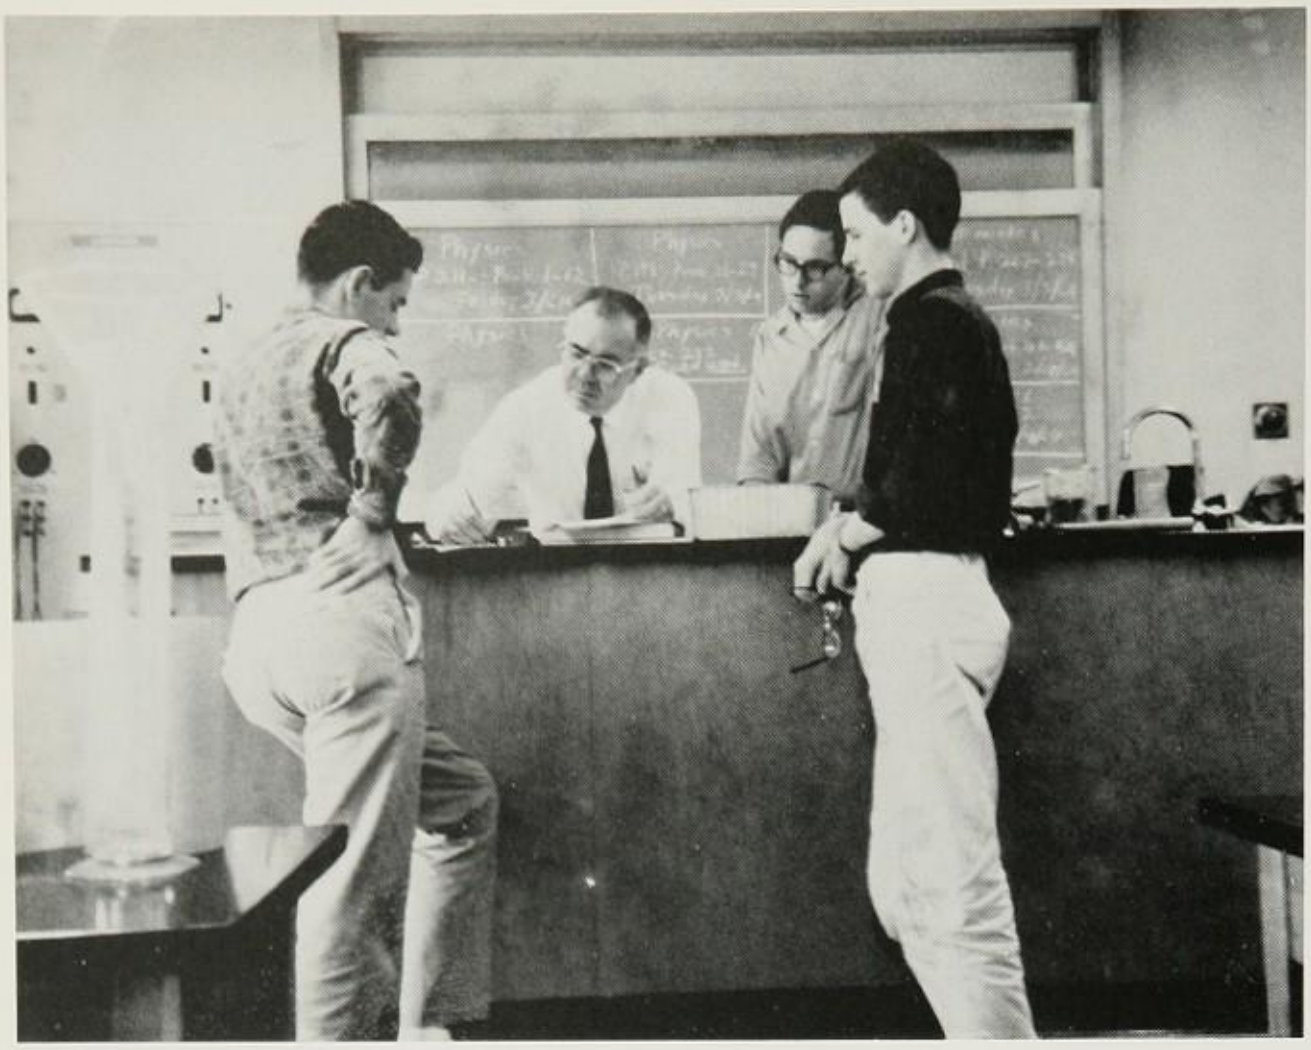
Before school the halls are completely devoid of human existence; however, when the first bell rings, activities of many varieties can be observed. Spirit posters are taped to the walls; student council members are hard about their work; paper clippings may be read concerning the accomplishments of the Eagles; in the lunchroom students eagerly devour the nourishment necessary to face more teachers and harder assignments.

These things and many others form the total picture of life at RHS. If it were not for these, Richardson would not compare to the great school that it now is.

During the early morning hours, the halls are empty except for a few dedicated students.

School spirit is displayed all week in the form of splendid and unique posters.

HAPPINESS



Willing professors are always ready to meet the demands of needy students such as Bob Boykin, Bill Tobin, and Darrell Murphy.

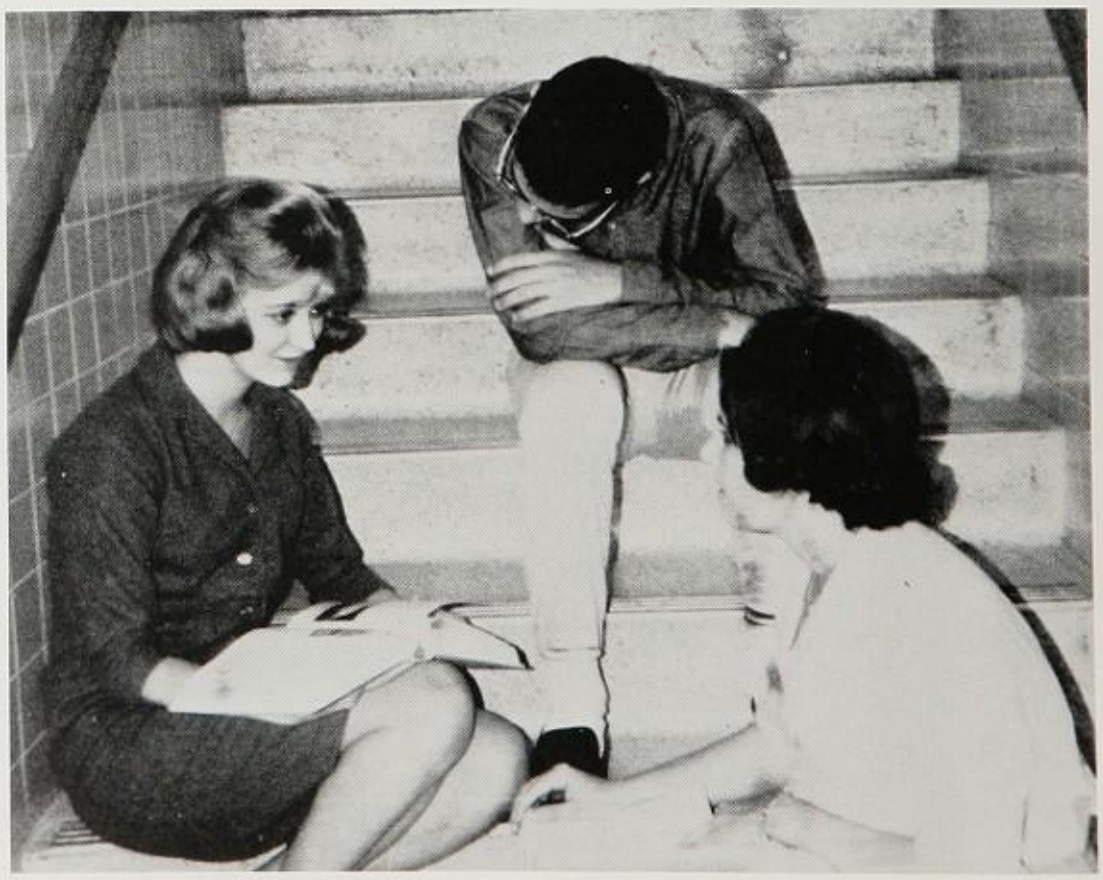
Activities have a different meaning to each student at Richardson. Classes are an important part of the daily life at RHS. Often, students can be seen scurrying to classes to beat out the bell.

The display case and bulletin boards keep us informed as to the current events at RHS.

A day at Richardson is truly an adventure to all students.

Small groups of girls such as this one are frequently seen gossiping about the latest happenings (or boys) at RHS.

Eagle-ites take advantage of the stairs to study assignments before the bell rings.

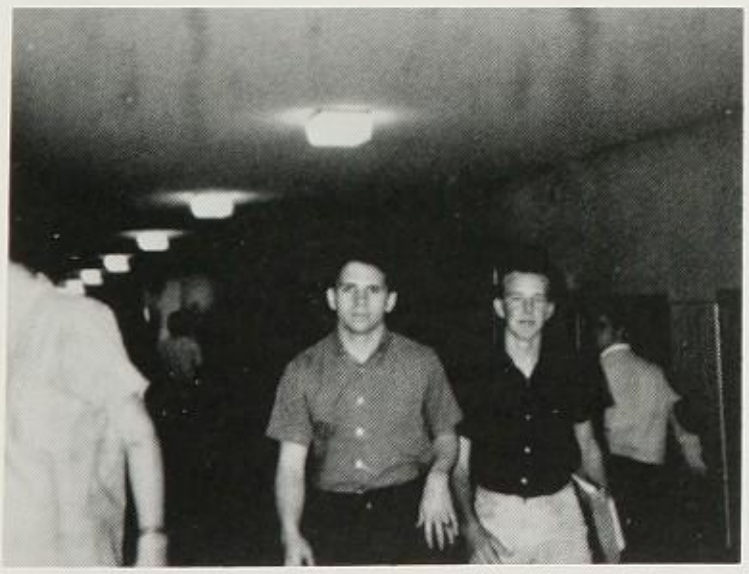


IS A SCHOOL DAY AT RHS

The display case keeps us informed about the top Eagles and the activities coming up.

Mr. Jeter can often be seen halting misdemeanors in the cafeteria.

Rob Kellogg and Gerald Chester hastily beat out a path to class before the bell rings.

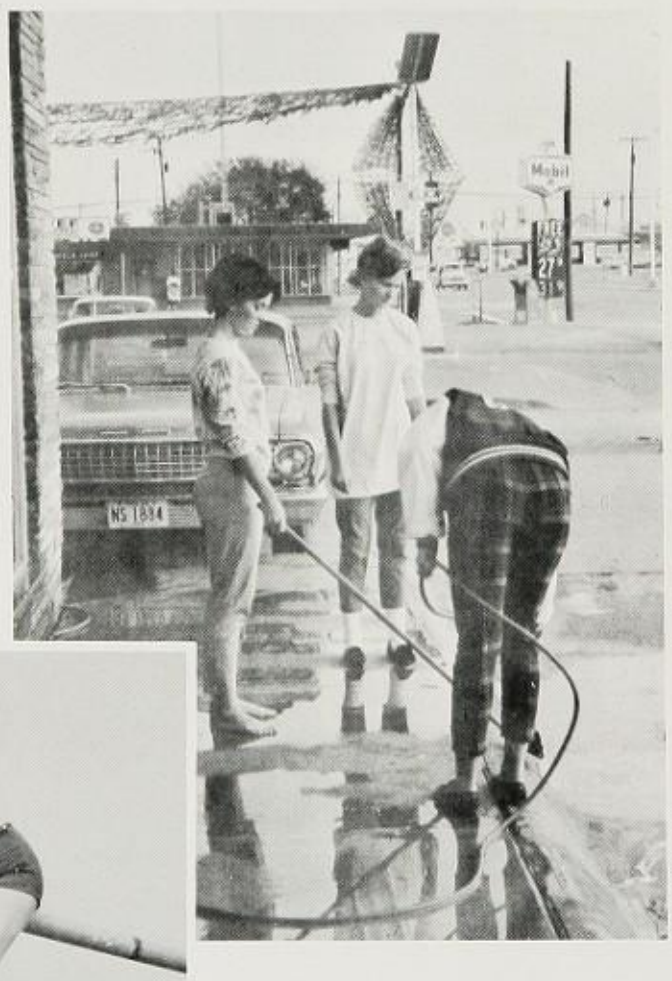


A cry of joy escapes the tonsils of Mary Dennis after surviving another day at RHS.

As the end of the pep rally draws near the team shows its spirit by joining the student body with the traditional Victory Yell.

STUDENT BODY SUPPORTS ATHLETIC PROGRAM

Each Saturday morning after a home football game Eaglettes can be seen removing signs which they had painted the previous week from store windows.



Eaglettes Val McDermott and Jenna Bell get some help decorating the goal posts for the football game that night.

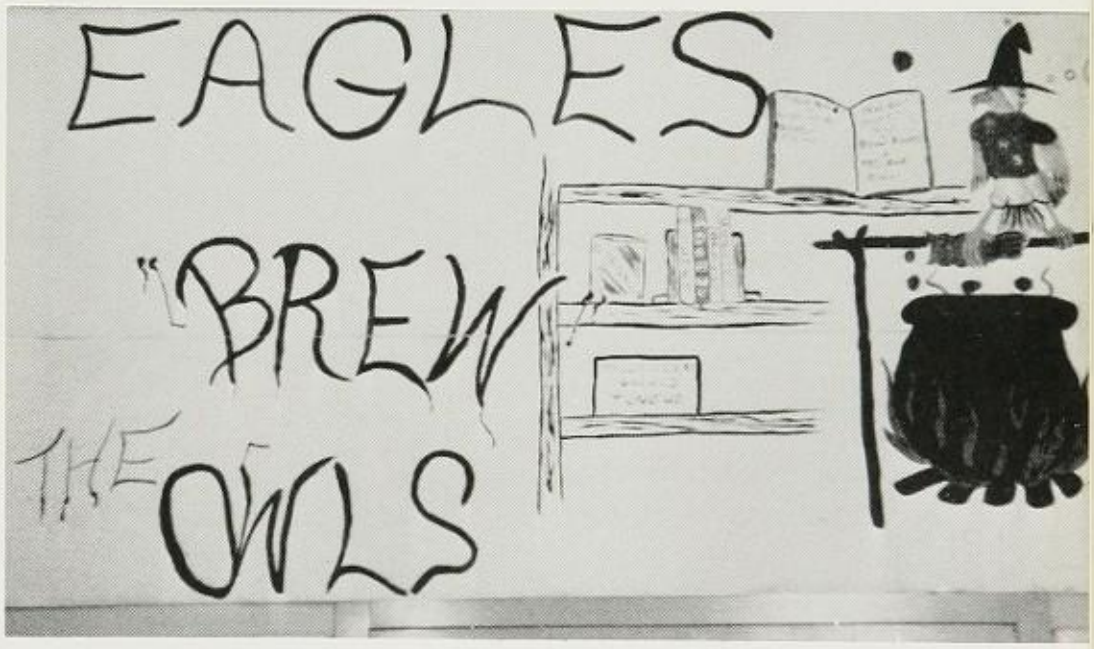
Spirit runs high in the pregame hours at R.H.S. Preceding athletic activities R.H.S. organizations work to insure victories. This year the Student Council and the Y-Teens plastered the walls of the building with colorful posters to raise the spirit of the student body. The Eaglettes decorated the goal posts with banners in the school colors; donated their talents to making spirit posters, and helped the cheerleaders sell spirit ribbons. Goal post signs done with great artistry were made by the cheerleaders.

Pep Rallies held on each Friday afternoon before games were the highlight of each week. The cheerleaders, Eaglettes, and Golden Eagle Band along with the members of the athletic teams lead the student body in yells, songs, and spirit speeches. Adding to the student spirit was Coach Abe Spangler and his traditional pep talks.

As excitement builds at the pep rally the student body yells with all its might.

Cheerleaders Vicki Veerman, Boo Curry and Denise Bullard lead a cheer at a football game.

Not only do the Eaglettes look pretty in their shining white uniforms, but they also have pretty, shining smiles.



Familiar sights in the R.H.S. halls are the many spirit signs placed in the halls each week.

Patty Lipinski, homecoming queen, and her attendants Linda Rutledge, Nannette Hasty, and Nena Thompson are the center of attention at the homecoming game pep rally.

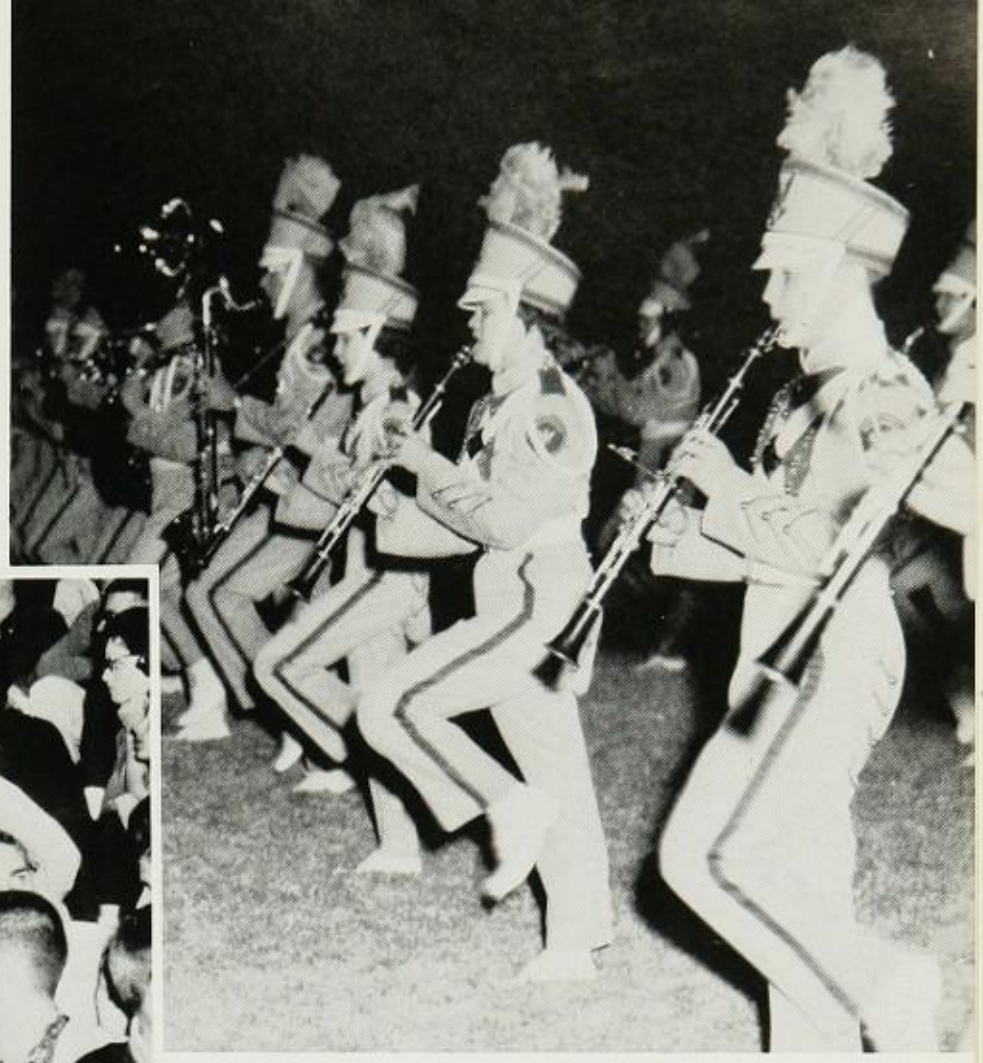
EXCITEMENT REIGNS

As a lonely looking official watches, the high flying Eagles score another point against the Mesquite Skeeters.

R.H.S. sprinter Tommy Hutton crosses the finish line at one of the track meets the track team attended.

Yelling as they run, the R.H.S. cheerleaders precede the football team at the opening of each game.

AT GAME TIME

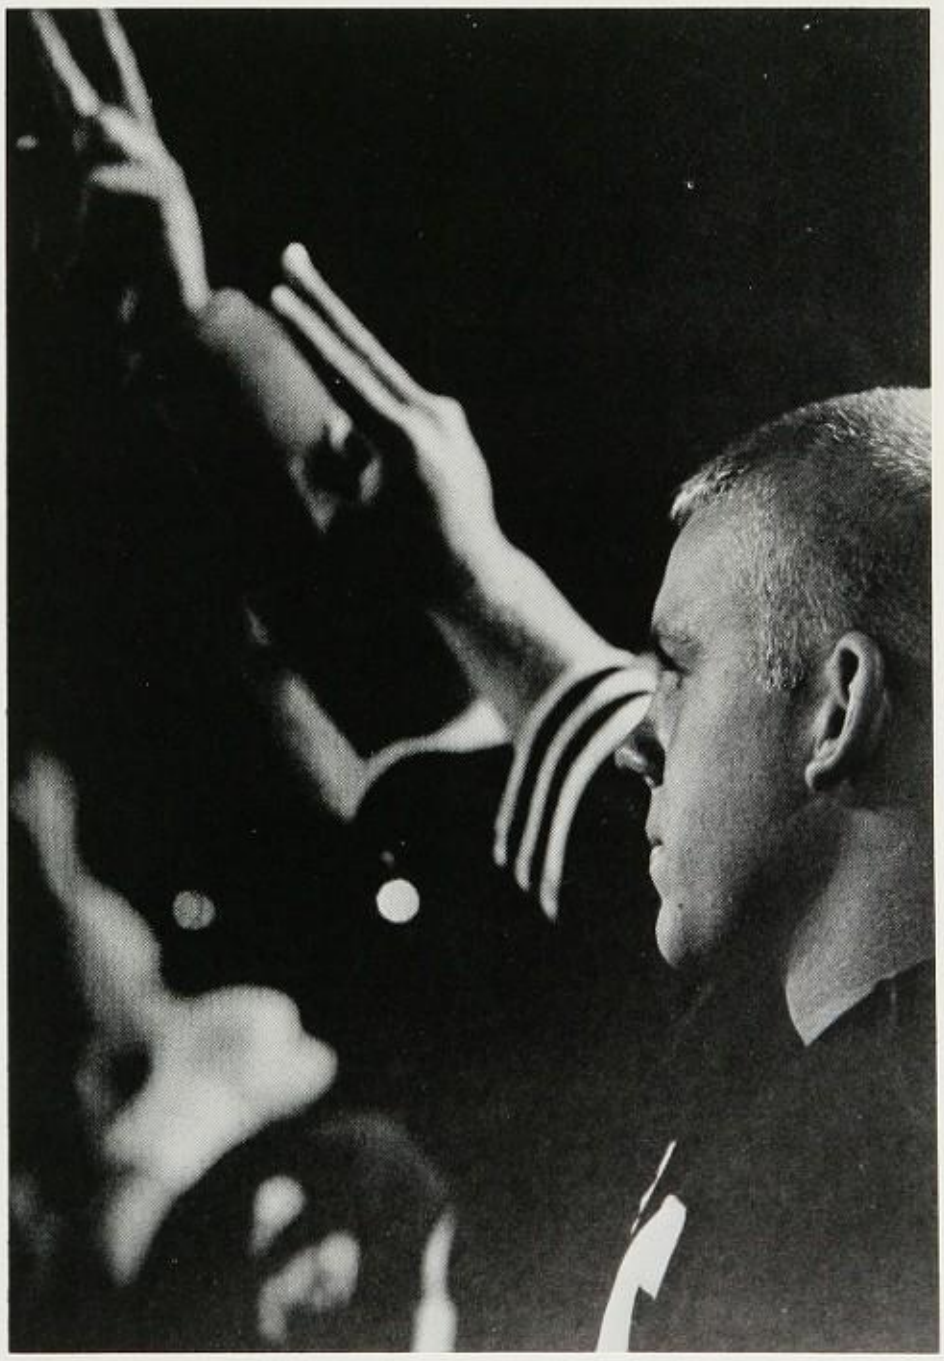


Half time ceremonies at the football games are enriched by the fine music and precision marching of the Golden Eagle Band.

Basketball game crowds find the game very exciting.

With the roar of the crowd and the yell of the cheerleaders the Eagle teams thundered into action at the start of each of the games. Popcorn, cold drinks, and "corny dogs," sold at the club supported refreshment centers infiltrated through the stands at the football games. As the touchdowns rolled up for the Eagles, half-time gradually approached. Flashing horns, pretty girls, and excellent music and entertainment were synonymous with the half-time activities. Topping off the football evenings were the Junior Class Victory Dances which provided a time for fun and relaxation after the tension of the game.

The student body supported the basketball games, track meets and the baseball games to round out the athletic year.

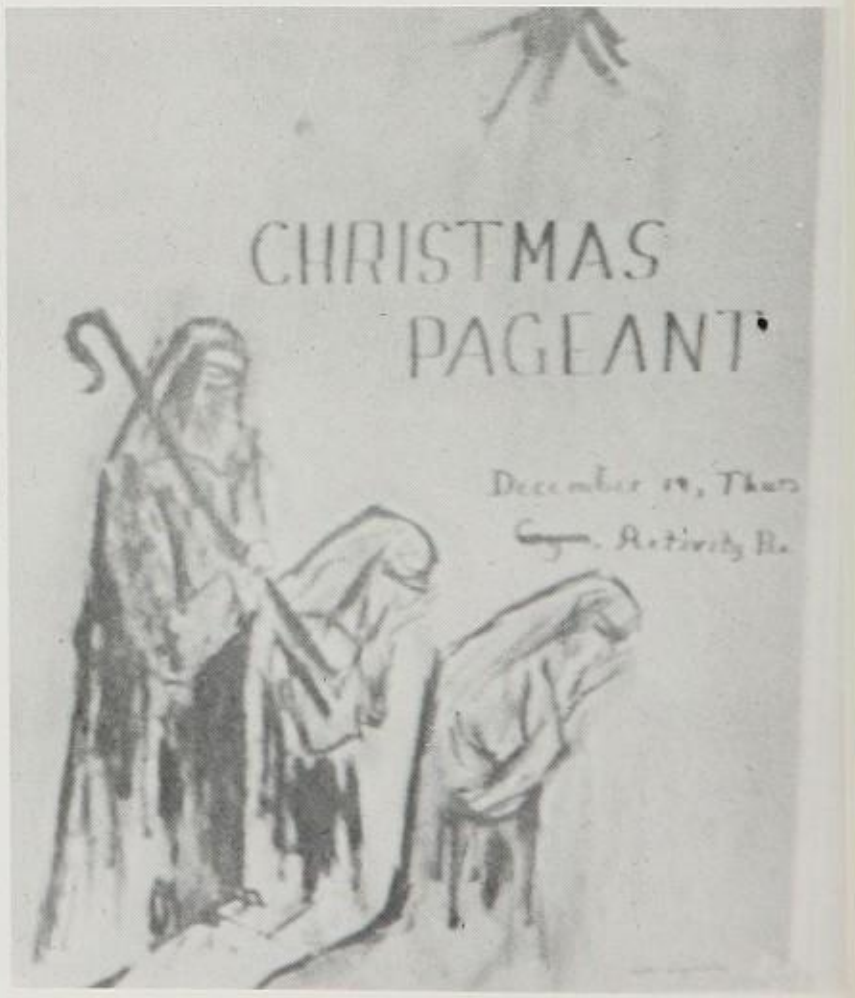


School spirit is not only shown by the student body but also by the team.

Kay Forsyth and Mary Coleman admire the unusual Christmas greeting offered by this display.

CHRISTMAS, VALENTINE BRING FUN TO R.H.S.

Librarian, Mrs. Kathryn Wright, adds holiday touches to the Library.



This was one of many posters which called attention to the Christmas Pageant.

Janeen Frensley, Helen Manning, Sue Chattaway, Barbara Lauratis, and Joyce Slovak seem to have found a particularly funny Valentine that some lucky boy or girl is about to receive.

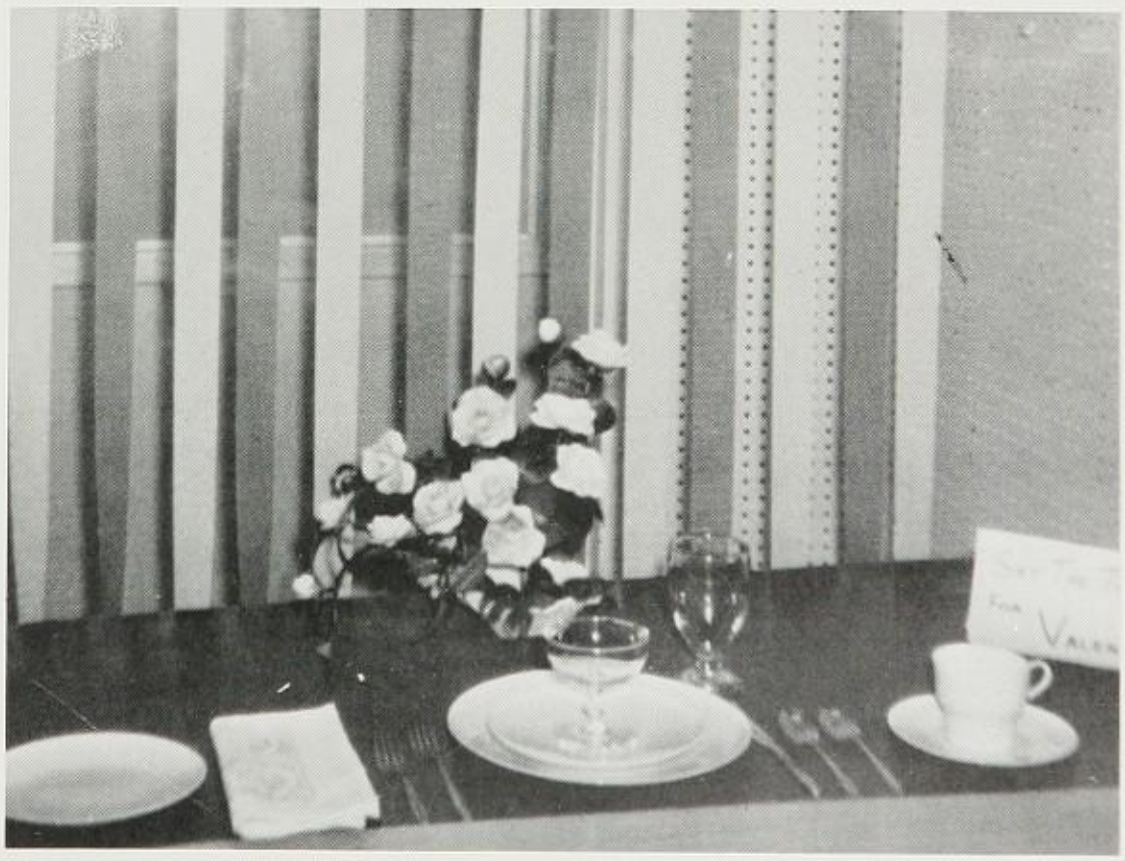
Members of G.S.L., Chapter II, seem to be quite busy sorting the numerous Valentines that they are about to deliver.

Christmas and Valentine's Day highlighted winter activities at R.H.S. This year the Religious Council sponsored project "Operation Deepfreeze," which was an effort to purchase a freezer and a stove for the Dallas Day Nursery Association in West Dallas. Through the generosity of R.H.S. students, our goal was exceeded by nearly $100. A Christmas Dance, sponsored by the Student Council, added spice to the festive holiday season. The dance was given on December 20, the day classes dismissed for the holidays.

With Valentine's Day came special telegrams delivered by members of the Girls' Service League, Chapter II. This project involved the selling of telegrams to prospective sweethearts at different rates, depending on whether the telegrams were recited or sung. This project was enjoyed by students and teachers alike.

These winter holidays gave R.H.S.ites a welcome change from school routine.

The Homemaking Department adds to the festive spirit of Valentine's Day with this attractive display.



VALENTINE'S DAY IS CLIMAXED BY THE KEY CLUB PROM

An atmosphere of tense expectation awaited the opening of the envelope containing the Sweetheart's name February 15, at the Grand Ballroom of the Statler Hilton Hotel. The envelope was torn open and Joanie Luckett became the Key Club Sweetheart for 1964. Key Club President Ronnie White then waltzed with Joanie in a spotlight dance.

Music was provided by the sixteen-piece SMU Revue Band.

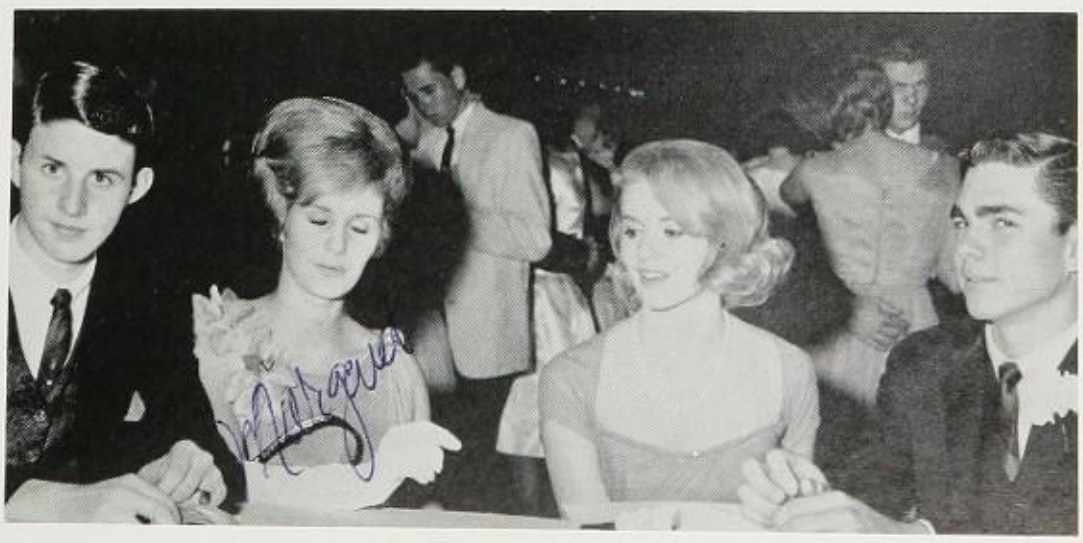
As the evening grew older, the music grew softer, and the couples agreed that this was truly the finest dance of the year.

Sweetheart Joanie Luckett reigned at the Prom along with President Ronnie White.

Members of the Key Club formed a line in honor of Joanie during the spotlight dance.

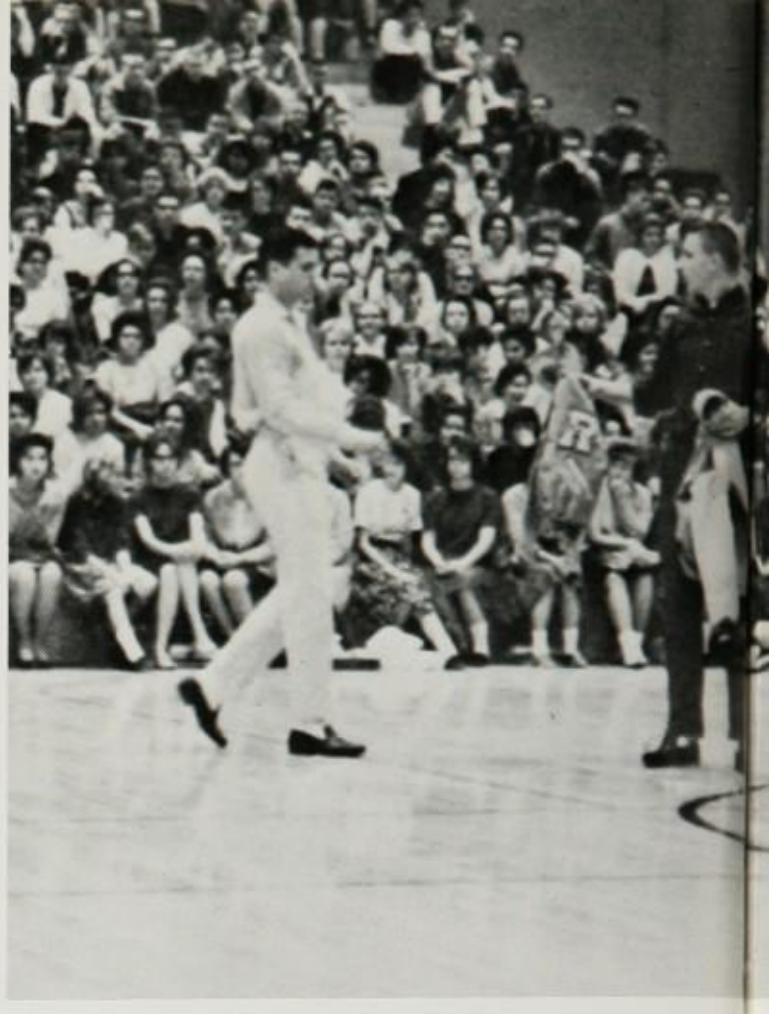
All couples thoroughly enjoyed themselves dancing to the music of the SMU Revue Band.

Music for the occasion was supplied by the SMU Revue Band which was a complete hit with the Eagles.



Terry Lumpkin, Mike Christian, and dates chat about the good time they are having at the fabulous prom.

The Brotherhood Assembly was enjoyed by a large number of R.H.S. students.



Jack Marshall received his football jacket at a special assembly.

During the school year, there are many assemblies. Some are school sponsored; clubs sponsor others; some are pay assemblies; a few are required. But whatever kind it may be, an assembly offers an entertaining break in the days routine.

Many assemblies are traditional affairs at R.H.S. In early November, Miss Helen Poe again visited an eager R.H.S. student body. She gave a resounding talk on Communism. After football season, Chapter II of the Future Homemakers presented each football player and coach with his hard earned doll. The Red Cross again presented a highly successful Talent Assembly.

There were also many assemblies which made their first appearance on the R.H.S. scene. The student body was assembled as the football boys received their long-awaited jackets. The Brotherhood Assembly was presented to a large interested audience. These assemblies helped brighten the school days for R.H.S. students.

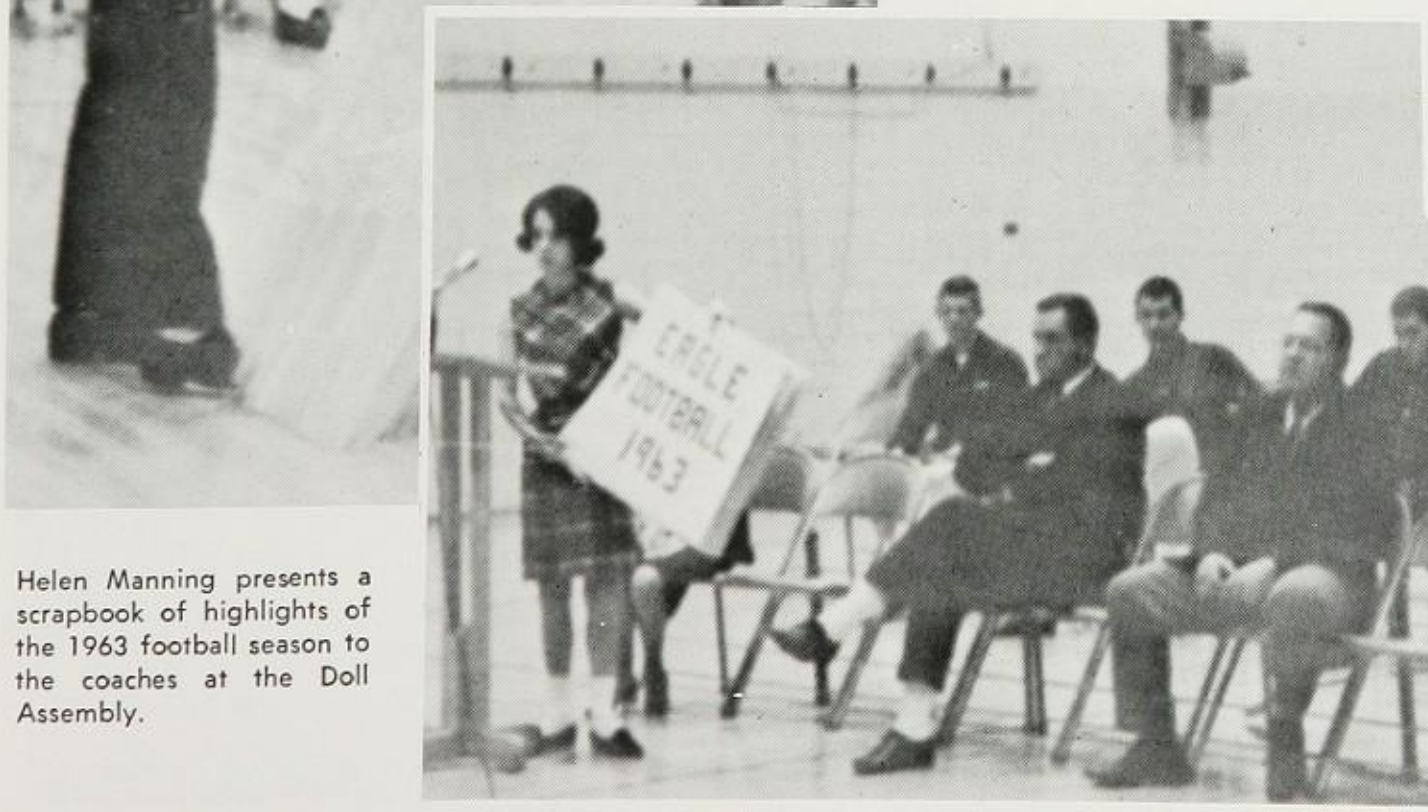
Reg Jackson and his Keynotes played for an enthusiastic crowd at the Talent Assembly.

Student Council President, Larry Waldrop, chats with Miss Helen Poe after her talk to the student body.

ASSEMBLIES OFFER ENTERTAINMENT

Joanne Castle sings one of her favorite songs at the Talent Assembly.

Ronnie White apprehensively receives his doll, a bride doll in the form of Marcia Dudney at the Doll Assembly.



Helen Manning presents a scrapbook of highlights of the 1963 football season to the coaches at the Doll Assembly.

PRHS PRESENTS "OUR TOWN"

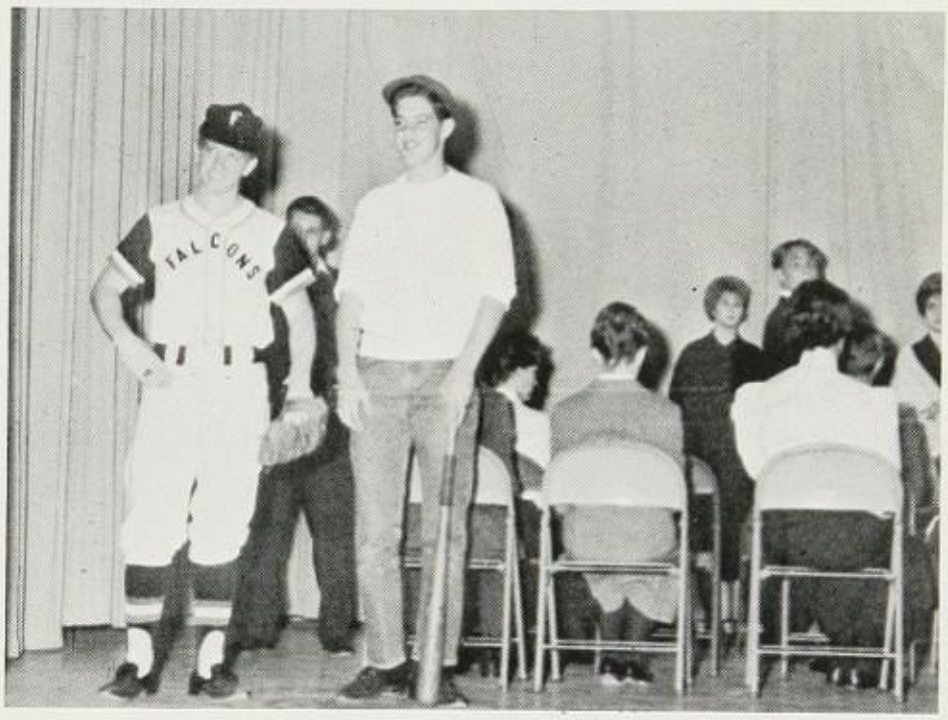
This year's Playhouse RHS started the season with the brilliant production of OUR TOWN by Thornton Wilder. Under the able direction of Mrs. Suzanne Nabours, the cast kept the capacity audience breathless until the final closing of the curtains.

The scene is Grovers Corners, New Hampshire.

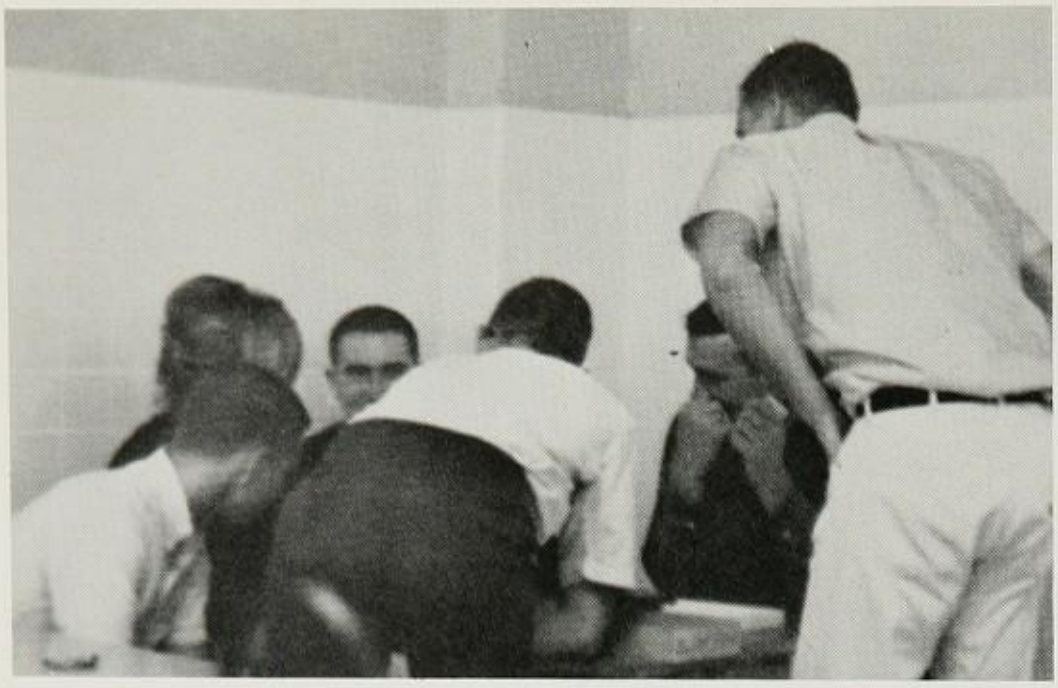
The cycles encountered in a human life are depicted in the play: daily life, marriage, and death.

As the ultimate curtain was drawn shut, the enthusiastic approval of the audience was evidence that OUR TOWN was a smashing success.

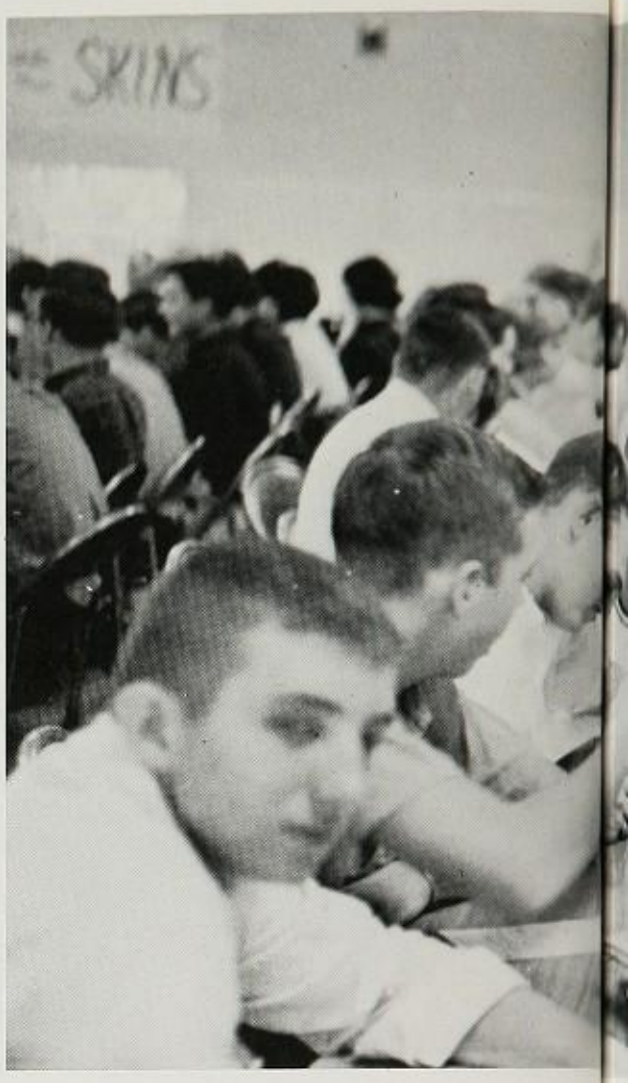


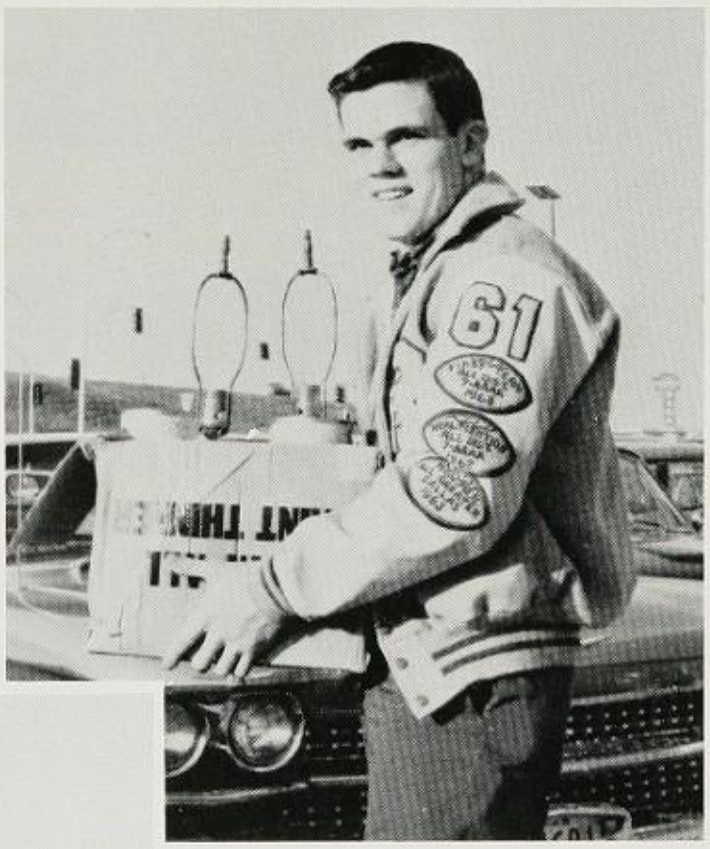
Mike Blew and Jim Bates were cast as baseball players in the town life of Grovers Corners.

Jim Wheeler and Becky Berry conclude the marriage scene.

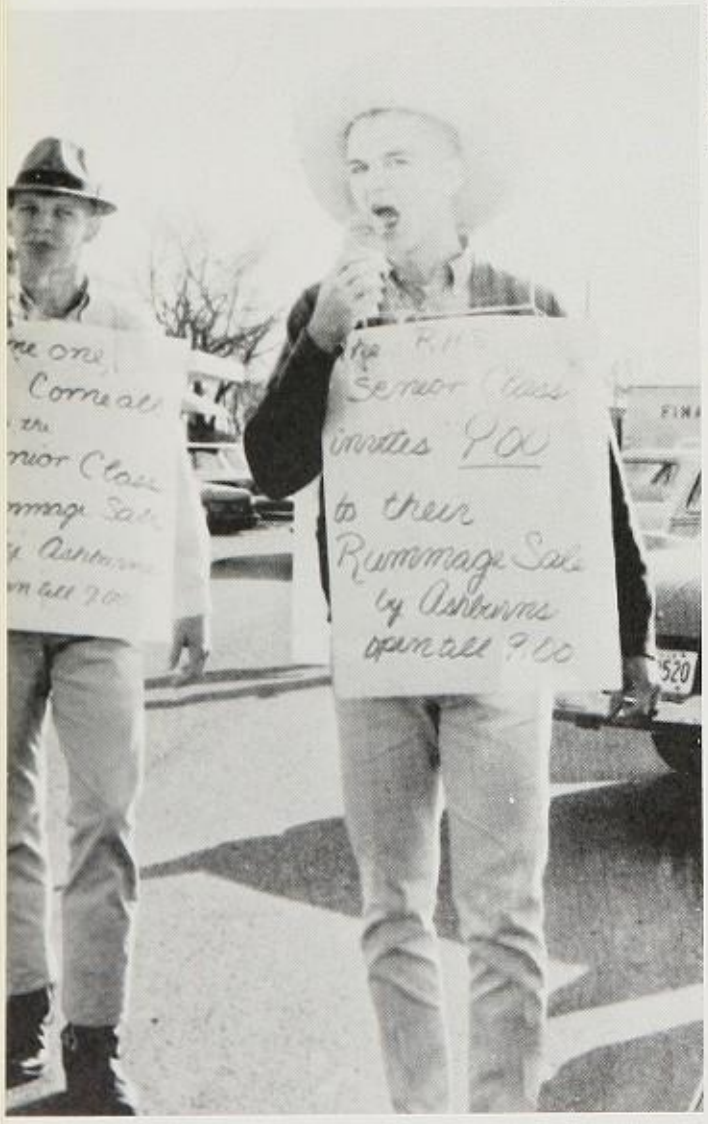


Girls do gossip but from the looks of this picture so do the boys.





Senior Ronnie White helps collect articles to give to the senior rummage sale.



Bobby Reid and John Howie not only advertise for the Senior Rummage Sale but also for Ashburn's ice cream.

To bring down the cost of their Senior Trip and All Night Party, the Seniors staged various money raising projects. The Rummage Sale was a complete success. The original goal of 1000 dollars was surpassed by 200 dollars. The Hootnanny had one of the largest turnouts of any student activity. The Car Wash was April 11. The final project was the Senior Play.

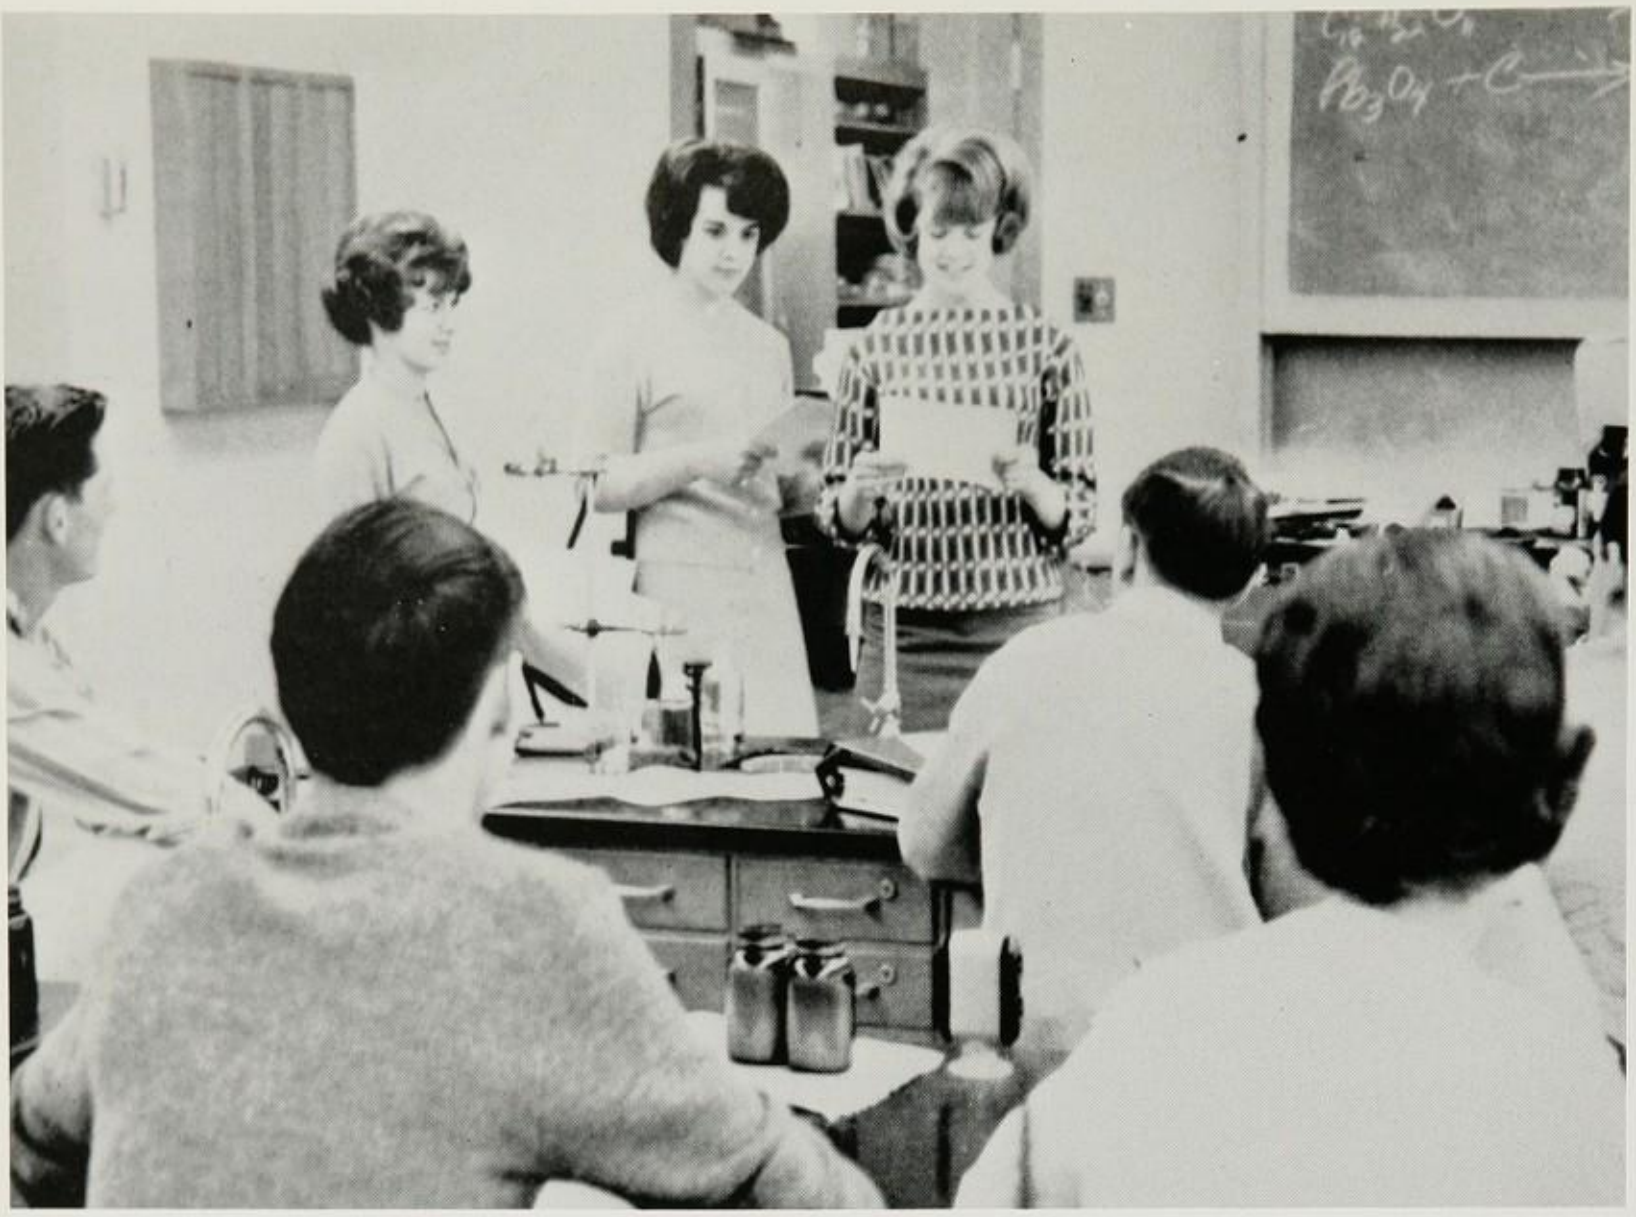
SENIORS MAKE PREPARATIONS FOR GRADUATION

Getting ready for graduation the seniors order their invitations.

Senior class officer Barbee Deering files the senior trip permission slips.

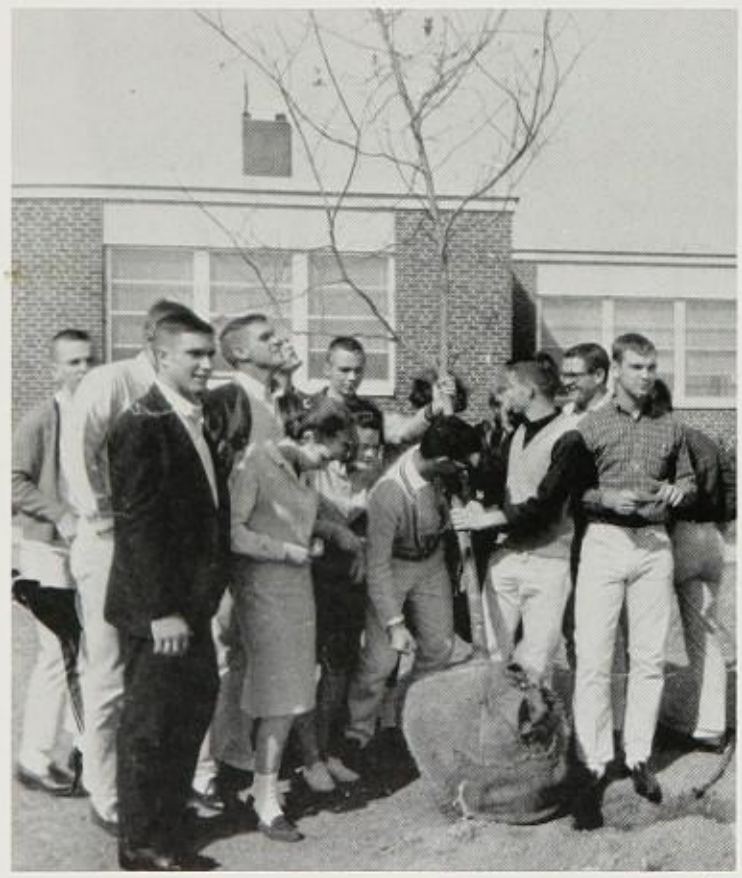
John Applewhite orders his senior pin as Ted Mumaw awaits his turn.

Mr. Passmore presides at a senior assembly. The details of the senior trip and the all night party and the rummage sale were announced.

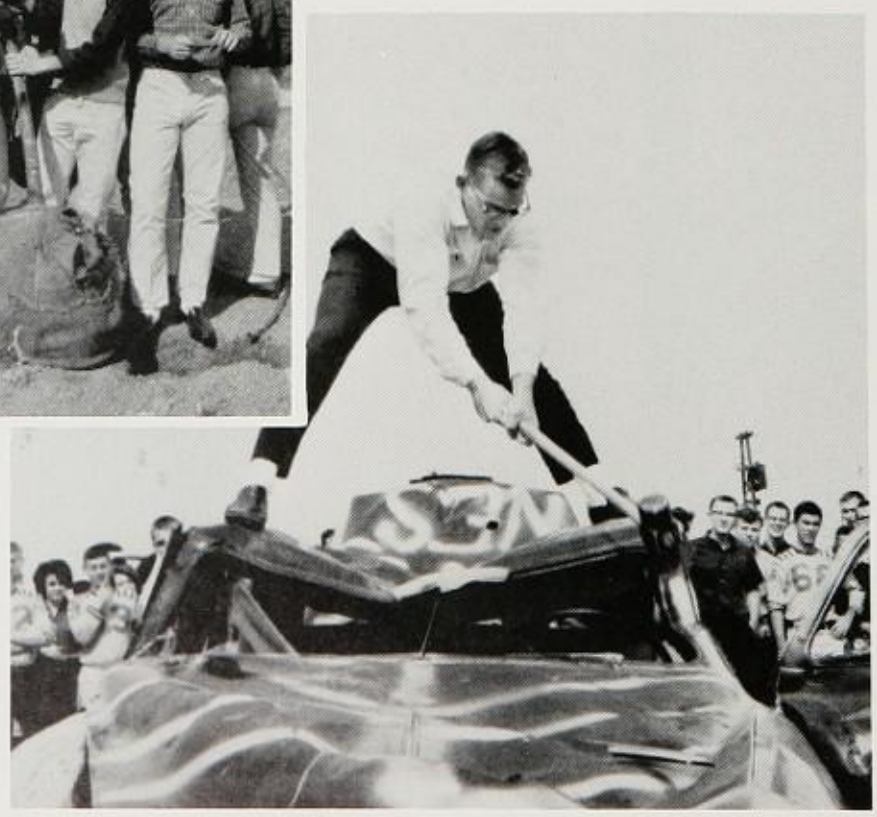


Girl Service League members read some valentines in a senior homeroom.

CLUBS AND CLASSES HAVE VARIED ACTIVITIES



The presidents of all the homerooms assemble to plant a tree which Mr. Rider's Junior homeroom bought for the campus.



As other Eagelites watch Neil Redshaw put another big dent in the Pal's spirit car.

Many special activities were carried on by clubs and classes as the '63-'64 school year progressed. The Senior Class made preparations for graduation and the Junior Class prepared to become the seniors of '65.

As in each year many of the clubs special projects were very beneficial to the school. The Library Club began a paper back exchange, the Pal Club helped increase school spirit, and several clubs worked together beautifying the school campus.

It looks as if Suzanne Hastedt is measuring Bill Henrich for a halo from the angelic look on his face. He is really being measured for his graduation cap.

Steve Speer accepts a check for the band for its participation in the Christmas Parade.

These two junior girls find it to be very exciting ordering their senior rings.

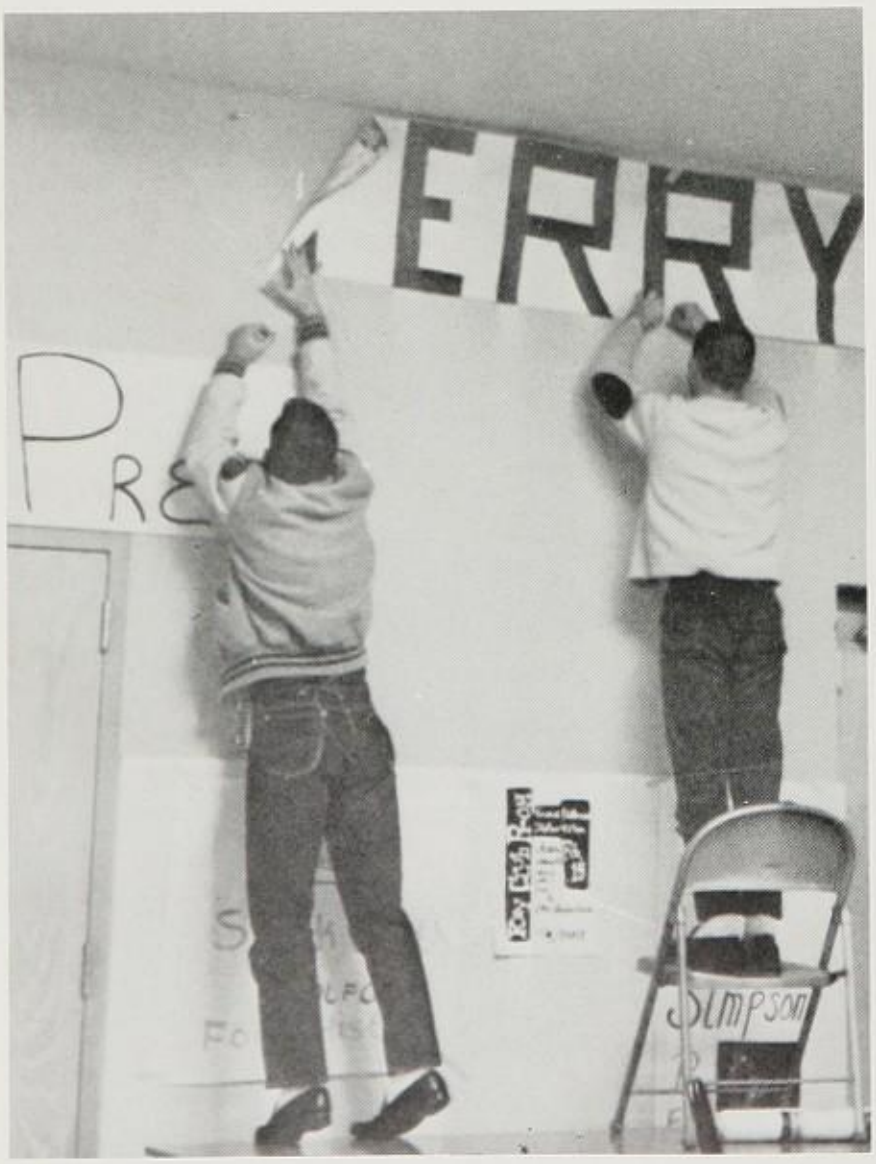
Student Council Treasurer Mike Oliver and Mike Wheat count votes in the favorite elections.

Sam Martin presents his platform to the Student Body at the Political Assembly.

EXCITEMENT REIGNS DURING STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTIONS

The week of March 17-21 was marked by two firsts unprecedented in R.H.S. history. Student Council Election week arrived early Monday morning, as some ambitious politicians arrived at school as early as 4:30 to hang campaign posters. Excitement reached a peak on Wednesday afternoon when the political rally was held. Each campaign manager and candidate spoke to an anxious student body.

Voting took place on Thursday. It was a long day for the candidates. At 3:15 the voting machines were opened and the results were tallied. Marilyn Tipton, the only nominee for Secretary, was the only candidate who did not have to compete in a run-off election. Presidential candidates Terry Lumpkin and Sam Martin headed the list for the run-off, followed by Larry Fairchild and Donna Foster, vice-presidential aspirants; Marian Smith and Suzanne Stringer, treasury hopefuls; and Mary Margaret Halford and Sharron Wells, historian candidates. In the run-offs, R.H.S. chose Sam Martin, Donna Foster, Suzanne Stringer, and Mary Margaret Halford to head the 1964-65 Student Council.



Marion Athans and Randy Whittington struggle with an uncooperative poster.

Marion Athans, Kent Kelly, and Jimmy Collum seem engrossed as returns are posted.

Jenny Eikner seems to like the idea of using voting machines for Student Council Elections.

Rain, sleet, snow, nor the dead of night fail to keep campaign posters from being put up.

Early hours didn't seem to phase these industrious campaigners who began hanging posters as early as 4:30 a.m.

Sophomores registered before being allowed to vote to insure that no one voted twice.

Candidates and campaign managers observed as voting machines were opened.

STUDENTS PERFORM HELPFUL SERVICES

Sam Martin, next year's Student Council President, refills vending machines in the soup room every afternoon after school.

When test results come into the office, there is a lot of filing to be done. Smart Senior Cindy Lightner seems to have found an easier way to get the job done.

There are many odd jobs around the campus that the teachers cannot fit into their busy schedules. Yet these jobs are necessary to the efficient operation of a plant the size of R.H.S. It is through the generosity of many students that these jobs are done. Each class period, girls work in the library, in the attendance office, in Mr. Passmore's office, and in the guidance offices. Every morning two Eagle-ites raise the flags. Two other boys lower it at the end of sixth period.

From the looks of things, Mr. Starr and Mrs. Dooley find plenty of things for Sharon Trimble to do.

Seniors Tommy Hutton and Mike Wooten make sure that the flag is raised daily.

Seniors John Heitmeyer and Bill Tobin lower the flag every afternoon during sixth period.

Janeen Frensley is kept busy checking books out to literary minded RHS-ites.

Claudia Terry and Carol Blackford are two of the many girls who staff the attendance office.

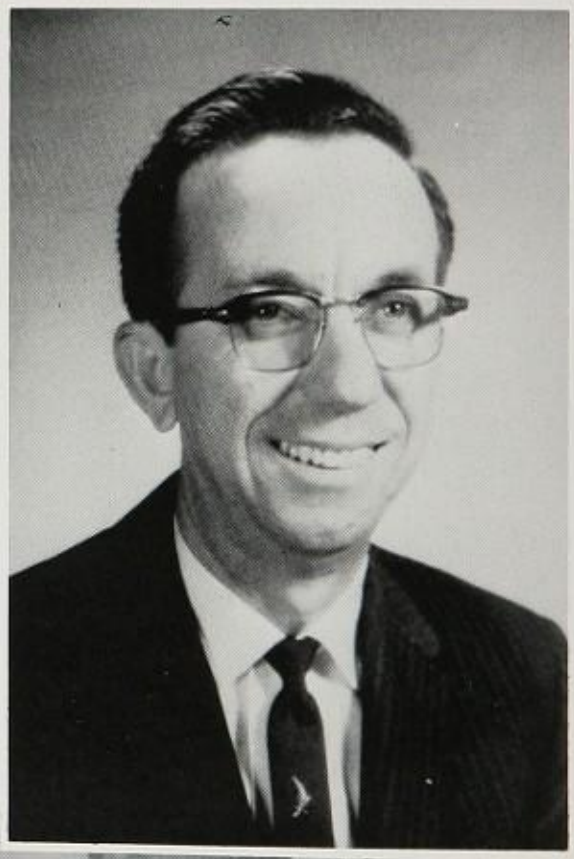
Mrs. Keasler explains a biology specimen to pupils in her class.

FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION CREATES SUCCESSFUL SCHOOL

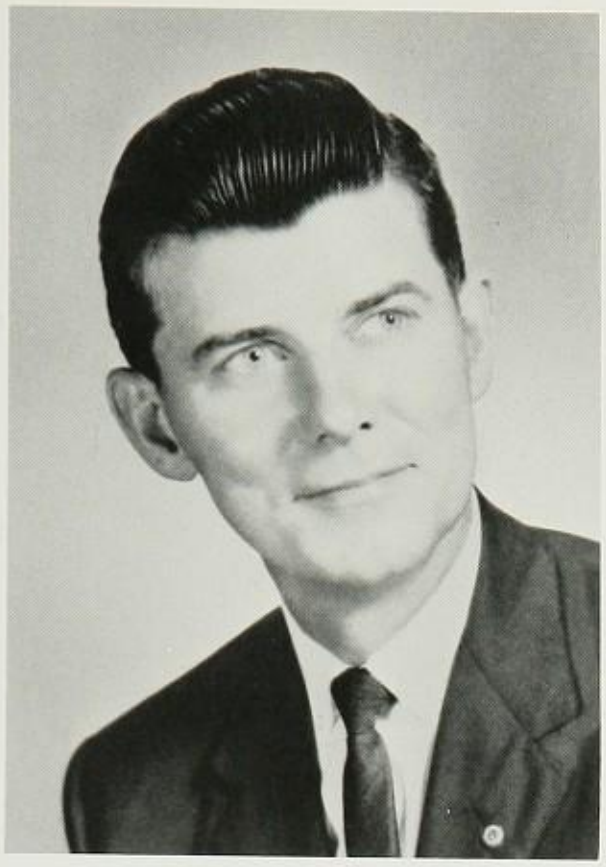
The School Board relaxes before beginning a meeting. From left to right are Dr. Ben R. McCarley; Dr. Charles F. Stringer; Dr. F. E. Brooks, Jr. Vice-President; G. M. Crittenden, President; J. J. Pearce, Superintendent; James R. Crews, Secretary and Robert E. McCarley.

Superintendent J. J. Pearce represents the keystone in the Richardson school system. Mr. Pearce received his B.A. from Baylor University; his M.A. from Southern Methodist University.



Mr. B. B. Passmore has worked with Richardson schools eleven years. He is well qualified for the principal's position, for he received a B.B.A. from the University of Texas and a M.Ed. Admin. from North Texas State University. Scheduling conferences with teachers is a part of his work.

PROGRAM



Mr. Jack W. Evans is the newest member on the board.

Monthly meetings of the Richardson School Board decide the future of local education. Rapid growth of the school district has caused many changes in the school system; making these necessary changes is the Richardson School Board. The members, who are elected, derive no pay for their services. They have acted wisely to maintain the reputation of Richardson as an excellent school community.

Controlling all schools is the superintendent. He must coordinate the many facets of the administration with school board rulings. He must also contend with problems which concern the district as a whole.

All duties of the principal of R.H.S. are funneled toward the constant management and improvement of the school. It is the responsibility of the high school principal to plan schedules, represent the school at official functions, and work with his staff to iron out the many difficulties which confront the school.

As assistant principal, Mr. E. A. Wooten advises Mr. Passmore on school policy and directs office work. He holds a B.S. and M.S. from West Texas State University. Mr. Wooten has also studied at Columbia University.

Working closely with Mr. Passmore is Mr. W. D. Jeter, who attended Hardin-Simmons University (B.A.) and Texas Technological College (M.A.) This is his sixth year at R.H.S.

Running the school smoothly and helping out students are the duties of the office staff, counselors, and librarians.

School business, attendance, and correspondence are handled by secretaries Mrs. Mary Beebe and Mrs. Nadyne Martin. Mrs. Beebe handles general office work and serves as Mr. Passmore's secretary; Mrs Martin keeps up with student attendance and aids Mr. Jeter in keeping student records.

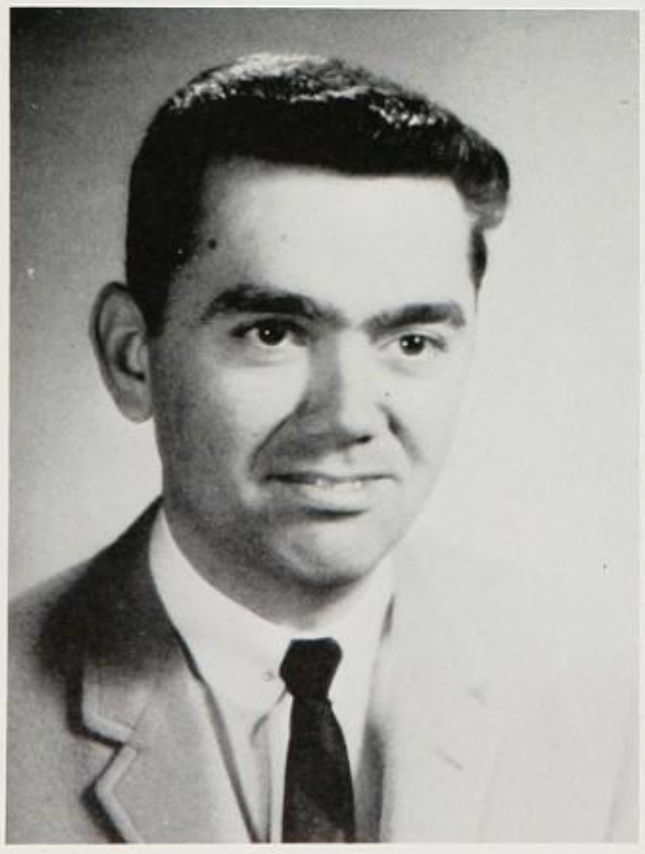
Counselors Mrs. Louise Dooley and Mr. Howard Starr advise students on problems encountered in school. Filling out recommendation sheets, telling pupils of special programs, and determining reasons for inefficiency are a few of their varied duties.

The library provides a quiet place for research and study. Librarians Mrs. Mabel Nicolson and Mrs. Katheryn Wright help students find materials for themes, projects, or just plain reading pleasure.

Counselor Mrs. Louise Dooley received her B.S. from T.W.U. and her M.Ed. from East Texas State. The American Field Service is under her sponsorship.

As Mr. Passmore's assistant, Mrs. Beebe keeps busy handling general office work.

Mr. Howard A. Starr fulfills counseling duties in addition to teaching advanced biology. He holds a B.A. from the University of Dallas, and a M.A. from Southern Methodist University.



Sponsoring the Key Club is another of Mr. Starr's activities. He is seen here on one of the club's outings.

STAFF ASSISTS STUDENTS

Librarian Mrs. Mabel Nicholson has taught for twenty years in Richardson. She received her B.A. and M.A. from East Texas State College; her M.L.S. from T.W.U.

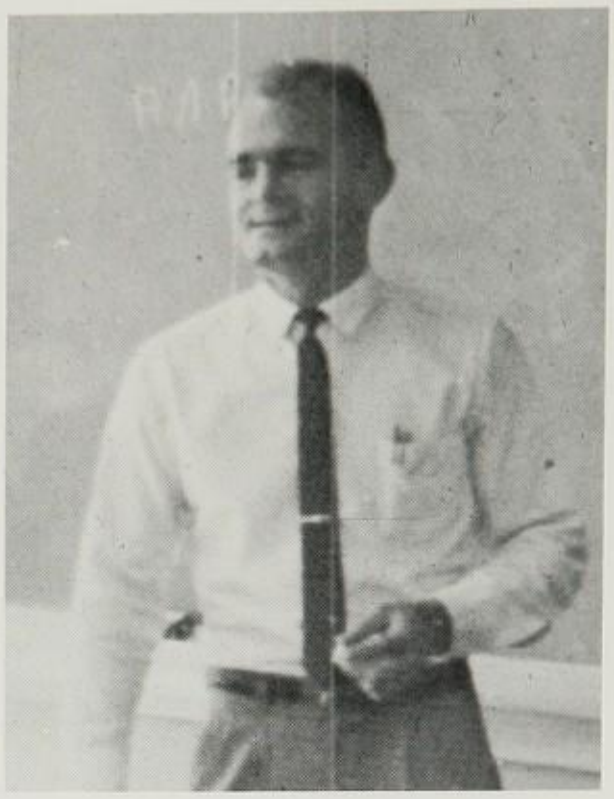
Mrs. Katheryn Wright assists in the management of the library. Mrs. Wright holds B.S. and M.L.S. degrees from East Texas State College. Her hobbies include cooking and camping.

Secretary Mrs. Nadyne Martin works in the attendance office with Mr. Jeter. Keeping school records and handling correspondence are also included in Mrs. Martin's activities.

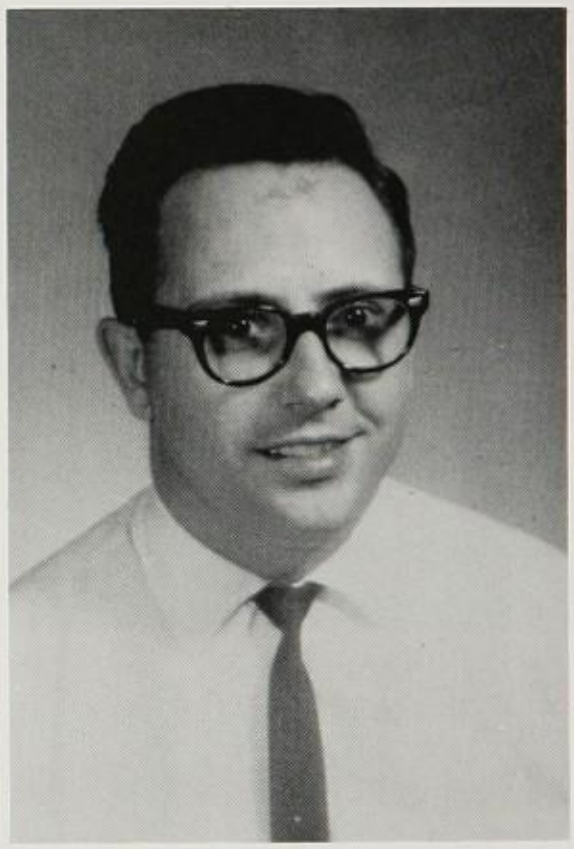
Mrs. Martin begins another day in the office.

Algebra 3-4 and trigonometry are taught by Mrs. Easter Stokes. Mrs. Stokes holds a B.S. and M.S. from East Texas State College; she sponsors Red Cross.

Aside from teaching first year algebra, Mr. Bill Atkins coaches the varsity football team.



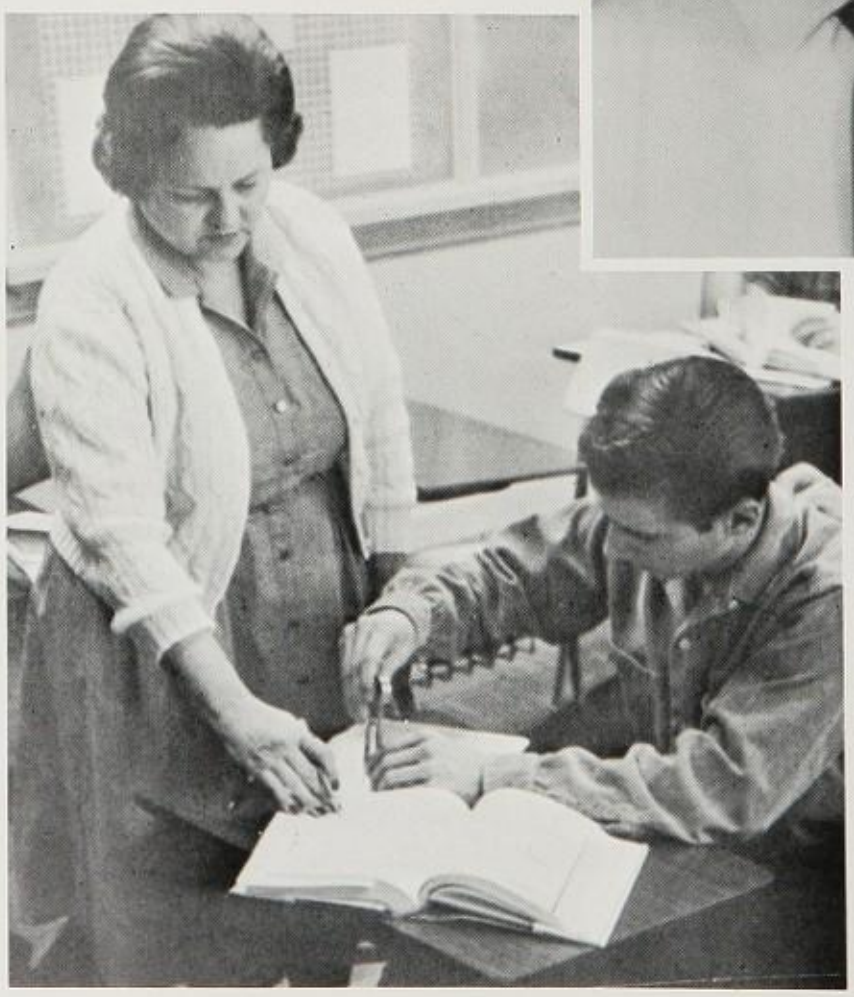
Mr. James E. Swann, II, teaches solid geometry and algebra 3-4. Mr. Swann is the Math Club sponsor.



MATH CHALLENGES THE MIND

Richardson has been called the electronic center of the southwest; the study of electronics is based upon the science of mathematics. At R.H.S., comprehensive math courses give students the fundamental background required for advanced studies. Algebra I and II, plane and solid geometry, trigonometry, and elementary functions comprise the list of subjects that are important for later specialization such as electronics, engineering, and scientific research.

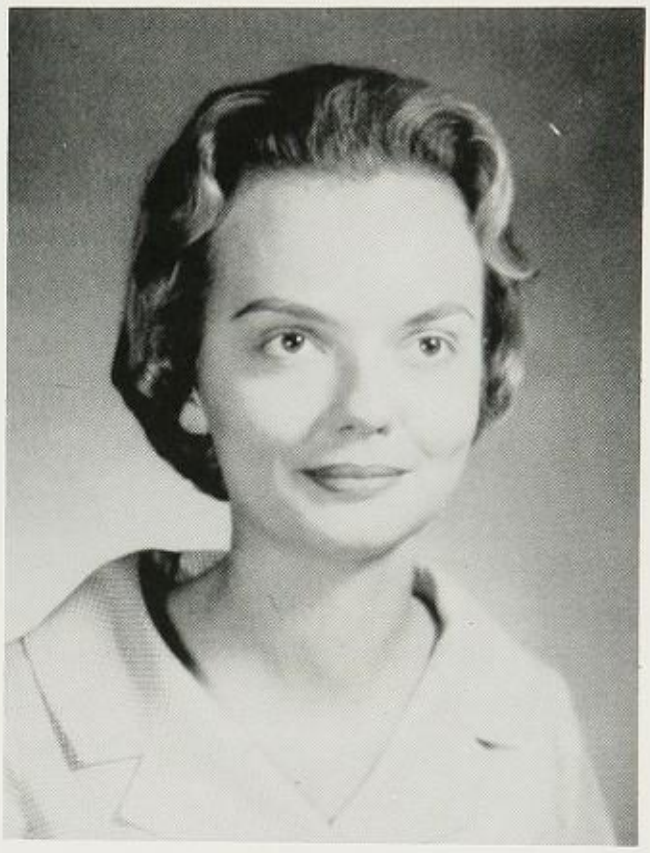
Mathematics is as valuable to students not planning a career in the field as it is to those who are. Being able to see a problem, break it into its simplest parts, and then determine all solutions possible through laws and logic involved is one of the many benefits an introduction to math yields.



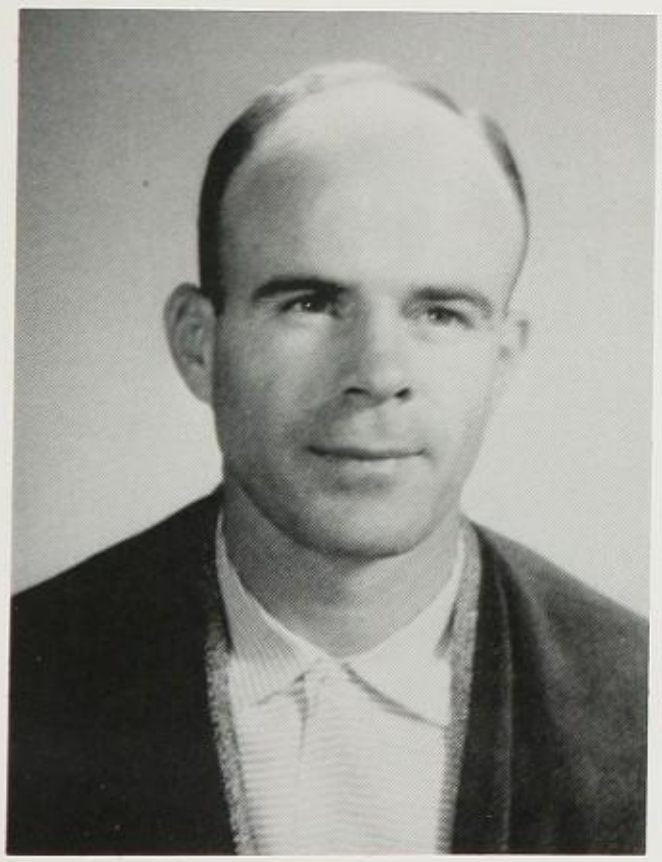
On the faculty for the fifth year is Mrs Elna McKinney. She received her B.S. from Texas Christian University.

Plane geometry teacher Mrs. Rowena Jones received her B.A. from Texas Tech.

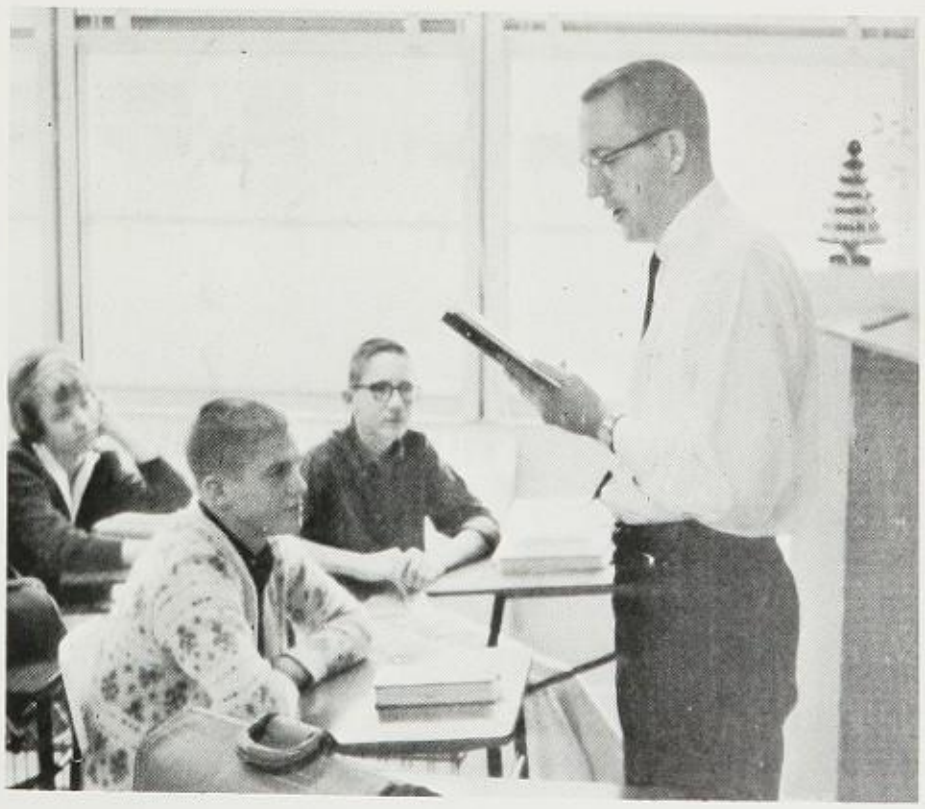
Mrs. Elizabeth Mann explains baffling trigonometry problem to class. Mrs. Mann is also Student Council advisor and sponsor of the advanced Slide Rule Club.



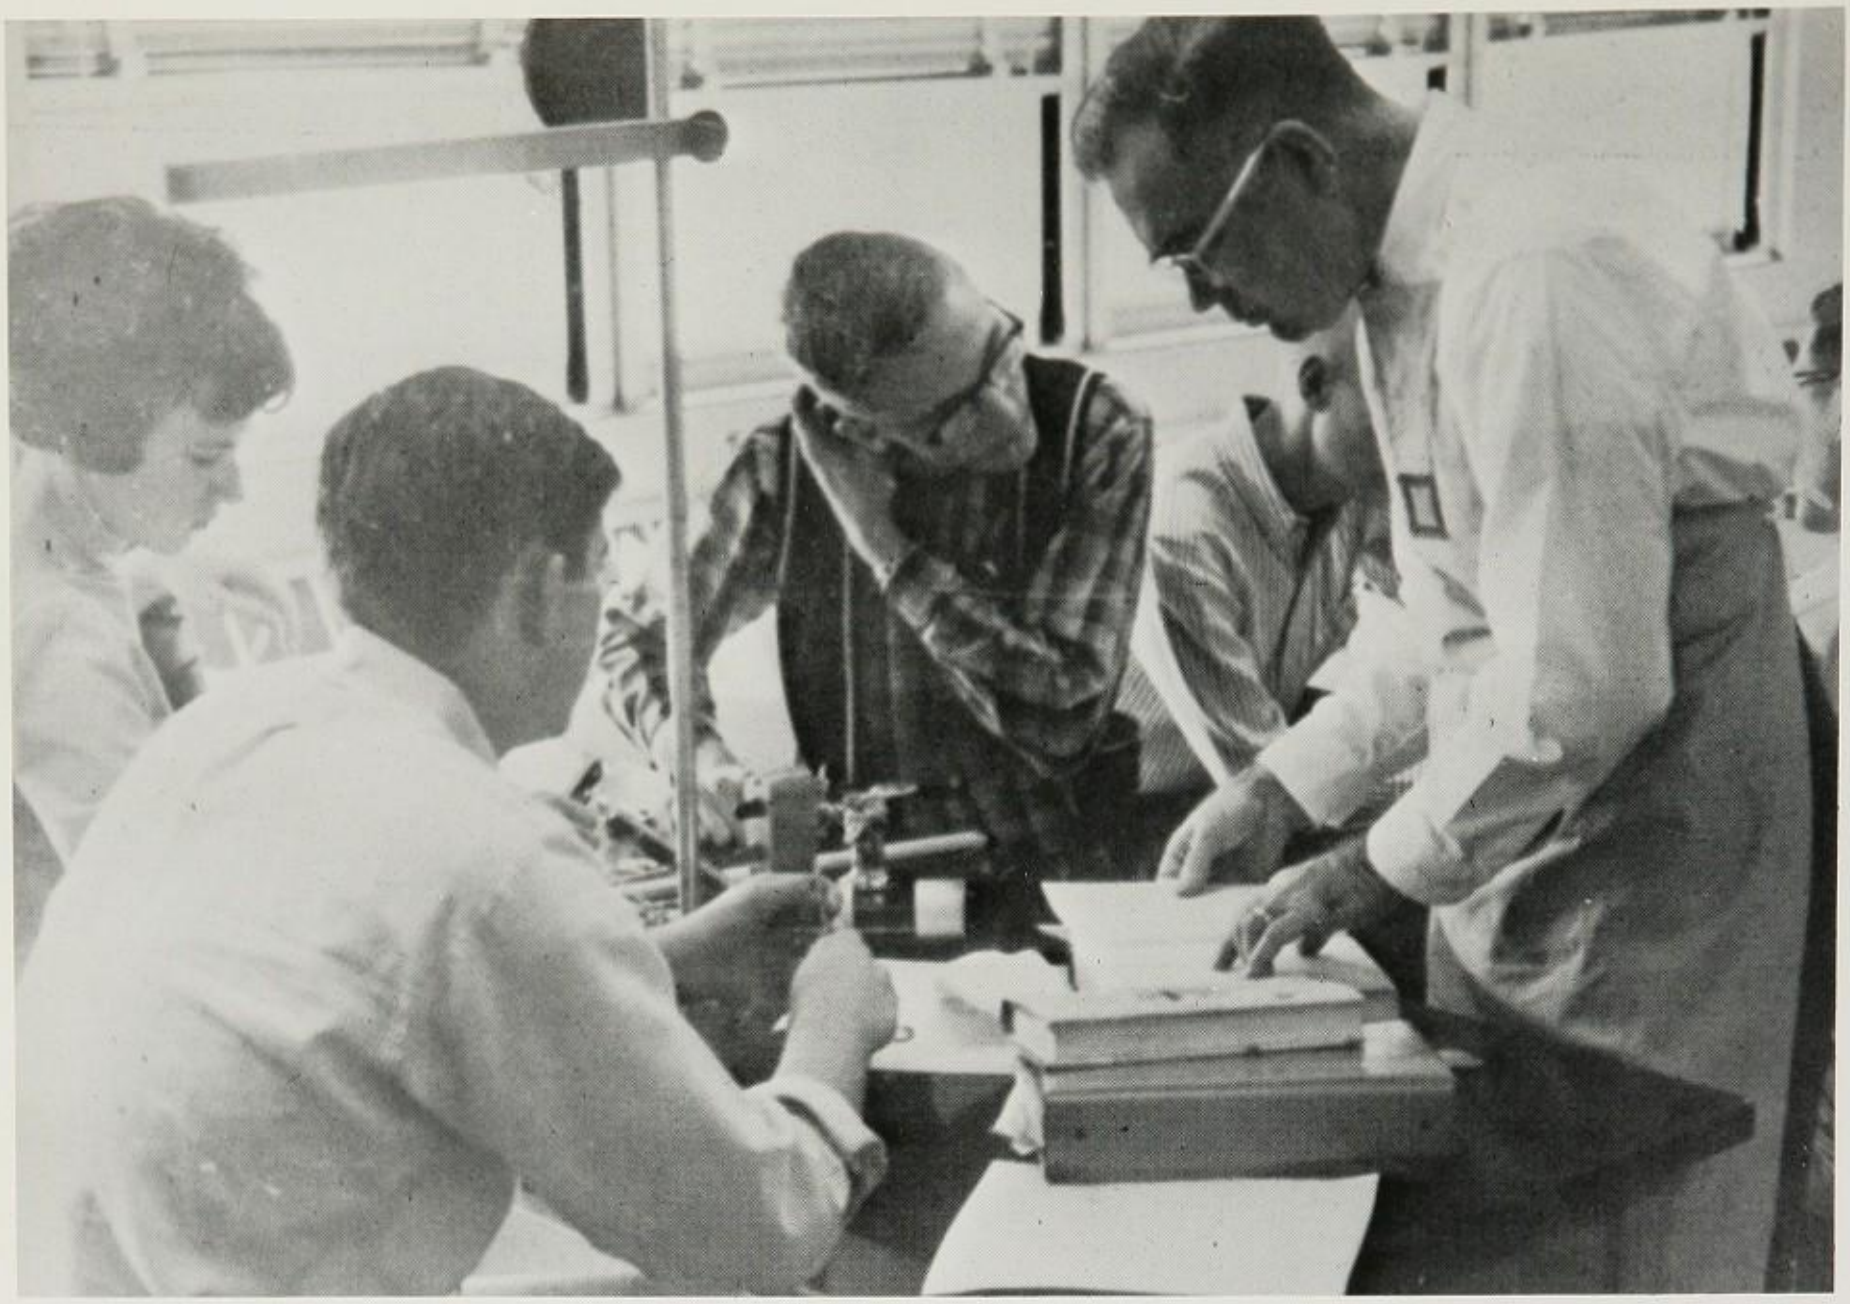
Mrs. Lauralou Langston, who teaches plane geometry, holds a B.S. from the University of Missouri.



New in the math department this year is Mr. Otis Ratliff. Mr. Ratliff received his B.S. from McMurry and M.Ed. from Texas Tech.



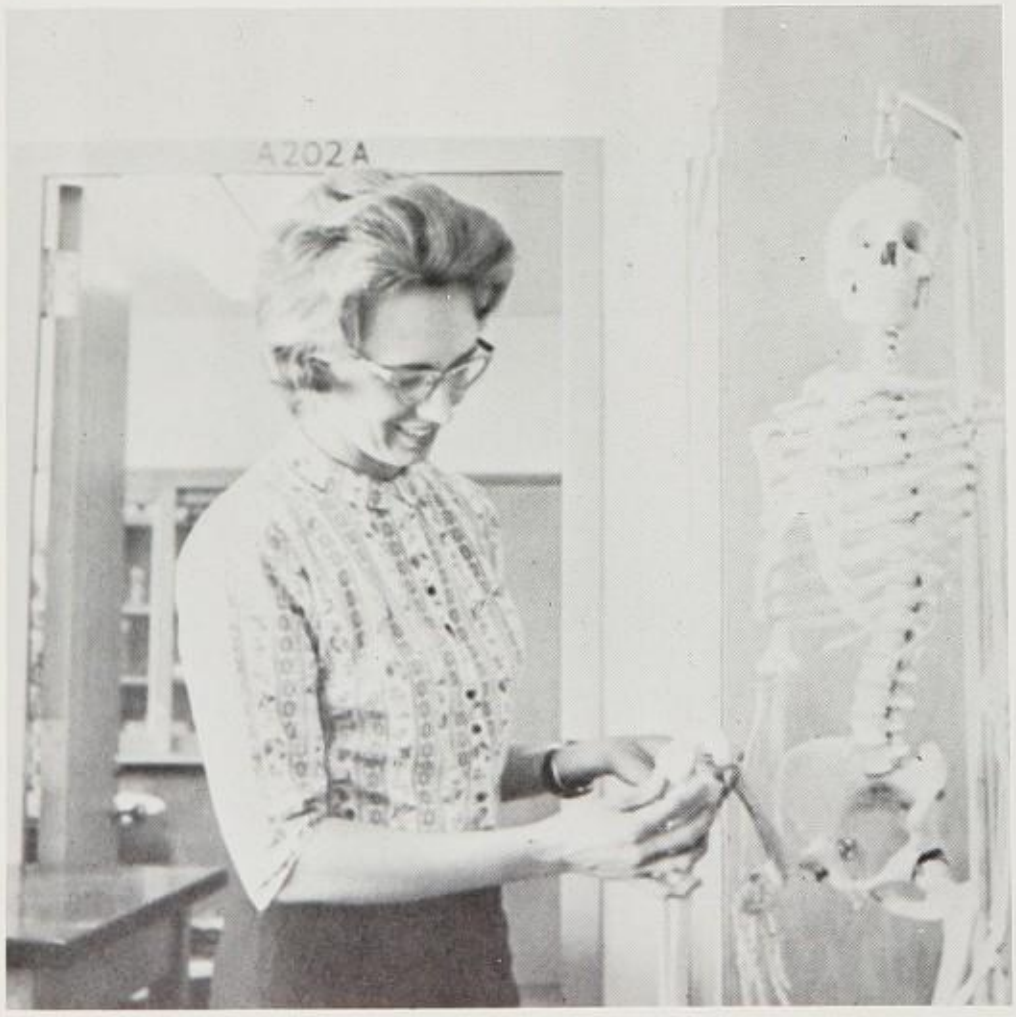
In addition to sophomore English, Mr. Jerry P. Hill teaches plane geometry. He sponsors the newly-formed AFS and Slide Rule clubs.



Physics and chemistry teacher Mr. Garrett O. Slaughter helps students with experiment.

Mr. Slaughter received his M.Ed. from S.M.U., He sponsors Chem-Phy.

Teaching biology for her fourth year at R.H.S. is Mrs. Carolyn Georges. Mrs. Georges received her B.A. from N.T.S.U.; she has also studied at Rice and Southern Methodist University.



Bio-Sci Club sponsor Mrs. Christine Keasler has been teaching biology in Richardson for three years. She relaxes with reading and gardening.

SCIENCE EXPLAINS "WHY"

Mrs. Burke Brown joined the faculty at mid-term. A member of the team-teaching group, she instructs chemistry.

Miss Alice A. Rollins shares teaching duties with Mr. Thompson, in the new team-teaching program. Chemistry students are taught by one teacher, while the other prepares laboratory work.

Aside from teaching first and second year chemistry, Mr. Joseph Guyton Thompson sponsors the PAL Club and JETS.

A graduate of T.W.U., where she received both her B.S. and M.S. degrees, Miss Julia Riggs teaches biology.

Biology, chemistry, and physics are the sciences taught at R.H.S. Their basic function is to examine natural phenomena organically, inorganically, and physically.

Procedure and observation form the first year introductions to biology and chemistry. Second year students in biology begin a more comprehensive study of life; the course centers on comparative anatomy and plant morphology. Advanced chemistry students delve into long lab periods to perfect individual procedure and technique. Physics applies the natural forces to practical application.

These courses strive in a common direction. They encourage students to state problems accurately, formulate logical hypotheses, create pertinent experiments, and reach valid conclusions. This common goal and the factual knowledge gained is designed to arouse interest in the scientific fields.

PAST AND PRESENT ARE STRESSED IN SOCIAL STUDIES

Social studies give the student an understanding of the world's past history as well as its present course.

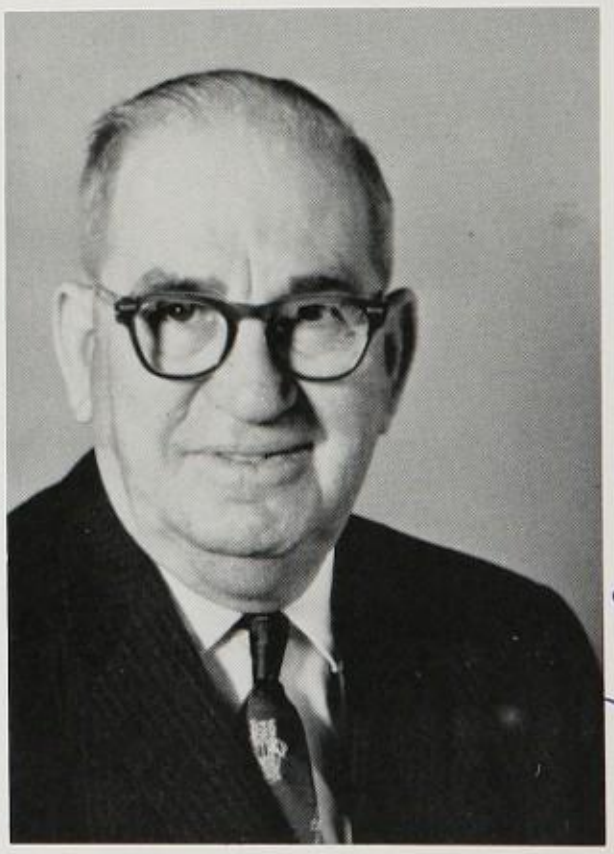
Through classes in three branches of history-world, American, and Texas-students learn more about the history of other nations in addition to their own state and national heritage. Contributions of individuals and their effect on history are included in these courses. Finally, history compares yesterday with today, and points out their striking similarities and differences for future decision-making in like situations.

Government explores the inner workings of the complex system under which Americans live, whereas economics explains the functions of commercial society. Students taking Advanced Social Science Problems investigate current problems more minutely as class projects.

American history teacher Miss Norma Knobel sponsors Girls' Service League. Her hobby is antiques.

Mrs. Gloria Snyder graduated from the University of Texas with a B.S. This is her second year here.

Mr. Jack Harris instructs classes in economics and government. He coaches both football and track.



Mr. W. O. Silk, who began teaching government at R.H.S. this year, received his B.S. from N.T.S.U. and his M.S. from Austin College.

Miss Julia Darnall co-sponsors the Student Forum and National Honor Society. She is also advisor to the Eagle.

Mrs. Mauricia Ewing helps student in American history. Among her hobbies are golf and bridge.

Texas history and American history are taught by Mr. Jack Routt, whose hobby is woodworking. He coaches basketball.

World history Mrs. Marilyn Ward has taught five years in Richardson. Sponsor of the United Nations Club, she stresses that she is purely a spectator in her hobby, ballet.

Mrs. Weldon Barnett, who teaches American history, also co-sponsors the student Forum and National Honor Society.

Mr. Larry N. Moore lectures in American history. This is his first year in Richardson.

Mrs. Mary Helen Cardwell is instructor in Spanish 3-8. Last summer she did graduate work in Valencia, Spain.

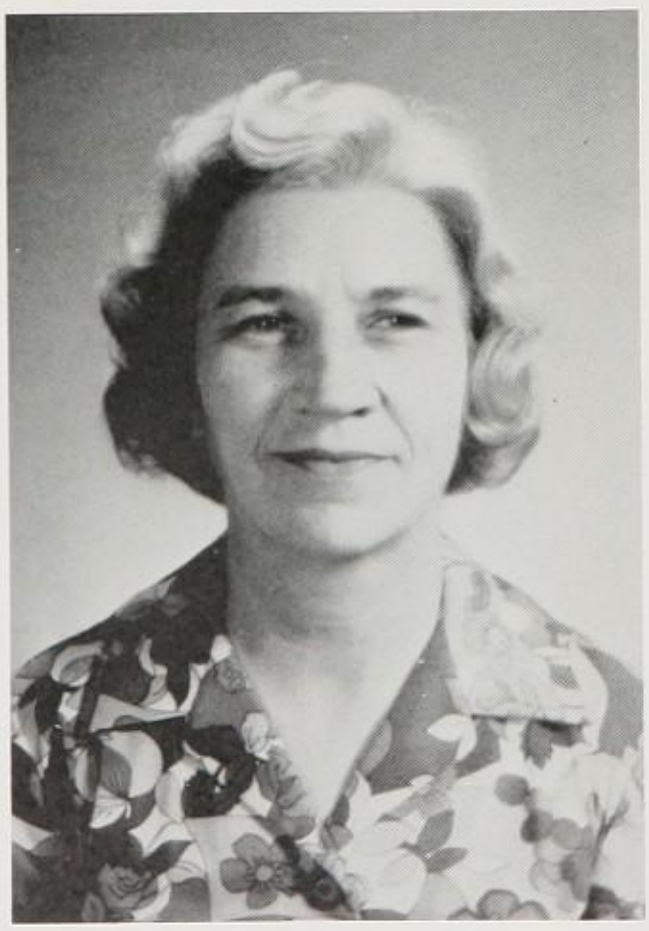
German and typing are taught by Mrs. Lillian Mankus, who graduated from Hunter College with a B.A. and from Cornell University with an M.A. She sponsors the German Club.

LANGUAGES BROADEN UNDERSTANDING

Learning more about other people of the world is continually stressed. One of the best ways to understand these people and their cultures is by the study of a foreign language at R.H.S. French, German, Latin, and Spanish are offered to the student who wants to broaden his concept of different ways of life. Not only does the study include basics such as grammar, reading comprehension, and conversation, but also information about the customs and everyday life of its people.

Pronunciation is perfected in the language lab under the eye and ear of the instructor. Other aids are employed with the purpose of teaching the student self-expression.

With improved communications and transportation, it is now possible to correspond with or personally visit foreign lands. In this way, immediate benefits of a foreign language can be realized by a student. He appreciates the values of other nations and learns to respect them.



Mrs. Margaret Edwards teaches Latin for the third year at Richardson. Sponsor of the Junior Classical League, she relaxes with family and books.

Puerto commendable!
Mrs. Edwards

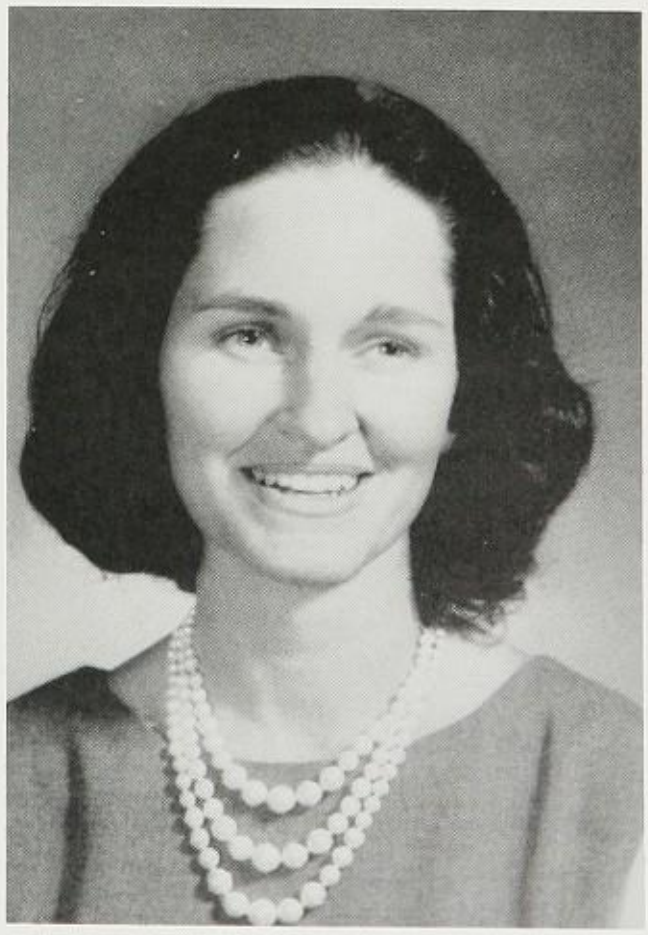
Miss Jeanette Kimble, a graduate of S.M.U. teaches both French and English. She also co-sponsors the Beginning French Club.

First year Spanish and sophomore English teacher Mrs. Nell Evans finds time to sponsor beginning PASF.

Mrs. Patterson quizzes a class over the Spanish assignment. Later, students will give discursos over the material.

A co-sponsor of PASF, Mrs. Esther Patterson instructs Spanish 1-4. Mrs. Pattterson obtained her B.A. from the University of Kansas.

Mrs. Virginia Horner is teaching French for the fifth year. Beginning and advanced French clubs are under her supervision.



ENGLISH SEEKS EXPRESSION

Miss Jerelyn Taylor conducts classes in junior and sophomore English. Her hobby is skiing.

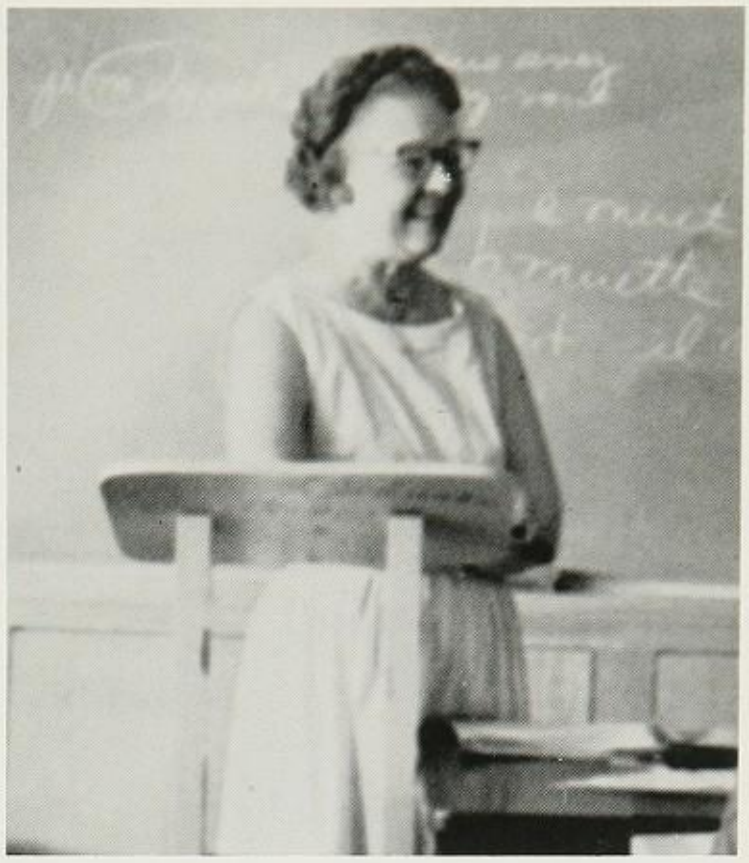
Educated people agree that self-expression is more important than anything else ever learned. R.H.S. emphasizes the need of a clear, direct manner and sincere style in its English instruction. Everything man learns is dependent on knowledge of his own language; Consequently, he should try especially hard to master that language. Helping toward the betterment of English is the study of literature and grammar.

Junior English teacher Mrs. Ruth Johnson holds a B.A. from Baylor University and an M.A. from Texas Tech. She sponsors the Religious Council and junior class.

Sponsor of the school newspaper, the Talon, Mrs. Maurine Atwood teaches journalism and sophomore English. She has taught in Richardson for seven years.

Literature reveals the history of English and the many ways in which different people have interpreted the life of the ages they have lived in. Following the development of English through the centuries one can trace its present state back to a humble beginning among European tribes. The "American language" originated from this source.

Studying grammar furnishes the materials for expression accepted by society. By combining the usefulness of grammar and the wisdom of literature, the English faculty at R.H.S. gives the students the key to expressing themselves.



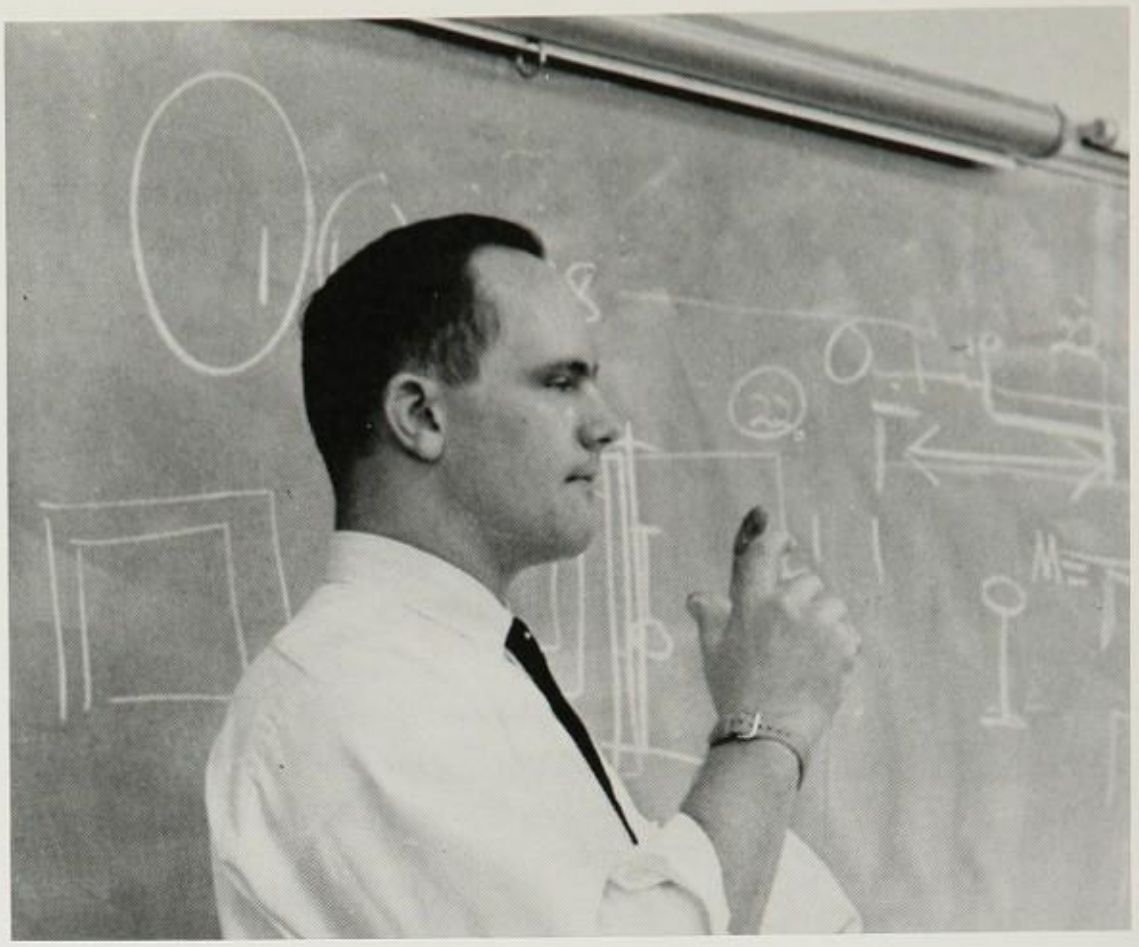
Mrs. Leslie Johnson is teaching junior English for her seventh year at Richardson. She received her B.A. and M.A. from S.M.U.

Mrs. Allee S. Gaydon, who holds a B.A. and M.A. from N.T.S.U., teaches senior English. She is also sponsor of Future Teachers of America.

Senior class sponsor Miss Sue Foote also teaches senior English. Miss Foote graduated from the University of Texas with a B.A.; from Trinity University with an M.A.

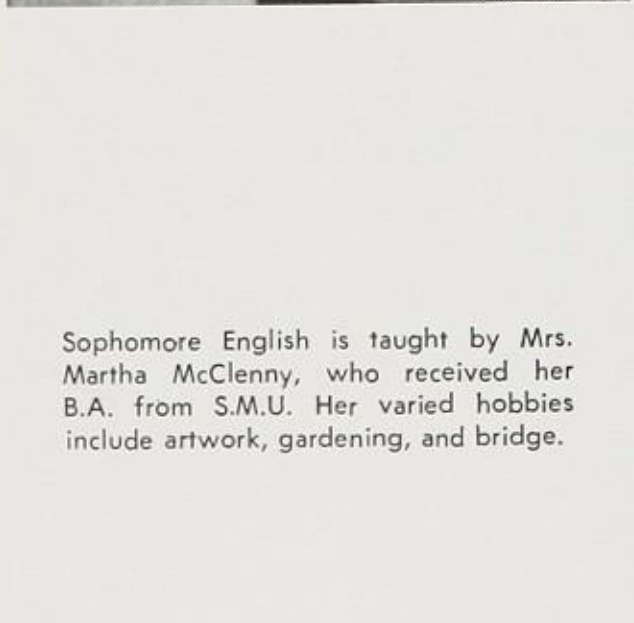
Mrs. Vivian Taylor, who teaches junior English, has done graduate work at UCLA and Oklahoma University.

Mrs. Bettye Martin, graduate of East Texas State College (B.A., M.A.), instructs sophomore English. Her outside interests include music, sports, reading.

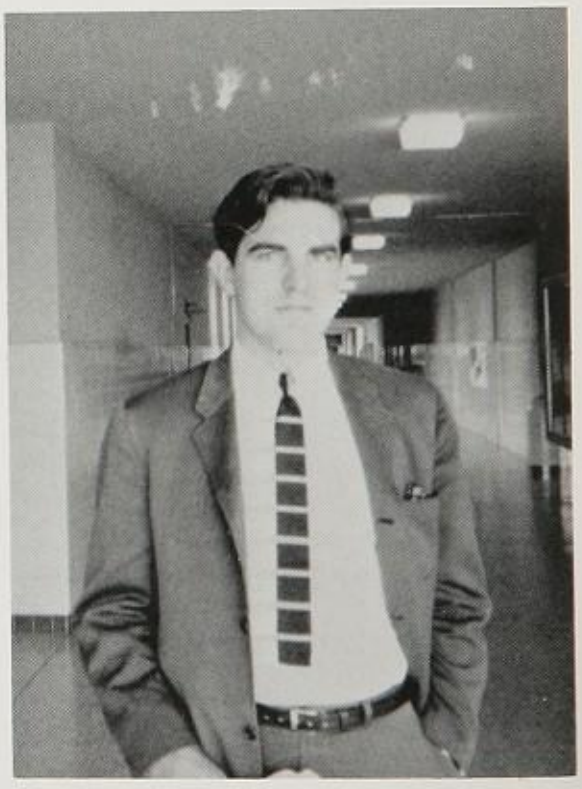


Mr. Michael N. Roach, English and art teacher, is shown explaining the use of a camera before the Photography Club. Mr. Roach also sponsors the Beaux Arts Club.

Mrs. Robert Gant will complete her fifteenth year at R.H.S. this year. A graduate of Austin College with both a B.A. and M.A., she sponsors the Future Nurses; occupies herself with piano and organ outside of school.



Sophomore English is taught by Mrs. Martha McClenny, who received her B.A. from S.M.U. Her varied hobbies include artwork, gardening, and bridge.



Mr. Travis Rider teaches both junior and senior English. He sponsors the newly-founded Creative Writing Club.

EXTRA SUBJECTS ROUND OUT DAY

Supplementary subjects comprise general skills, music, drama, and speech. These courses lessen school pressure, while allowing a student to concentrate on an art he really enjoys.

Skills, though they do not involve as much homework as regular subjects, require a definite talent. They can be applied to work where immediate results are seen, as in typing homework, practicing home economics or preparing classroom speeches. Often, skills form a foundation for a future career. Secretarial work is based on typing and shorthand; bookkeeping is related to accounting, and mechanical drawing helps future draftsmen.

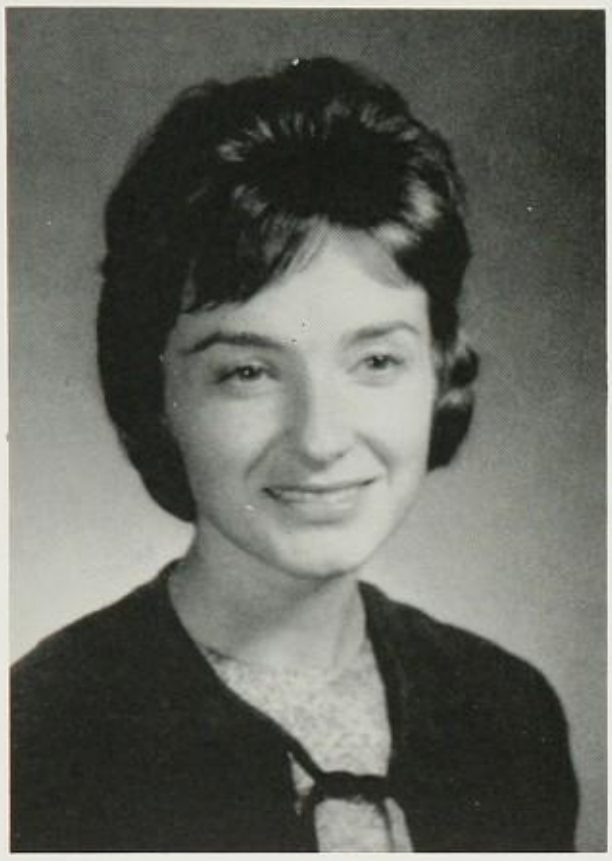
Band and choral work demand much ability, practice time, and concentration. Rewards in these fields lie mainly in the praise of the faculty and students for a job well done. However, music, like art, can serve for relaxation purposes. Aside from the resulting personal pride, responsibility and teamwork are stressed.

To use study time wisely, a student may select a study hall. There he can finish written work and read assignments, in order to insure time for activities or job after school.

Special subjects are a vital phase of the school curriculum, because they balance a personality as well as a schedule.

Supervising the study hall is Mrs. Marie Sullivan, who attended Essex College.

Playhouse R.H.S. sponsor Mrs. Suzanne Nabours teaches drama and sophomore English. Mrs. Nabours holds B.A. and M.A. from Baylor University.



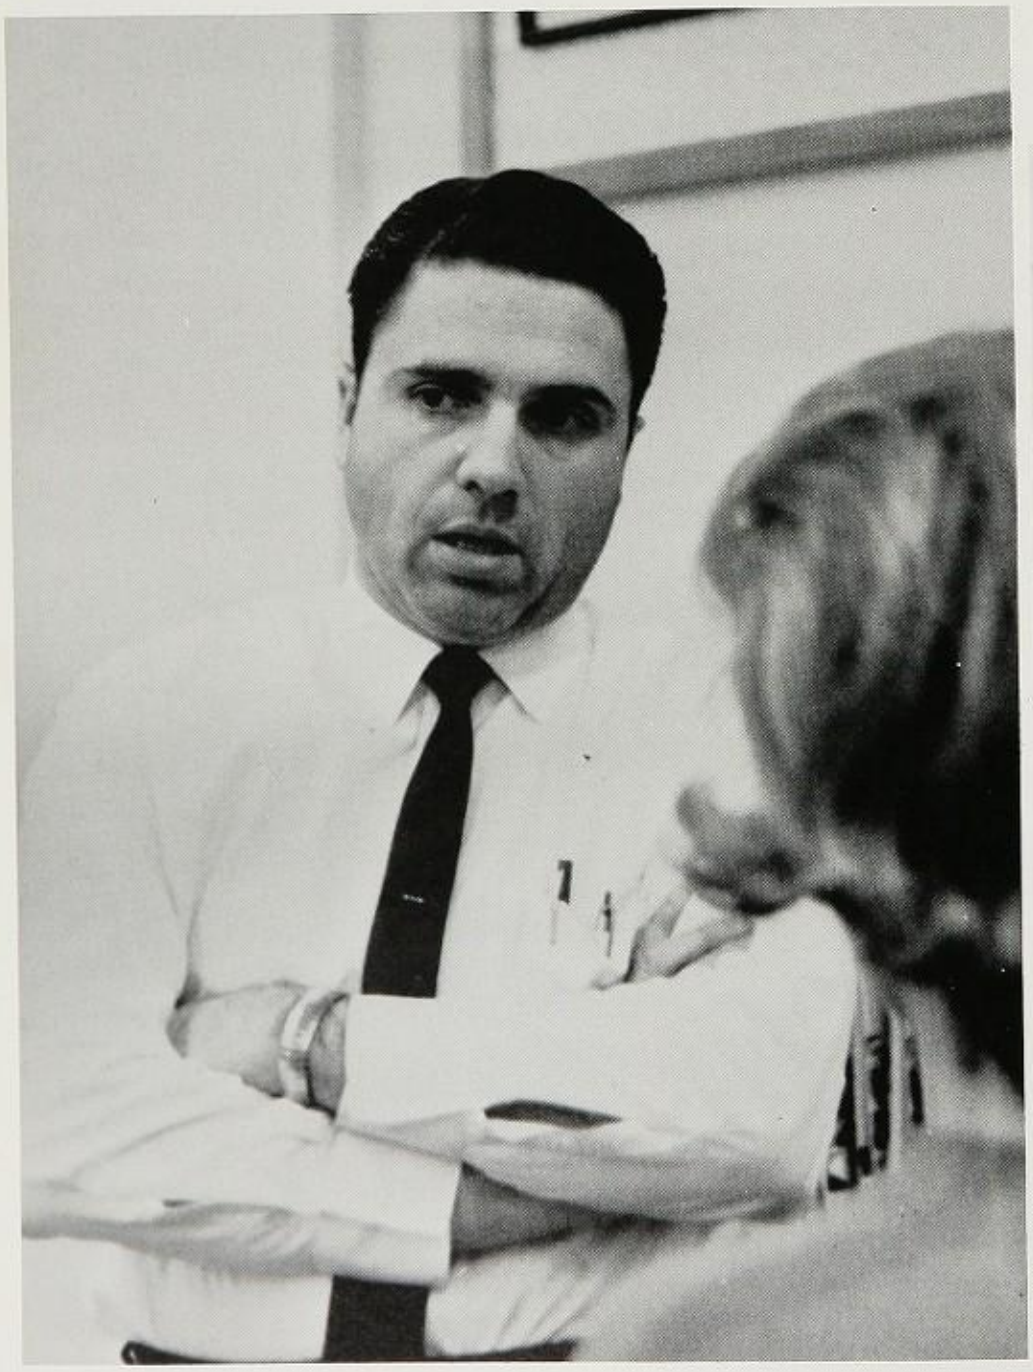
Homemaking teacher Mrs. Dean McKeown received her B.S. and M.S. from N.T.S.U. Like many homemaking teachers, she lists millinery as one of her hobbies.

Wood shop is under the supervision of Mr. Charles McCaffree, who also helps in the study hall. A water sports fan, he talks with Steve Moi outside the study hall.

Mrs. Jean H. Smith plans schedule for homemaking classes. Mrs. Smith is a graduate of T.W.U., where she received both her B.S. and M.S.

Shorthand and Typing 3-4 are subjects taught by Mrs. Helen Gardner. Mrs. Gardner sponsors the Jr.-Sr. Career Girls as well as the Jr. class.

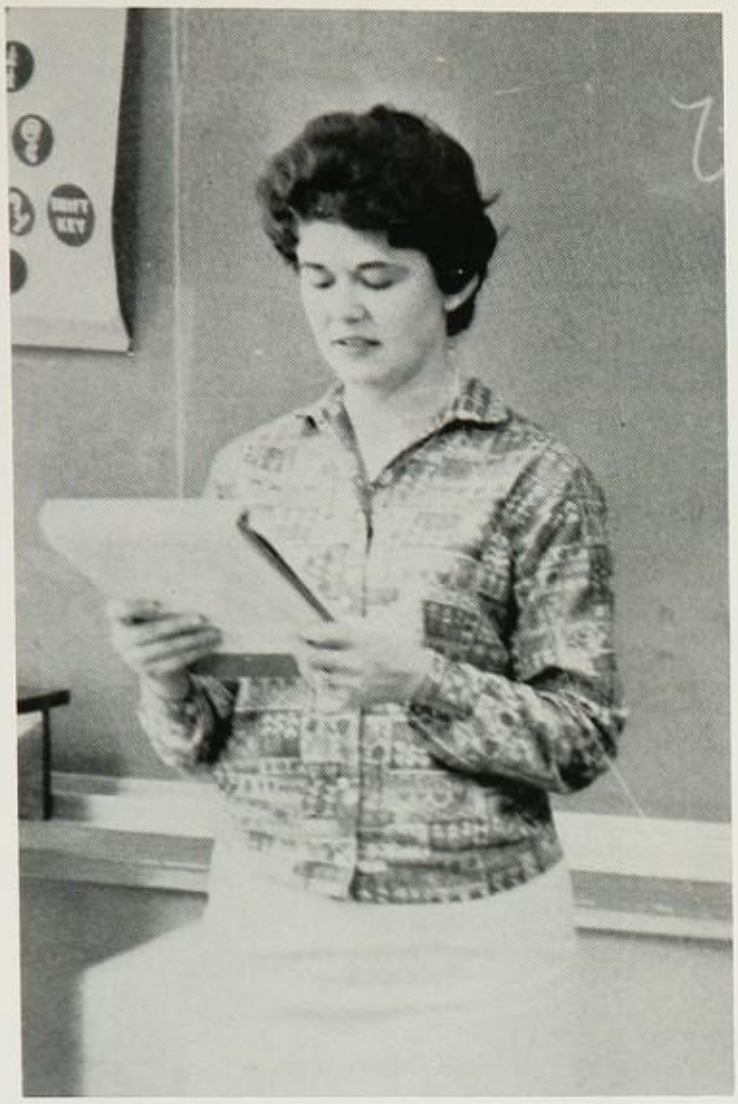
Band instructor Mr. Joseph Frank received his B.A. and M.A. from U. of Texas. His outside interests are water sports and flying.



At R.H.S. for his first year is Mr. Joe W. Figg. He has music degrees from Oklahoma City University and the University of Illinois.

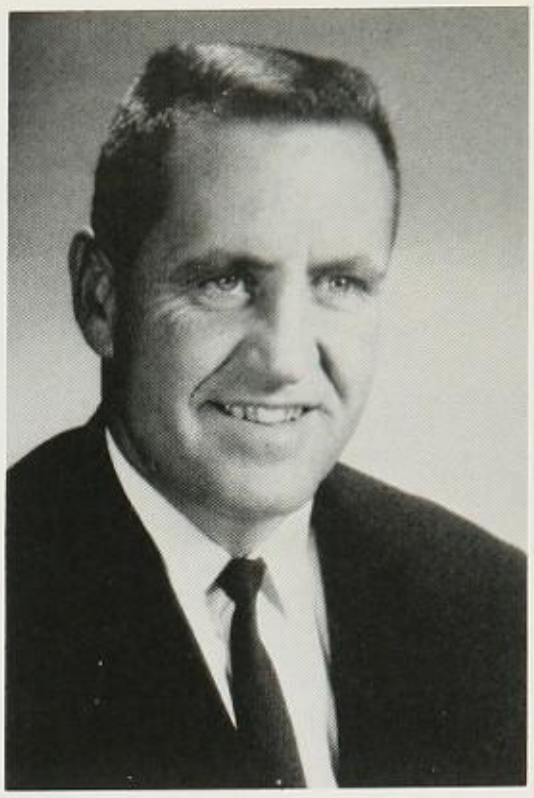
Teaching homemaking and sponsoring the G.S.L. and F.H.A. keep Mrs. Marimozelle Collander busy. Here she goes through some home-making fundamentals for some students.

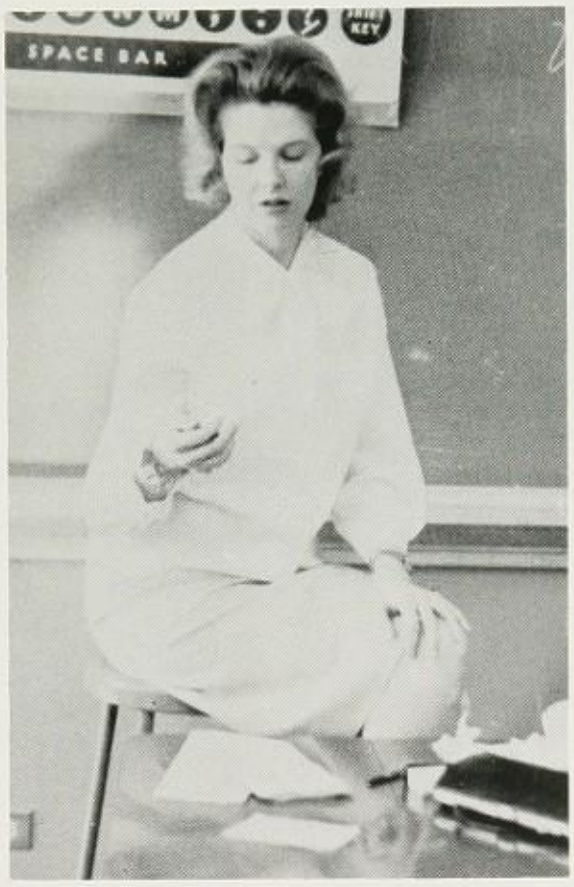
Mrs. Patricia Nuckols teaches bookkeeping. She enjoys playing the piano and reading.



Typing and shorthand are the subjects taught by Mrs. Wilene Landfair, who holds a B.S.L. degree from Arkansas A&M. Her hobbies are music and reading.

Mr. Charles Broom holds a B.S. degree from Abilene Christian College; he has done graduate work at the University of Houston and North Texas State. In addition to teaching Driver Training and General Business, Mr. Broom acts as assistant football coach.

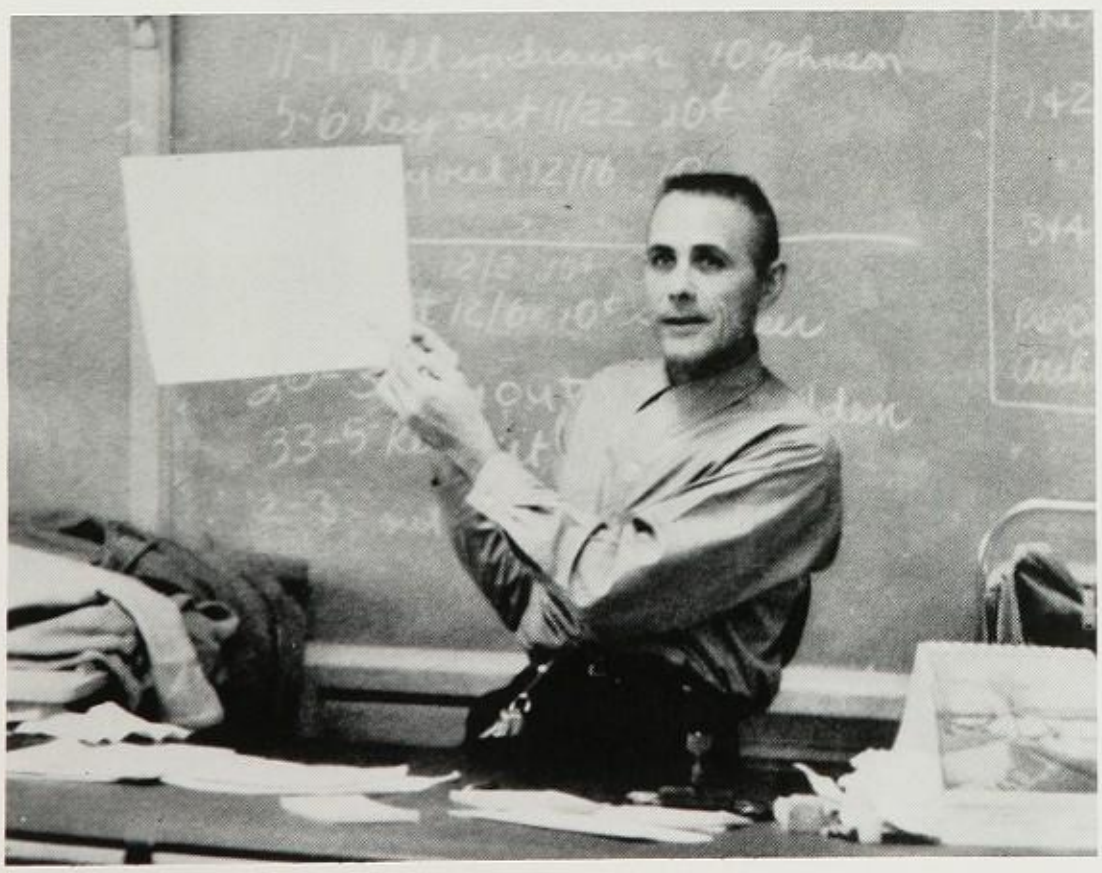


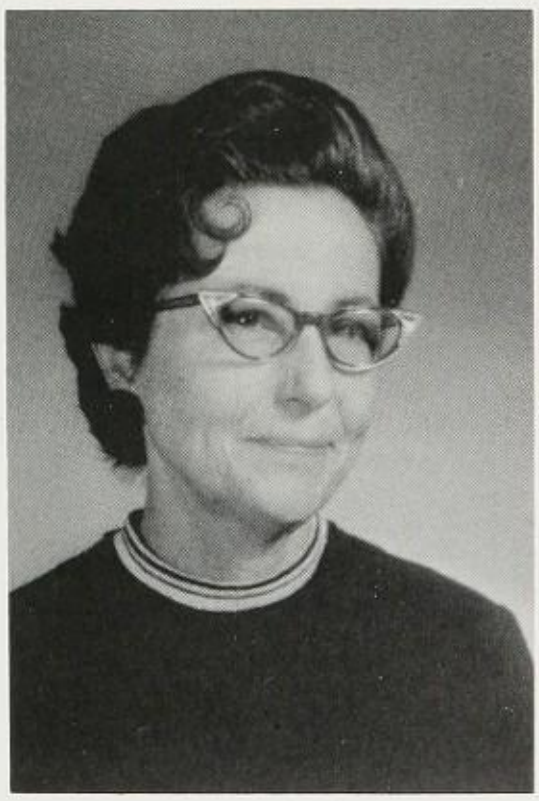


Mrs. Caroline Wirskeye instructs typing. She is sponsor of Sophomore Career Girls and she is in her third year at Richardson.

SPECIAL COURSES OFFER VARIETY

Mr. Max McClearin received his B.S. degree from East Central College, Oklahoma. He teaches mechanical drawing and is the head baseball coach. Here Mr. McClearin points to a drawing made by one of his students.





Sponsoring the Debate Club and KRHS in addition to teaching first and second year speech keep Mrs. Ruth Gray quite busy. However, she does find some time for her family.

STUDENTS UNWIND IN PHYSICAL EDUCATION

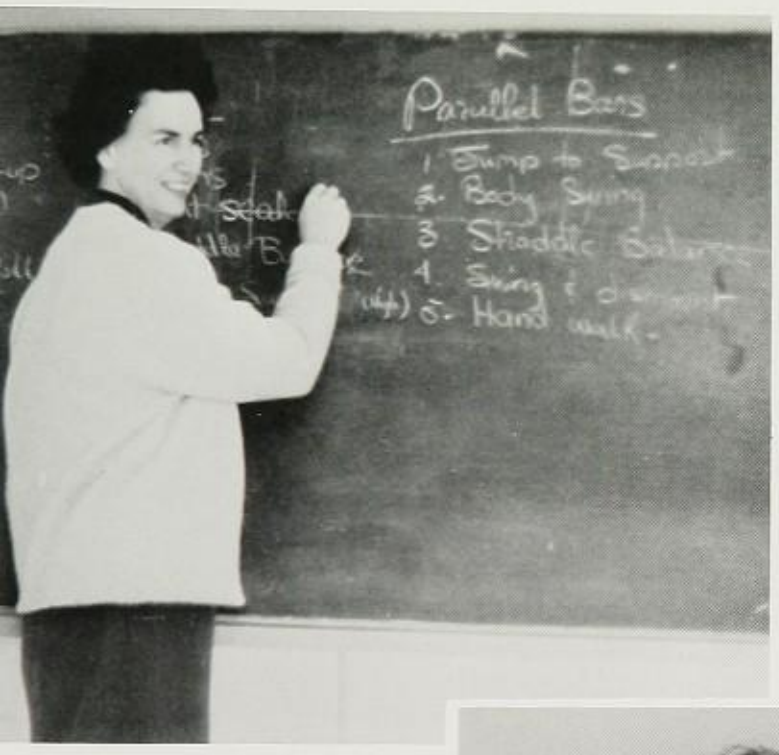
Another new faculty member, Mr. Charles Grimland, began teaching health and physical education at Richardson this year. He received his B.S. from Howard Payne College.

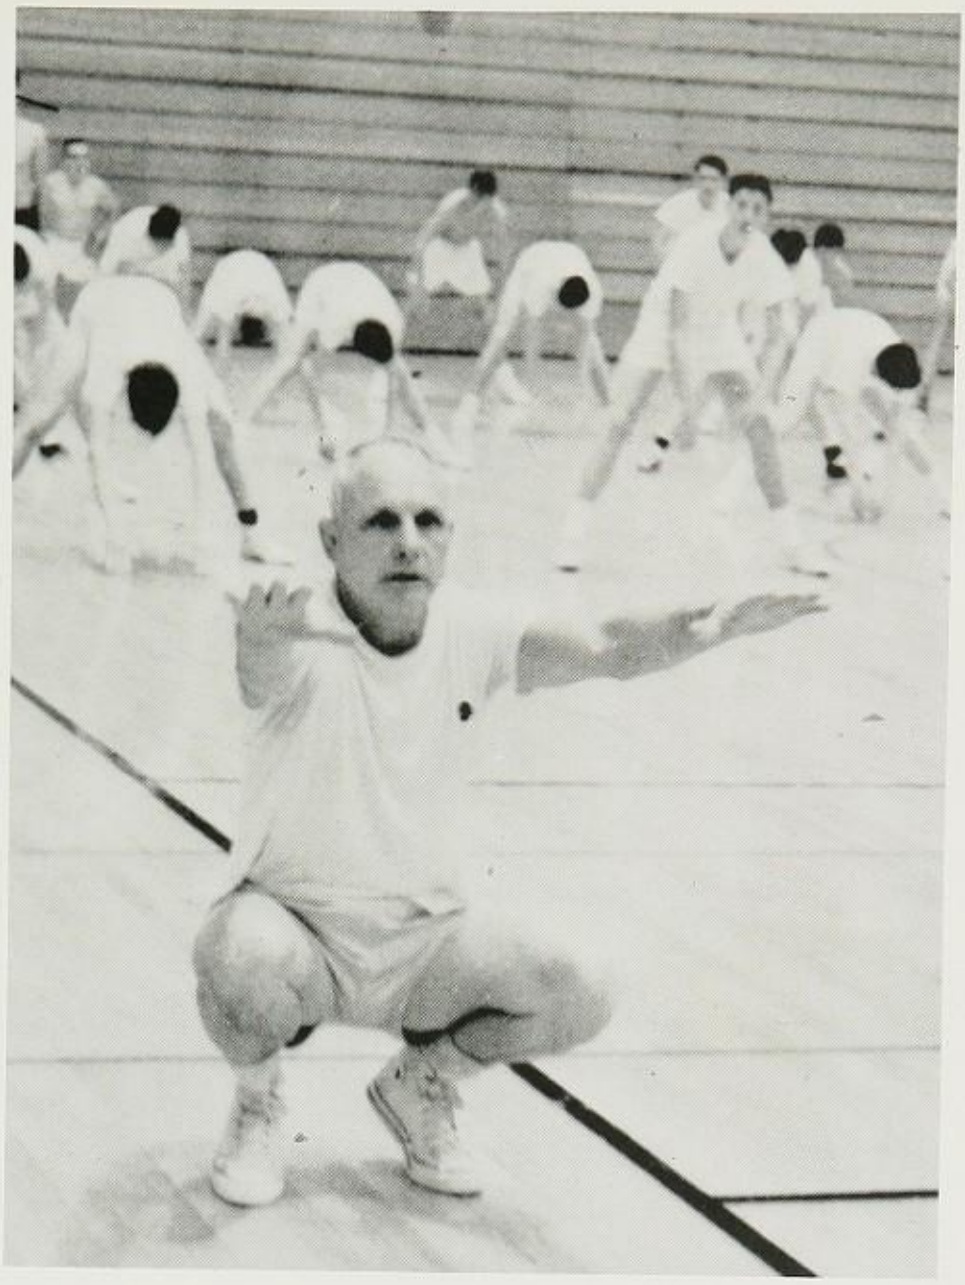
Mrs. Mildred Wheeler watches as students exercise on the trampoline. This is her fifth year at R.H.S.

Mrs. Wheeler received both her B.S. and M.S. from N.T.S.U. She teaches driver training, health, and physical education.

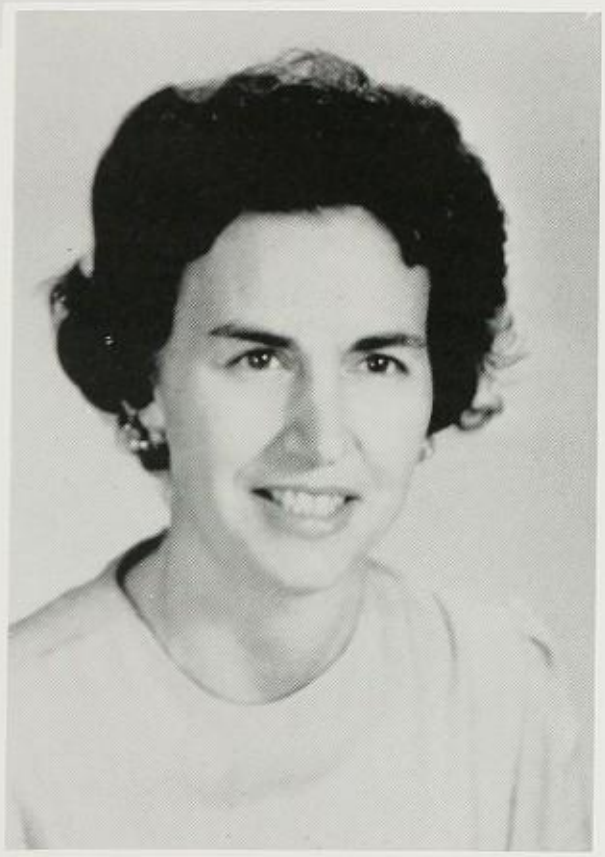
After physically inactive classes, physical education offers the chance to relax and forget about homework, tests and themes. This pause is valuable for a healthy mind and body.

Using either indoor or outdoor facilities, students can choose from a wide variety of sports and activities, which are intended to teach good sportsmanship while developing fit bodies. In this way, each student participates in supervised athletics and gains their benefits.





Leading the calisthenics in physical education is Mr. "Abe" Spangler. He received his B.S. and M.S. from East Texas State College.



Mrs. Gay Tunnell attended Stephen F. Austin College, where she received her B.S. She instructs health and physical education.

Health and physical education teacher Mrs. Carol Hancock sponsors both Eaglettes and cheerleaders. She is a graduate of University of Oklahoma.

HONORS

Hall of Honor members and School Favorites pose with the well-known doorman of La Tunisia Restaurant.

Students of RHS elect school favorites by secret ballot; students are first asked to nominate upperclassmen who they feel will best represent RHS as Mr. and Miss RHS, Mr. and Miss Personality, Mr. Sports and Miss Pep, and Most Handsome and Most Beautiful. The top five students in each category are then placed on ballots and voted on by the student body.

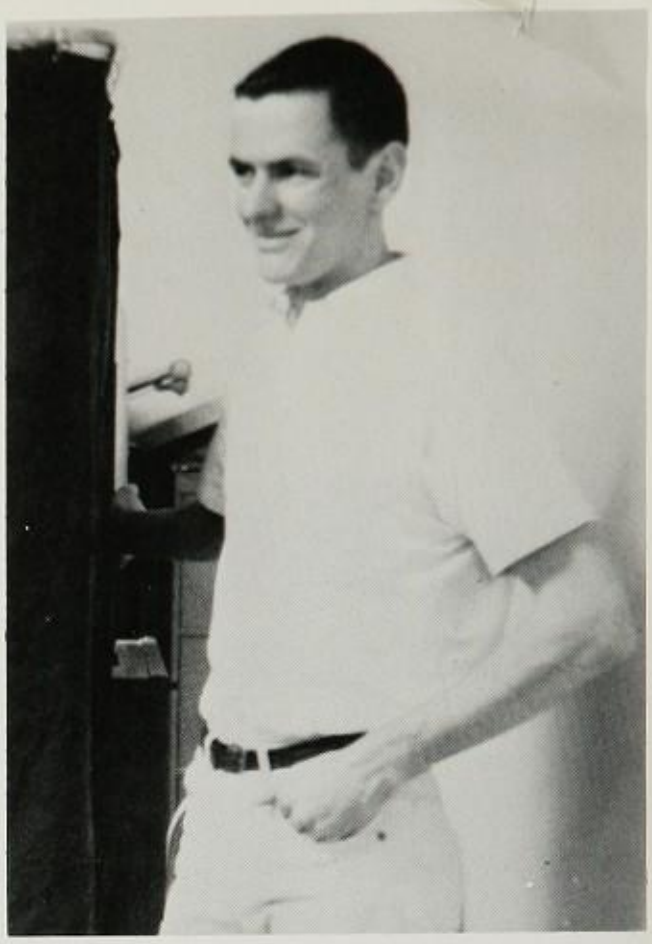
SENIOR FAVORITES

Barbee Deering

Barbee Deering was chosen favorite of the senior class because of her fine leadership abilities. As an Eaglette officer, Eagle editor, and class secretary, Barbee showed her desire to serve RHS. Among her other club activities are several service and creative organizations. Honored by the National Council of Teachers of English, she was recognized as an outstanding student.



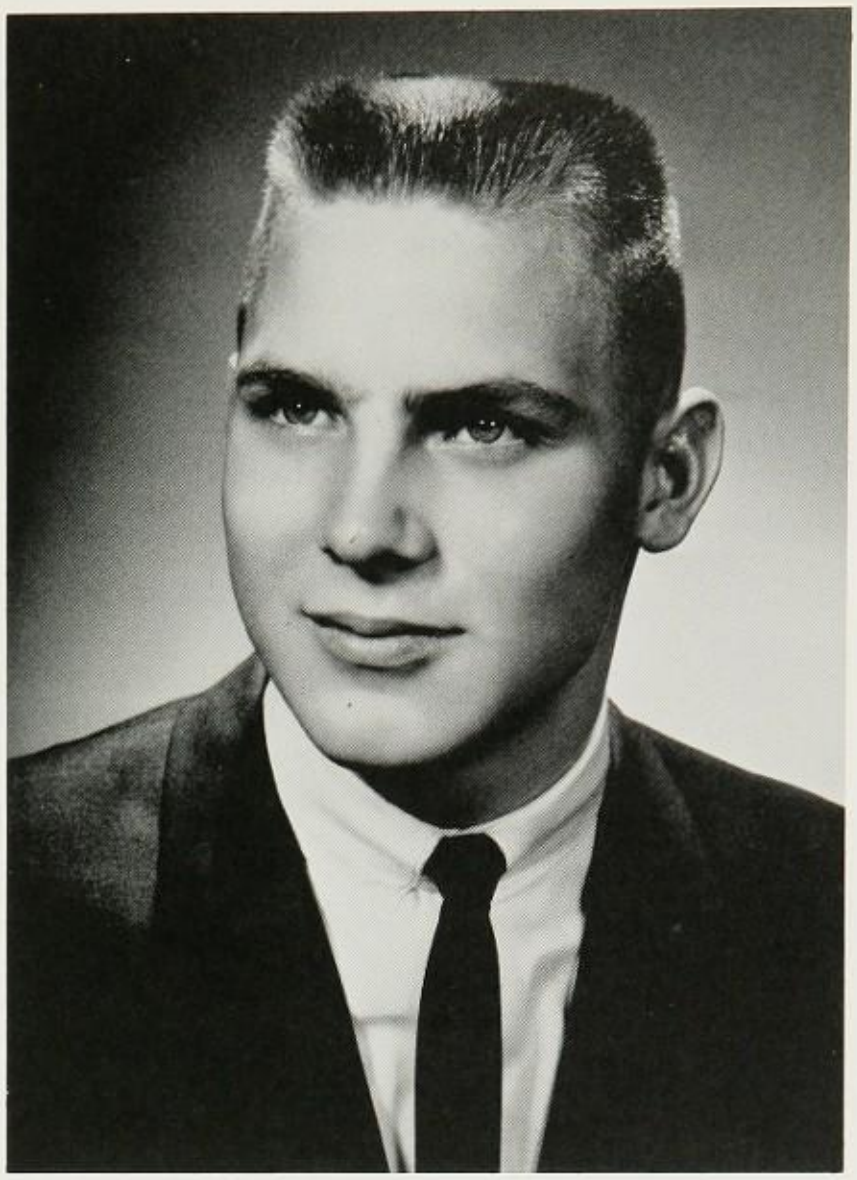
Mike Wooten

Senior Favorite Mike Wooten displayed his class spirit through hard work on various senior committees. PAL club and Student Council consumed much of his time as did track activities. Mike was honored this year by being named Eagle of the Month for November.

Barbie Brown

As a class vice-president and Student Council member, junior favorite Barbie Brown excelled as a leader. She displayed her talents as a cheerleader her sophomore year, as an Eaglette her junior year, and as a participant in the activities of Playhouse RHS. Athletic abilities were exhibited in her work on the Junior Bowling League at the local bowling center.

Always — Barbie



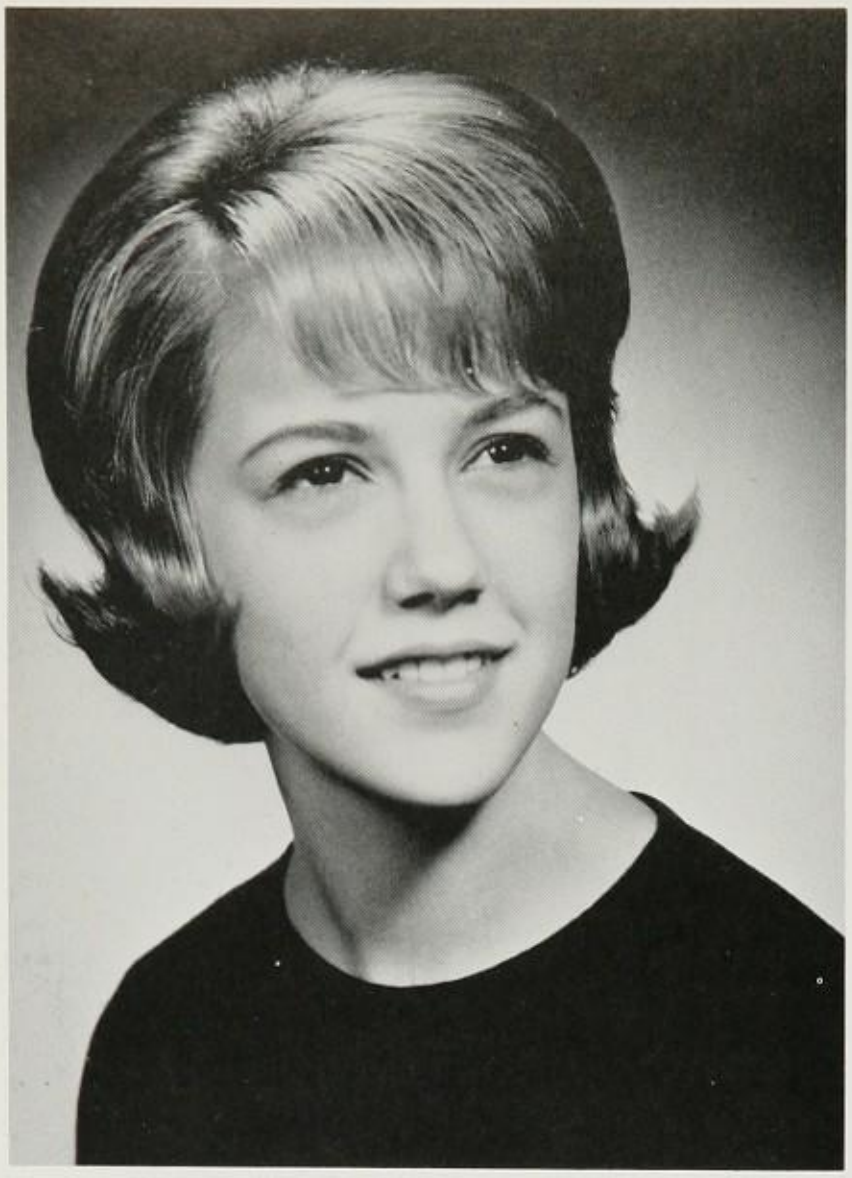
Wendell Housley

Participating in sports was junior favorite Wendell Housley's main school activity. His spectacular ability on the football field brought him much recognition, as did his work in track events. An able leader, he was an active supporter of all junior functions.

JUNIOR FAVORITES

Barbie Brown chats with Wendell Housley.

SOPHOMORE FAVORITES

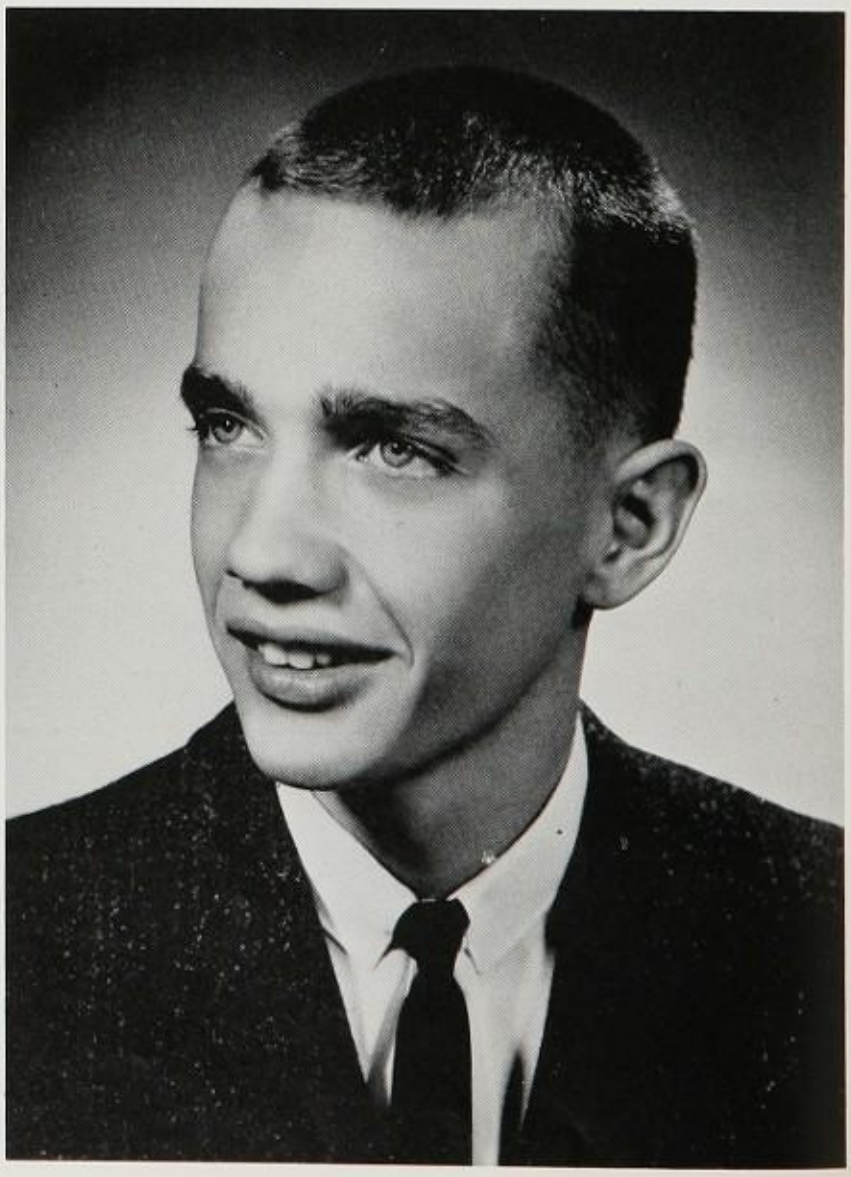


Boo Curry

Leading cheers at school athletic events was sophomore favorite Boo Curry's principal job. However, she found time to be treasurer of the newly formed Y-Teens Club, a service organization, and to be her homeroom vice-president. Her cheerfulness and willingness in participation brought this class honor to her.

Jamie Mendenhall

Being sophomore director of the Key Club took up many honors of sophomore favorite Jamie Mendenhall's time. As president of his class and his homeroom he was able to serve his school well. A member of the B-basketball team, he displayed fine ability as a worker and a good sportsman.



HALL OF HONOR

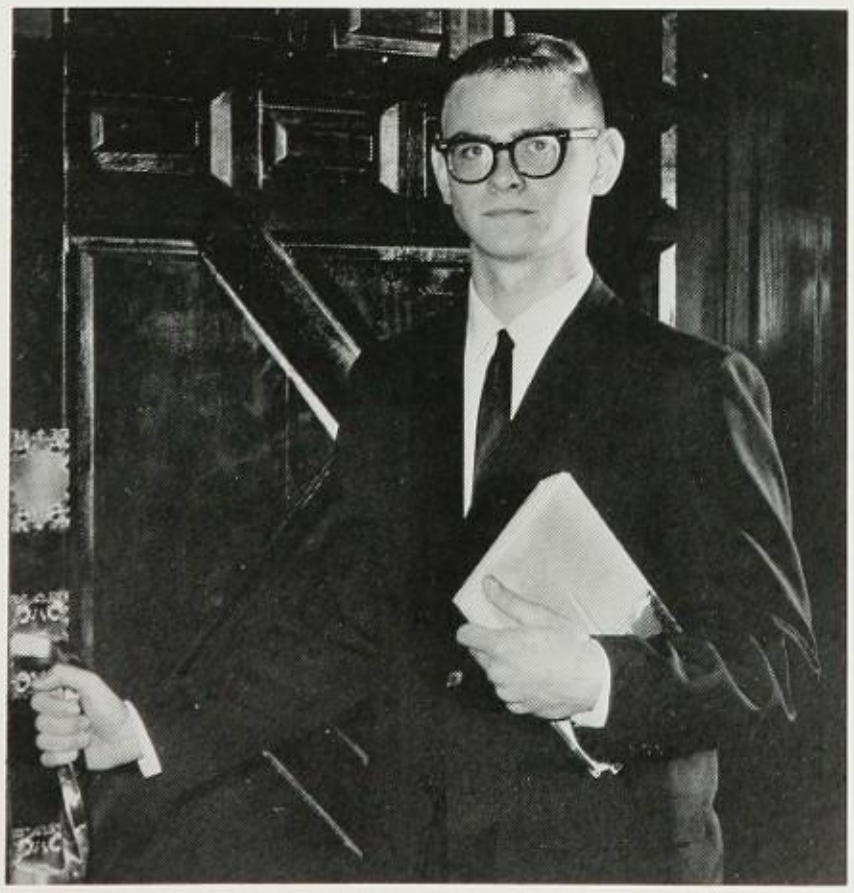
For the fourth year, the faculty and student council, from a list of upperclassmen, not including favorites, elected eight students to the Hall of Honor. These seniors were selected because of their outstanding contributions to RHS, their leadership and scholarship.

Mary Lou Hooser

Activities in the National Honor Society, Student Forum, G.S.L., and Student Council proved Mary Lou Hooser an able worker in serving her school. Mary Lou put in many long hours as an Eaglette manager and in senior committee work.

Dick Anderson

Vice-president of Key Club Dick Anderson was always willing to give of his time and talents for the betterment of his school. This willingness to serve brought this honor to him.



John Heitmeyer

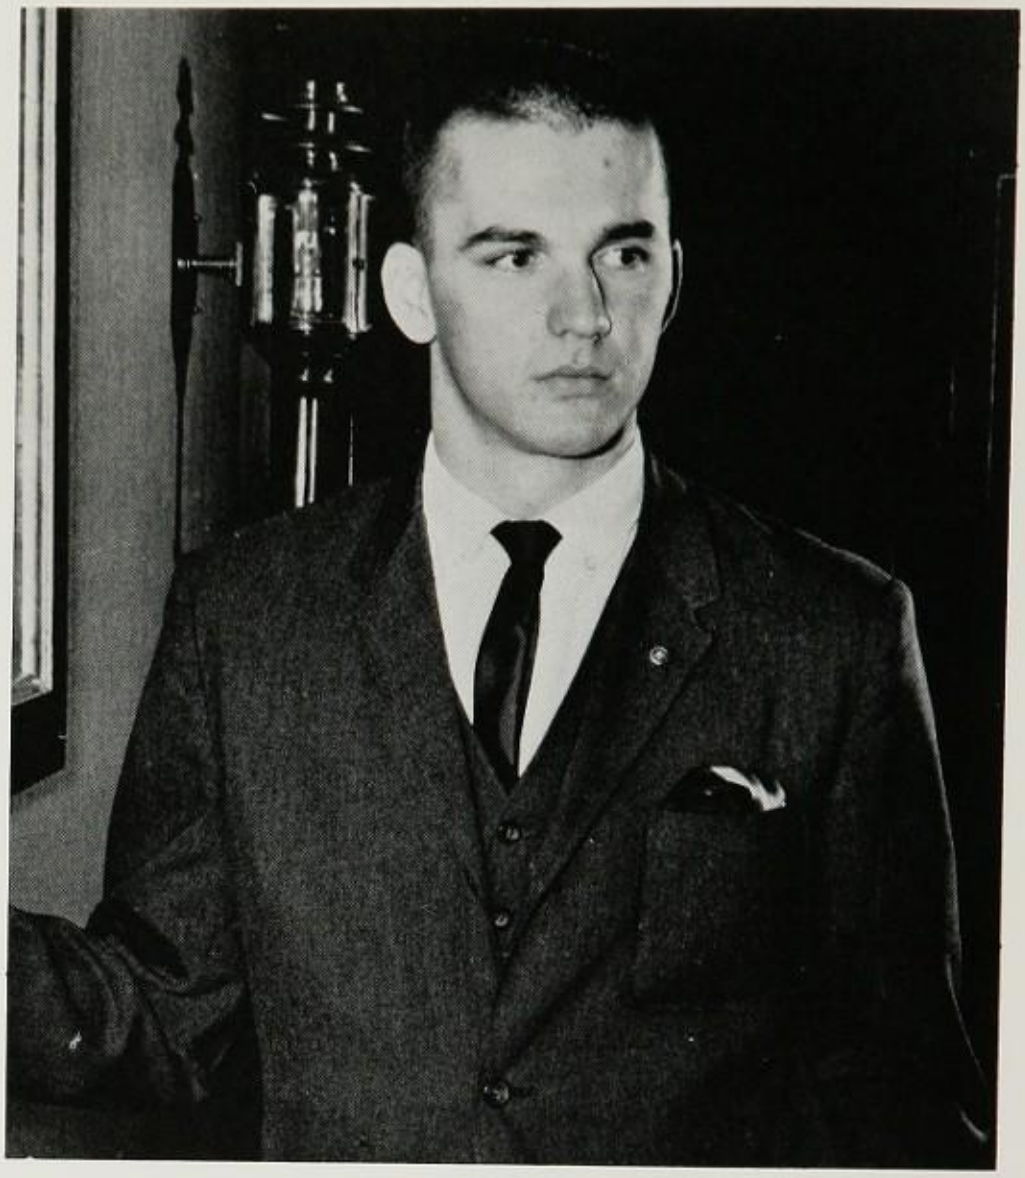
National Honor Society President John Heitmeyer was elected a member of the Hall of Honor because of leadership abilities. He was an active member of Chem-Phy and A.S.F.

Bill Skocpol

Hall of Honor member Bill Skocpol was an active participant in literary and speaking events. A recipient of many honors he was recognized as an Eagle of the Month and as an excellent student by the National Council of Teachers of English. Active in Key Club, he was always ready to work.

Sharon Douglas

Participating in Student Council, Student Forum, G.S.L., and N.H.S., Sharon Douglas showed her willingness to serve her school. As senior class treasurer, Sharon worked hard to bring honor to RHS.



John Howie

Honored by the faculty and Student Council was Hall of Honor member John Howie. Track and Key Club activities afforded him the chance of serving his school ably.

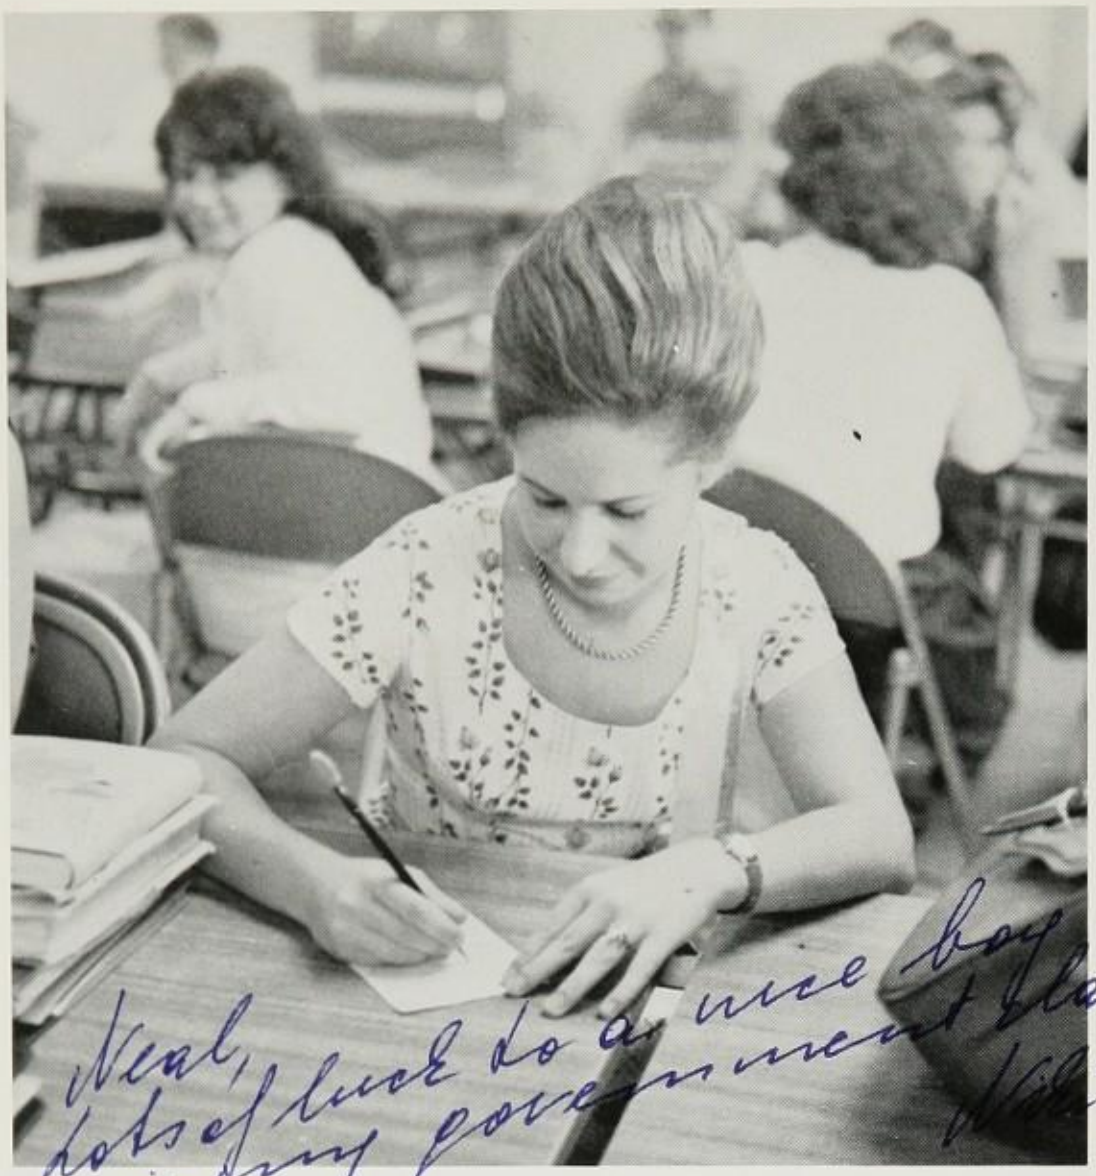
Mark Buehler

Mark Buehler, vice-president of the National Honor Society and German Club, exhibited great abilities as a leader. An active member of the annual staff, Mark worked hard to compile the '64 Eagle.

Jackie Noteware

Golden Eagle Band clarinetist Jackie Noteware was honored this year as an Eagle of the Month. Participating in Pal Club as president, he was able to work hard for RHS.

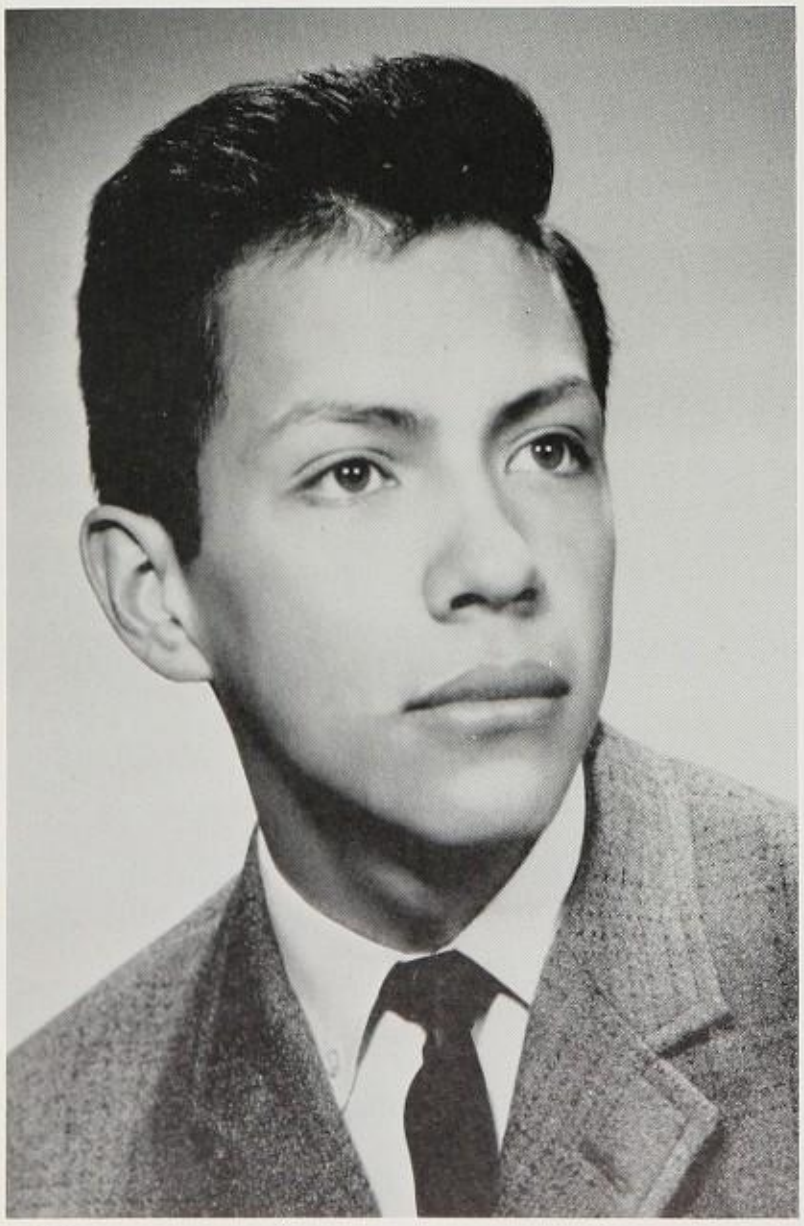
Left to right are Hall of Honor members John Howie, Mark Buehler, Jack Noteware, Sharon Douglas, Mary Lou Hooser, Bill Skocpol, Dick Anderson, and John Heitmeyer.



Niki Spitzy makes out an order for her graduation invitations.

Niki Spitzy

From Austria came Niki Spitzy an A.F.S. exchange student. Participating actively in JCL, A.S.F., Student Council, and Playhouse RHS gave Niki the chance to serve Richardson High. Representing RHS at a fall Student council conference, Niki exhibited her great ability and spirit which has made her a leader.

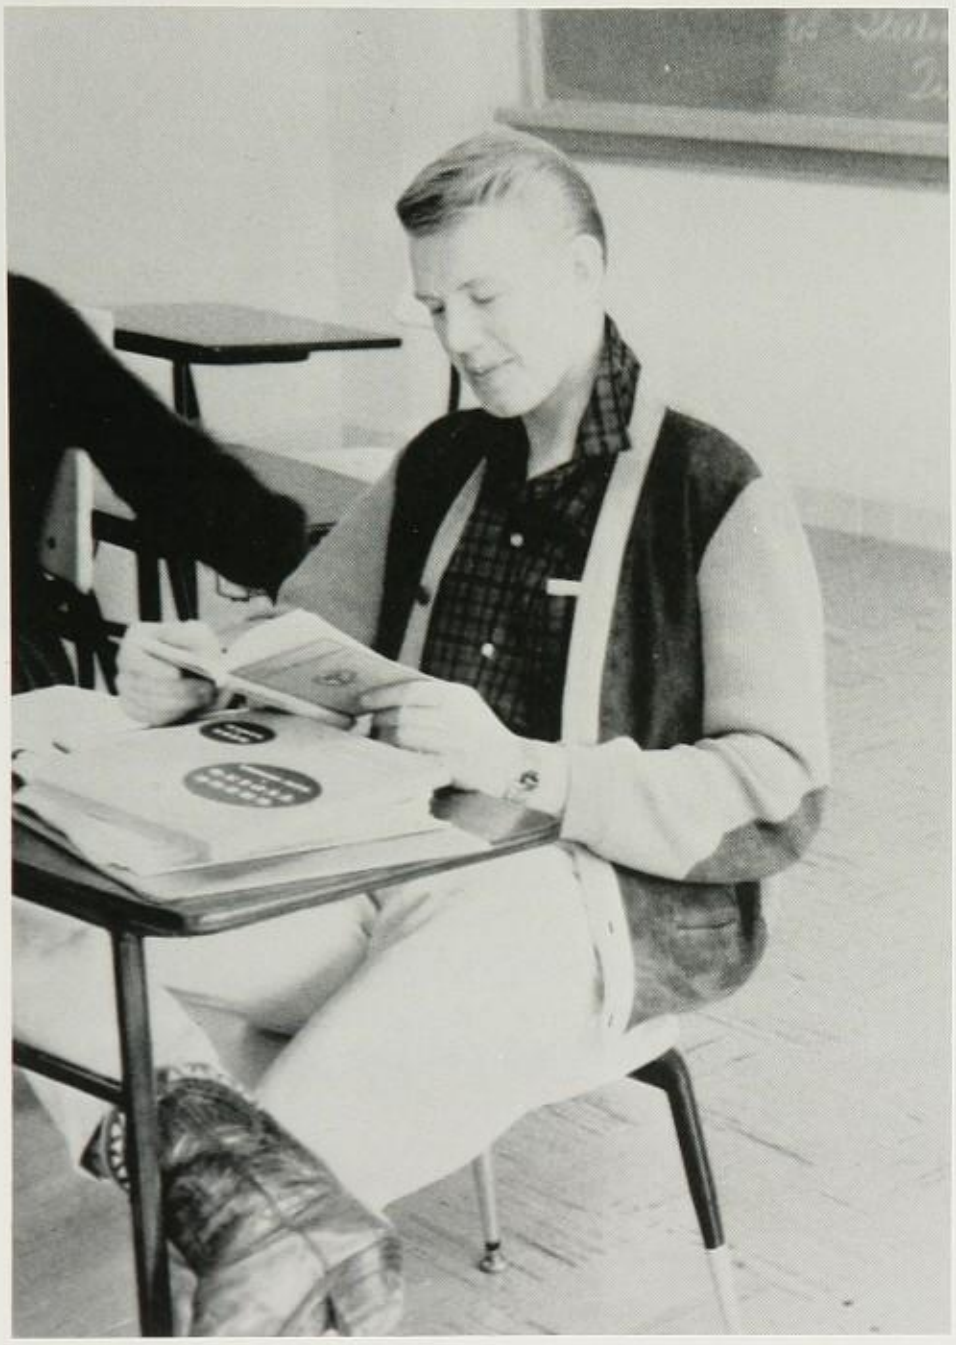


Gabriel Bernal

As a member of A.F.S., Ecuador's Gabriel Bernal displayed his abilities. Speaking before civic groups and clubs, such as the Richardson High chapter of the P.A.S.F., occupied most of his time.

BRING VARIOUS TALENTS TO RHS

Claes Arrhen made one request, "Please make sure my boots show."



Claes Arrhén, Rotary Swedish exchange student, was quite an addition to RHS. As a member of the Student Council, Key Club, and A.F.S., he used his talents ably for his adopted high school. Of Richardson and Texas he said, "The friendliness down here is something you Texans can really be proud of. The impression that I will take home to Sweden in the summer will not be the fine cars, the nice houses, the big supermarkets, or the broad highways, but the friendliness among the people."

For the second year, Scholastic Jackets were given to RHS juniors and seniors who earned the greatest number of grade points during the first two six weeks of the current school year and the preceding semester. Two percent of the junior class and four percent of the senior class received jackets. This year eight juniors and twelve seniors received awards. Five seniors received their second award; they were Kay Byron, Mark Buehler, Suzanne Hastedt, Bill Skocpol, and Sharon Zingery.

RHS STUDENTS RECEIVE SCHOLASTIC HONORS

This year two RHS students, Barbee Deering and Bill Skocpol, were named recipients of certificates from the National Council of Teachers of English. In order to be eligible for these awards, Barbee and Bill each wrofe an autobiography and an impromptu composition on a subject specified by the Council. In addition, each had to submit one other literary work of their choosing. Barbee chose to submit a short story, and Bill, an essay. They were among 27 awardees selected for the state of Texas.

Nat'l. Merit Scholarship finalists are (standing) Dennis Dawson, Pat Gruben, Bill Skocpol, and Belinda Brockman. Seated is Sue Fekety.

For the first time in RHS history five students were named semi-finalists in the 1963-64 Merit Scholarship competition. They qualified by making high scores on the National Merit Scholarship tests given in the spring of 1963. Later in the year they were notified that they had become finalists and were eligible for scholarships. The senior students who qualified for scholarships were Belinda Brockman, Dennis Dawson, Sue Fekety, Pat Gruben, and Bill Skocpol.

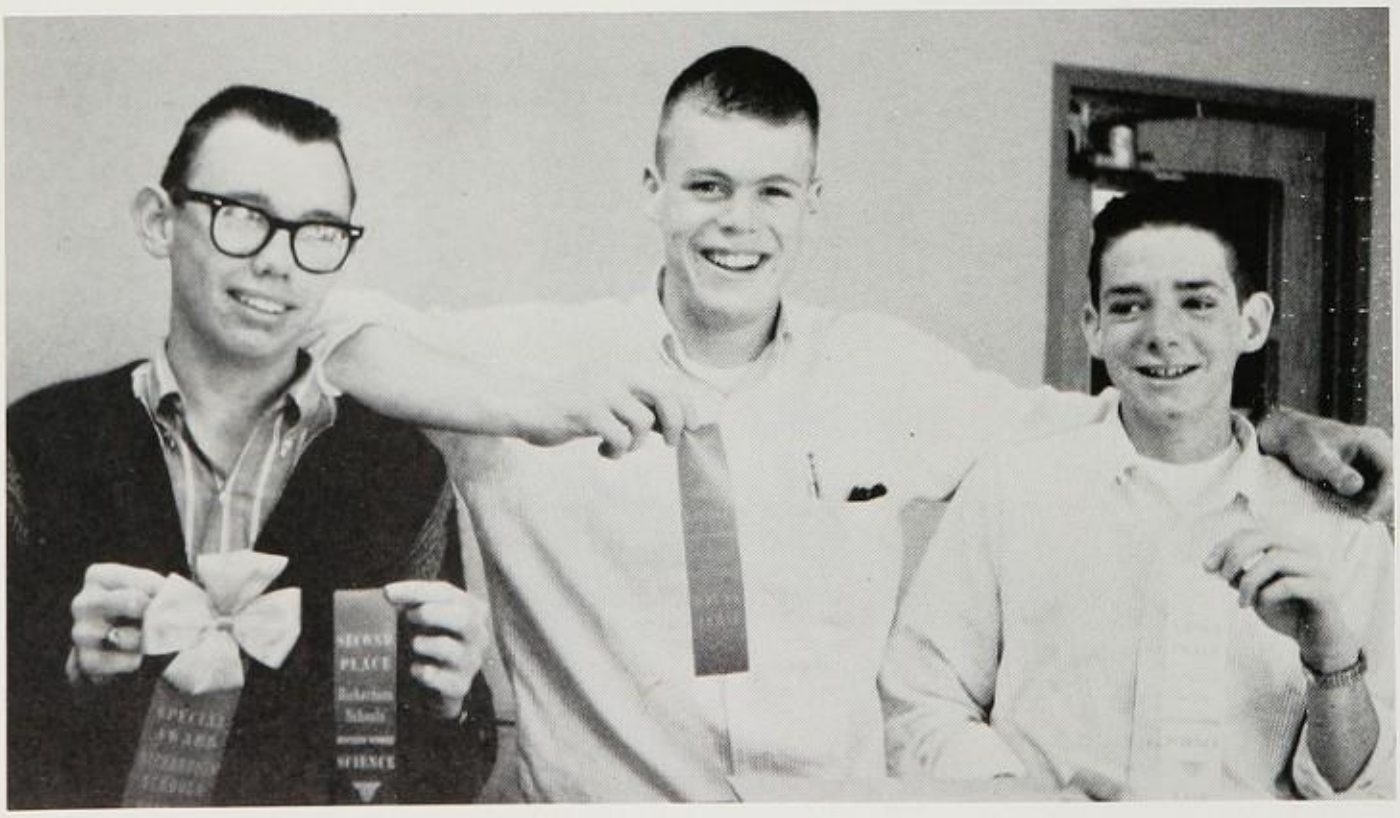
EAGLES OF THE MONTH CHOSEN

Eagles of the Month for December, January, and February, Bill Skocpol, Lee Halford, and John Howie, were active Key Club members.

Mike Wooten and Jackie Noteware, Eagles of the Month for November and March, were active PAL Club members.

The title Eagle of the Month is given to an RHS student who has contributed much to the school but who has received little or no recognition. Students are nominated by a Student Council committee. The names of the nominees are then presented to the faculty, who votes on them. The final choice rests with the Student Council as a whole.

SCIENCE FAIR REPRESENTATIVES SELECTED



Left to right are Fred Sehnert, Bill Harrison, and Ken Bean, winners of the Boys' Physical Science division.

Eight RHS students received Science Fair awards. Boys' Physical Science winners were Bill Harrison, Fred Sehnert, and Ken Bean. Selina Correll received the award for Girls' Physical Science. Biological Science awardees were: Boys' Division Terry Davis; and, Girls' Division, Lugene Hess. In Mathematics, division winners were Fred Mayes and Sylvia Elam. The projects were judged by four members of the Dallas Council of Scientific Societies and were sent to the Regional Science Fair in Dallas.

BAND SWEETHEART

Judy Norris

By secret ballot, Judy Norris was elected Band Sweetheart. Due to the death of President John F. Kennedy, Judy was not honored on Friday, November 22. She was later presented in the Richardson Christmas Parade.

BASKETBALL SWEETHEART

Paulette Farar

Each year before the Dr. Pepper Invitational Basketball Tournament, a girl is selected by vote of the Eagle players to represent them during the tournament and the remainder of the season. This year Paulette Farar was honored. She was named a runner-up in the Dr. Pepper Tournament Beauty Contest.

EAGLES OPEN SEASON WITH VICTORIES

Close to 10,000 fans watched the Warbirds tear the McKinney Lions to shreds.

Early in the first period McKinney scored on short gains over left tackle. On the ensuing kick-off, Eagle Tom Hutton returned it to the Eagle 37-yard line. Junior quarterback Greg Langeloh then took over and guided the Eagles to their first touchdown. Steve Higgins went in for the final four yards but was separated from the ball. Lou Breuer was close by and recovered the ball for the score. The extra point was good and tied the game 7-7.

In the second quarter the Eagles came within scoring distance several times, but costly fumbles left the score 7-7 at halftime.

In the third quarter, Eagle Wendell Housley picked off a 37-yard pass for the second touchdown. After Steve Higgins made the extra point the score stood 15-7 in favor of the Eagles.

All McKinney hopes for victory were smashed by Rick Melton when he plunged over guard for the final Eagle score. Steve Higgins again made the extra point. The final score was 23-7.

Against the Sunset Bisons, the Eagles were mighty. Rick Melton and James Franklin tore the line apart with their running. "Big Daddy" Oliver and Ed Smith led the Eagle defense most of the game. The highlight of the game was an 85-yard run by Rick Melton. Other stars of the game were Tom Jeffery, Steve Higgins, and Greg Langeloh. The final score was 28-14, in favor of the Eagles.

R.H.S.'s high flying Eagles were almost grounded in the third game of the season against the Irving Tigers. Housley was tremendous on offense and defense, as were Rick Melton, leading ground gainer; James Franklin, halfback; Mike Oliver, tackle; and Doug Reagor, kicking specialist.

Full of spirit and fight, the Eagles received the opening kick off and drove 87 yards downfield for the 1st touchdown. The big play of the drive was a pass from Quarterback Terry Baughman to halfback Wendell Housley that covered 60 yards. The kick for the extra point failed.

Early in the second quarter, the Tigers bounced back with the equalizer. Irving recovered an Eagle fumble on R.H.S.'s 40-yard line. A penalty followed, putting them on the 24-yard line of the Warbirds. Irving then went in for the score. James Franklin blocked the kick and the score was all even, 6-6.

R.H.S stormed into the endzone with the tie breaker with less than a minute left in the half. The Eagles elected to go for the two points. On a real pressure play, quarterback Terry Baughman passed to Housley for the points that put Richardson ahead 14-6.

Irving almost tied the game in the fourth quarter. After scoring a touchdown, the Tigers tried to make two points. The Eagle defense, led by James Franklin stopped their bid for the two points. The game ended with the score, 14-12.

In Grand Prairie's beautiful Gopher Bowl, the Eagles fell for their first loss, 13-12. The Eagles took the kick-off and marched 63 yards in 14 plays for the first Eagle touchdown. Mike Bullock's short power gains and Rick Melton's tremendous speed around the ends provided the needed yardage to keep the drive alive. Bullock carried for the final three yards. The Eagles led 6-0 after the try for the extra point failed.

With 4 minutes left in the first quarter, the Gophers took the kick-off and marched 87 yards for their first touchdown. Their try for the extra point was good and the score at halftime was 7-6.

The Eagles kicked off to start the second half. Breuer, Franklin and Chattaway made key defensive plays that forced the Gophers to kick. The Eagles gained possession on their own 35-yard line and moved for their second touchdown. Terry Baughman had Lou Breuer wide open in the end zone for the extra two but over-threw him and the score was 12-7.

Early in the fourth period the Gopher's scored. A big pass play and a good run set the Gophers up for the score from the two yard line. Franklin blocked the extra point try, making the score 13-12 in favor of Grand Prairie.

R.H.S. OPENS DISTRICT WITH WIN

Sporting a 3-1 pre-district record, the Eagles were heavy favorites to defeat the Denison Yellowjackets in their first district game. In the first period, quarterback Terry Baughman hit halfback Wendell Housley with a pass; Housley, catching it on the Eagle 35 yard line, sped 69 yards for the score and six points. The extra point try was good and Richardson led, 7-0.

With less than one minute left in the half, Denison almost scored. On the Eagle 13 yard line, the Yellowjackets tried a pass into the right flat. Housely then pulled off the defensive play of the game. Intercepting the pass on the 10 yard line, he outraced all Denison players and went 90 yards for the score. After the try for the extra points failed, the Eagles trotted into the dressing room with a 13-0 lead.

The third quarter was a battle of two stone-wall defenses. "Big Daddy" Oliver, Bill Dewell, Jack Marshall and Lou Breuer were the determining factors in the Eagle defense. The Warbirds started to move again in the fourth period. Climaxing a 53 yard drive, Rick Melton plunged over tackle for the final 3 yards. The try for the extra point failed, but the Eagles led anyway, 19-0. Yellowjacket, Jerry Stenson ruined the Eagle hopes for a shut-out when he intercepted a pass and returned it 14 yards to the Eagle four. Three plays later the Yellowjackets scored. Richardson's defense unit rose to the occasion and stopped Denison's try for the two points. With three minutes left in the game, Mike Bullock put the game on ice when he broke through the middle of the line and raced 46 yards to the end zone. Unfortunately the try for the extra points failed and the game ended, 25-6.

A homecoming crowd of 10,000 watched the Eagles score the winning points with but 30 seconds left to play in a thrilling 12-8 ball game. Wendell Housley put the Eagles on the scoreboard with a 75-yard touchdown run, but the two-point try after the touchdown failed. Still in the first period, the Sherman Bearcats capitalized on an Eagle fumble and moved to the Eagle one-yard line, where the Warbird defense, led by Jack Marshall and Wendell Housley, repelled the Bearcats and the first half ended 6-5. Sherman received their 5 points on a field-goal and a safety.

The third period showed no great threat by either team. Five minutes deep in the fourth quarter, Sherman went ahead 8-6 on a 17-yard field-goal. The Eagles received the kick-off and gave the ball back to Sherman via a fumble on the first play from scrimmage. Sherman moved the ball to the Eagle 10-yard line, but fumbled in the end zone, making their most costly mistake of the game and Eagle Grant Gatlin recovered. Starting on their own 20, the Eagles, mostly using the aerial route with Langeloh hurling, moved to the Bearcat 13. Langeloh sped 10 yards to the 3, where Steve Higgins rammed over tackle for the Eagle touchdown. The kick for the extra point was no good, but the drive left only 30 seconds showing on the clock and the final score was 12-8, in favor of the Eagles.

INJURY RIDDLED TEAM HANDED LOSS

At Williams Stadium in Garland, the weather was not the only thing that was cold. An overflow crowd estimated at 15,000 and the injury-ridden Eagle football team were not much warmer. The Richardson High School Eagles were out-coached, outplayed, and out-hustled by the Garland Owls, who went on to a state championship.

Garland scored the first time they got the ball. Recovering a fumble on the Eagle 49 yard line, the Owls buzzed into the end zone eleven plays later. A bad snap from center spoiled the try for the point after the touchdown. The aroused Eagle team received the kickoff and sneaked 44 yards to paydirt. Fullback Steve Higgins smacked right tackle for the touchdown. When Jim Cowan booted the extra point, the Eagles were out in front for the first, and last, time.

With 1:17 left in the half, Garland went ahead to stay. Fullback Ralph Weaver, who tore the Eagle line up all night, carried two defenders into the end zone. A pass was good for 2 extra points and a score of 14-8. Then, with about a minute left in the half, the Eagles fumbled the ball back to Garland at the Eagle 41 yard line. Garland fought the clock to a field goal position and with only 8 seconds left in the half, kicked one from the 23.

Richardson fumbled again midway in the third period. Once again, the Owls converted an Eagle miscue into a score. The point-after-touchdown was good and Garland led, 24-7.

The fourth quarter saw Garland stage a 65 yard drive. The kick for the P.A.T. was blocked. With 22 seconds left in the game, Terry Baughman was tackled in the end zone while trying to pass the Eagles to the other end of the field. The final score was: Garland 28, Richardson 7.

On Richardson's second offensive play of the game against Highland Park, the Eagles fumbled the ball on their own 13 yard line. The Scots, taking advantage of the mistake, marched into the end zone three plays later. Scot Neal Starkey kicked the extra point.

Richardson came back on the next kick-off to move 64 yards in 12 plays for the score. Greg Langeloh put the Eagles ahead with a pass to Wendell Housley for the two extra points. Highland Park regained the lead midway in the second quarter when the Scotties drove 56 yards for the score, 15-8. A 22 yard pass play capped the Scot drive and another pass gave them the two point conversion.

The Eagles took the ball on their own 36 yard line and blasted up the field with Higgins, Melton, Franklin, and Housley doing the damage. Higgins went in for the score from the two yard line. Because of a penalty the Eagles' extra point try was no good and the half ended with the score 15-14.

The first time Highland Park got the ball in the third quarter they staged a grinding touchdown drive. Sticking to the ground all the way the Scots moved 74 yards to score. A 22 yard run highlighted the drive, and a smash over guard gave the Scotties a two point conversion. The Eagles were forced to go to the air—a tactic that failed. The game ended in a disgusting 23-14 defeat.

R.H.S. swatted the Mesquite Skeeters 24-0 in a game that was Richardson all the way. Tackles "Big Daddy" Oliver and Dan Stowe, ends Lou Breuer and Bill Olderog, and cornermen Grant Gatlin and Dale McGehee ran the Skeeter backs ragged with some of the finest defensive playing of the season.

Mesquite got their biggest gain of the night the first time they had the ball on a reverse play. The Skeeters scooted around left end for 27 yards, but were forced to kick to the Eagles three plays later. On the first play after gaining the ball, R.H.S. fumbled, giving the Skeeters the ball on the Eagle 35-yard line. The Eagle defense held and after three plays the Skeeters had to punt. The Eagles drove from their 10-yard line to Mesquite's 30 with the help of Melton, Higgins, Franklin, and Langeloh, lost the ball on downs, and regained it on a fumble recovery by Bill Olderog. Higgins, Franklin and Langeloh moved the ball to the six yard line and Mike Bullock made the first score from there. The kick was wide of its mark.

R.H.S. kicked off; great defensive work led by Stowe forced Mesquite to punt. The Eagles lined up on their own 44-yard line, gave the ball to Bullock, and watched him break through the middle of the line, race down the sidelines for 52 yards, and finally get hauled down at the five-yard line. Franklin carried for the touchdown and the two extras, making the score 12-0 at halftime.

In the third period Langeloh seemingly scored the third touchdown on a 60 yard run, but was called back on a penalty. Greg was forced to get the touchdown the hard way. He quarterbacked the Eagles, with outstanding catching by Linn and running by Bullock and Franklin, to the Skeeter 30-yard line. Housley made the score 18-0 from there on a reverse play. The final Eagle tally came on a tremendous 77-yard run by Tom Hutton with the aid of several key blocks by his teammates. The P.A.T. failed, and the clock ran out on a note of 24-0 for the Eagles.

EAGLES TAKE THIRD

This year was the third year the Richardson Cross Country Team has been organized. Although the team has been without a full time coach since the first year of competition, it has consistently ranked in the upper three places at meets. This year was a most eventful one for the team with the competition being quite rugged.

The Eagles were led this year to a third place in the State Cross Country Meet by Tommy Maupin, a Junior, and Steve Shopoff, a Senior. Other outstanding members of the team were Chris Noble, a Senior; Jerry Williams, a Junior; and John Mackey, a Sophomore.

The second day of school marked the beginning of regular team workouts, which continued on through December. Early in the season, Chris Noble was elected captain with Tommy Maupin and Steve Shopoff being elected co-captains. Since only two of the starters are graduating this year, prospects for a number one in state competition next year looks bright.

The Eagles first team of Johnny Mackey, Tommy Maupin, and Chris Noble take off their warm-ups to begin the race.

The State's third place team members of Jerry Williams Steve Shopoff, and Chris Noble line up for the start.

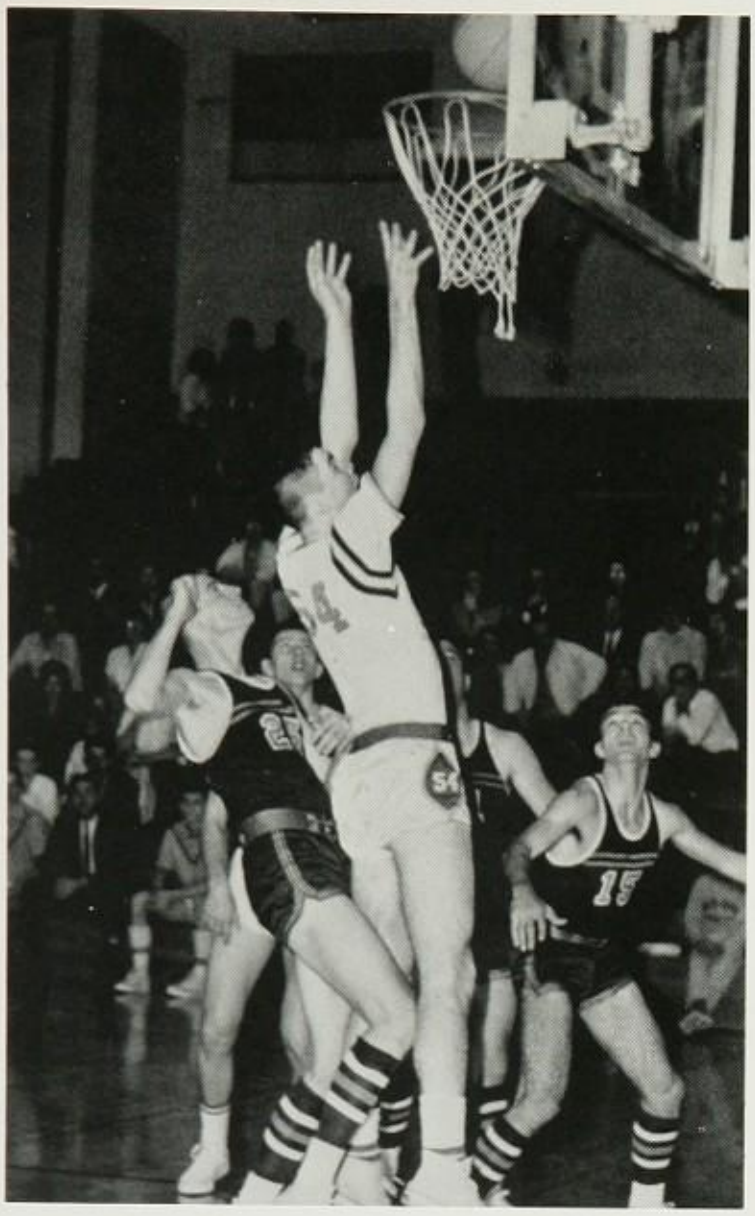
Some tough breaks proved to be in store for the mighty Eagles as they began their first round of conference play.

The first district game against Garland, R.H.S.'s greatest rival, proved to be discouraging as the Eagles took a close second with a 48-50 score. The Warbirds were also defeated by Highland Park, Denton, Sherman, and Denison before they came to their feet to overrun Mesquite 71-39. Although the team ended the first round with a 1-5 record, they did very well considering they had only three boys who had played varsity the previous year. Those returning from last year's team were Brian Lemons, John Smith, and Gary Grant. These boys were also three of the top scorers for the round. Lemons led total points for the round with 85, Rick Prewitt was second with 57, and Grant and Smith were third and fourth with 52 and 50, respectively.



Prewitt (54) is fouled while making lay-up against Denison.

Gaining strength in the second round of district play, the Eagles improved their first round record of 1-5 to a second round record of 4-2. The best game of the season proved to be against Garland, the first game scheduled in the second round. The Eagles plucked the Owls 48-47 for an exciting and thrilling game of skill and spirit. The Eagles surpassed Garland, Highland Park, Mesquite, and Sherman in the second round. They were defeated by Denton and Denison.

Support for the team increased as the season wore on, and the Eagles provided the height of entertainment for the faithful supporters. The team itself gained in skill and experience from the previous games. The scores alone serve as proof of the Warbirds startling improvement in the second round. High scorers for the round included Brian Lemons with 124, points, Rick Prewitt with 65 points, and Gary Grant with 64 points.

Defeating the Garland Owls 48 to 47 on January 28 gave the Eagles their second district victory. This game marked one of the best played games of the season for the Eagles. R.H.S.'s Brian Schroeder claimed nine of the Eagles' defensive rebounds. Brian Lemons was second by taking seven. The Eagles also snatched twelve offensive rebounds.

Shooting attempts brought especially good results as the Eagles made 49 per cent of their shots from the field. The Warbirds also "sunk" 50 percent of their free throws.

Lemons was high-point man with 21 points. Smith was second with nine points.

This year's fine managers include Tom Handy (left), Gordon Ornsby(with the score book), and Bill Carter (right). Tom Handy was the head manager.

R.H.S.'s "B" team got off to a slow start but finally came around after some hard work and team determination. Under the coaching of Otis Ratliff the "B" Eagles ended up with a 12-12 record. The consistent play of Jerry Blackwood, Bob Mahn, Donnie Russell Bob Johnson, Glen Meador, and Don Carrington showed great potential and hope for next year's Varsity team.

The starting five at the close of the season, including Jerry Blackwood, Bob Mahn, Bob Johnson, Donnie Russell, and Glen Meador, won some fine games and lost a few hard-fought decisions.

Other players included Jamie Mendenhall, George Vanderslice, Rick Sparks, Rob Hargis, Ray Tatum, and Tom Scott.

SENIORS '64

Richardson's seniors enjoyed one of the most active schedules ever in 1963-64, moving at a breakneck pace from the first day of school to the last. Football games, dances, choosing graduation invitations, and college board exams filled the earlier part of the year.

Senior creativity was expressed in functions such as the senior play, the senior assembly, and even in senior Kiddy Day. College applications and interviews took much time during the final semester; the long awaited dreams of graduation grew closer to being realized.

The year ended with commencement exercises and baccalaureate services. Seniors celebrated their completion of high school by going on the senior trip and by attending the all night party.

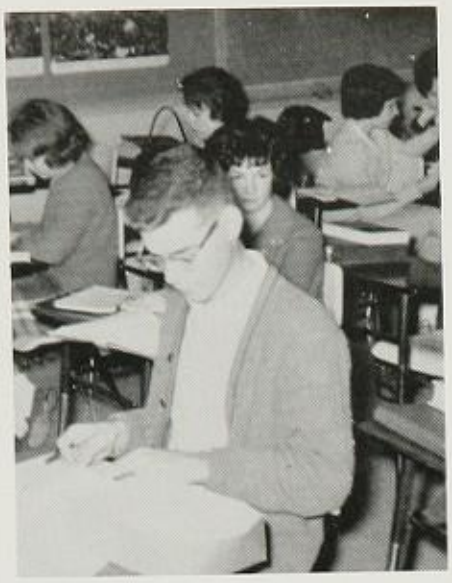
JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS PROMOTE SCHOOL UNITY

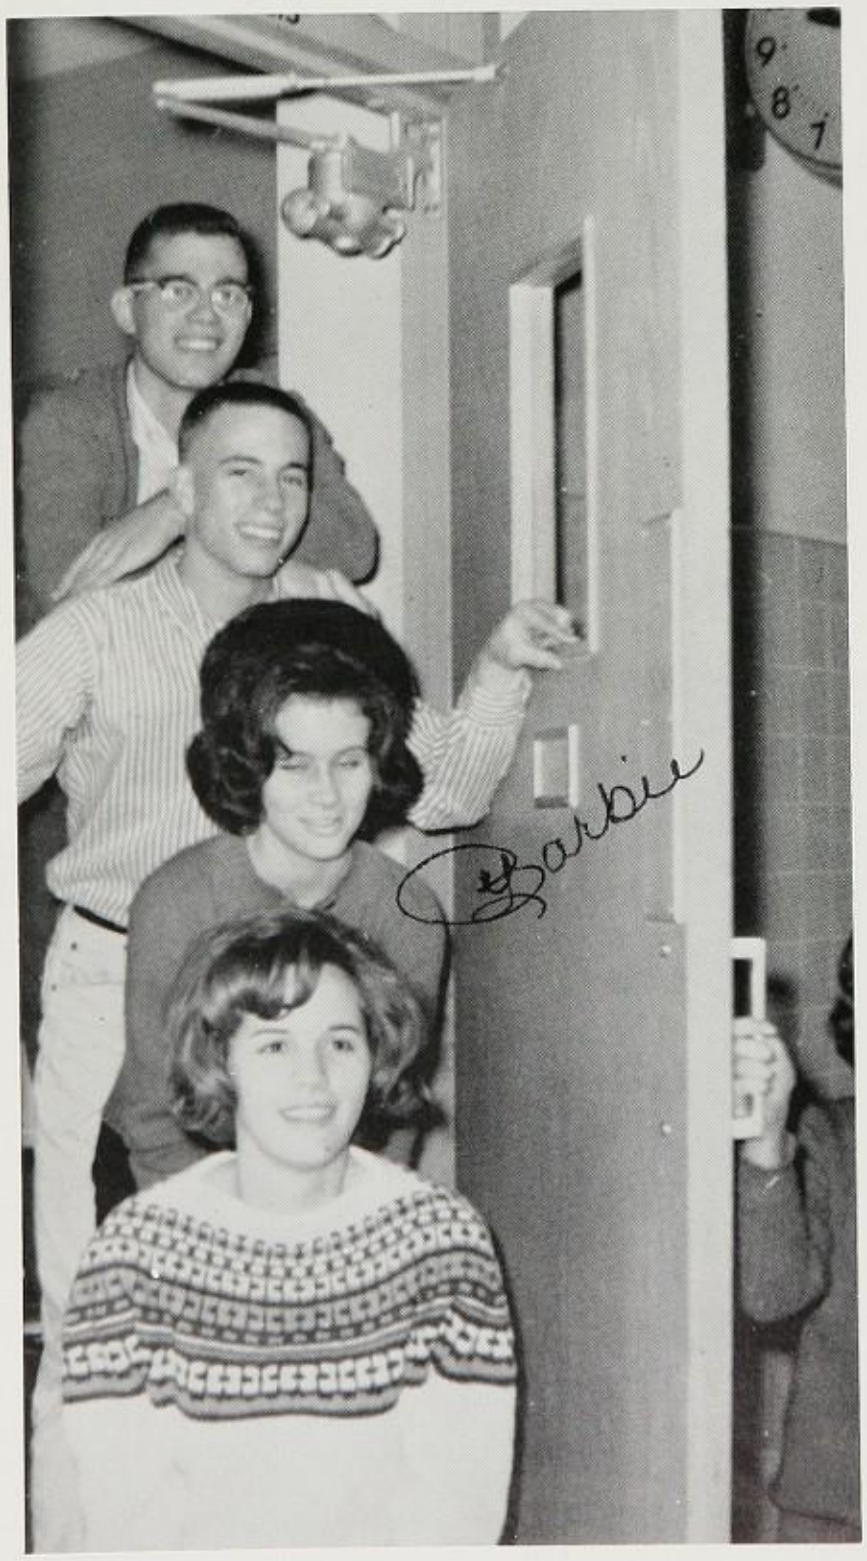


President— Ronnie Simpson

Sec.-Treas.— Marilyn Tipton

Vice-presidents—
Sam Martin and
Barbie Brown

Ronnie, Sam, Barbie, and Marilyn have good natured fun in the spirit of Richardson High School.



Juniors had many chances to volunteer to work for their class.

Places were filled in concession stands; victory dances were planned; and the Junior-Senior Prom was promoted by hardworking junior classmen. Concession workers and those planning dances worked well and displayed fine school spirit, class and school unity, and all-around good support.

1964 Juniors look forward to many future years of fine service as R.H.S. seniors and adult citizens.

At different times during the year, the Junior Class sponsored poster parties held at students' homes.

Posters and signs were made to increase support and attendance of football, basketball, and baseball games, to publicize Victory Dances held after each home game, and to build interest in other Junior and school-wide activities.

After the bell rang, a mad rush occurred for five minutes in which juniors and other students found time between classes to meet, discuss assignments, and plan future rendezvous' for clubs and dates and parties.

Still, students had ample time for the last minute dash to class and gathered a few spare seconds to "Hi!" several friends along the route.

Juniors display the spirit and friendship brewed in the halls of R.H.S., at all the games in all other school functions.

IN HALLWAYS

". . . .Tom!"

Mrs. Atwood's Journalism class cooperates to put out the high school Talon.

One of the most important aspects of school life is the cooperation which is developed between faculty and students. This friendship between teacher and pupil has a lasting effect on the lives of both. Richardson students are given many opportunities to strengthen ties with the faculty members through work in the office, speaking over the P.A. system, and class participation. Members of the Talon and Eagle staffs are given even more time to become acquainted with the faculty members through work on these editions.

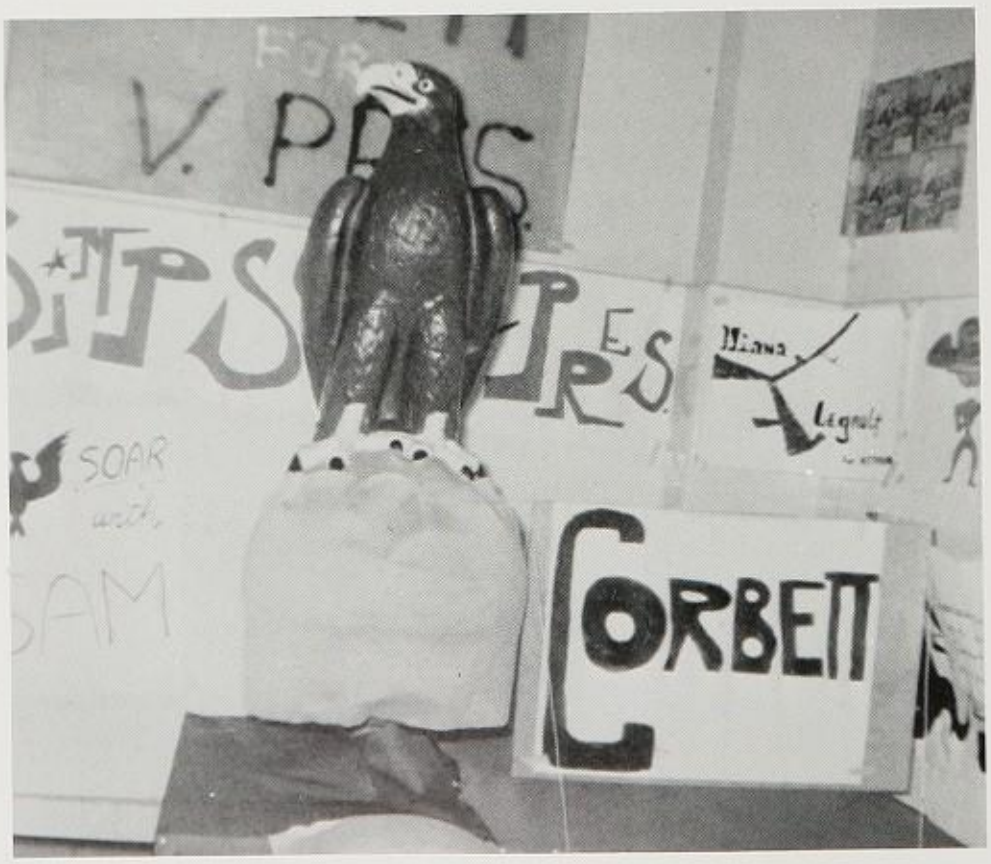
Who said detention was a riot?

Members of the Library Club assist other RHS-ites in using the library.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Student Council officers l. to R.: Secretary Patty Lipinski; Vice-President Chris Noble; President Larry Waldrop; Treasurer Mike Oliver; Historian Donna Foster.

Student Council members vote on another Eagle of the Month.



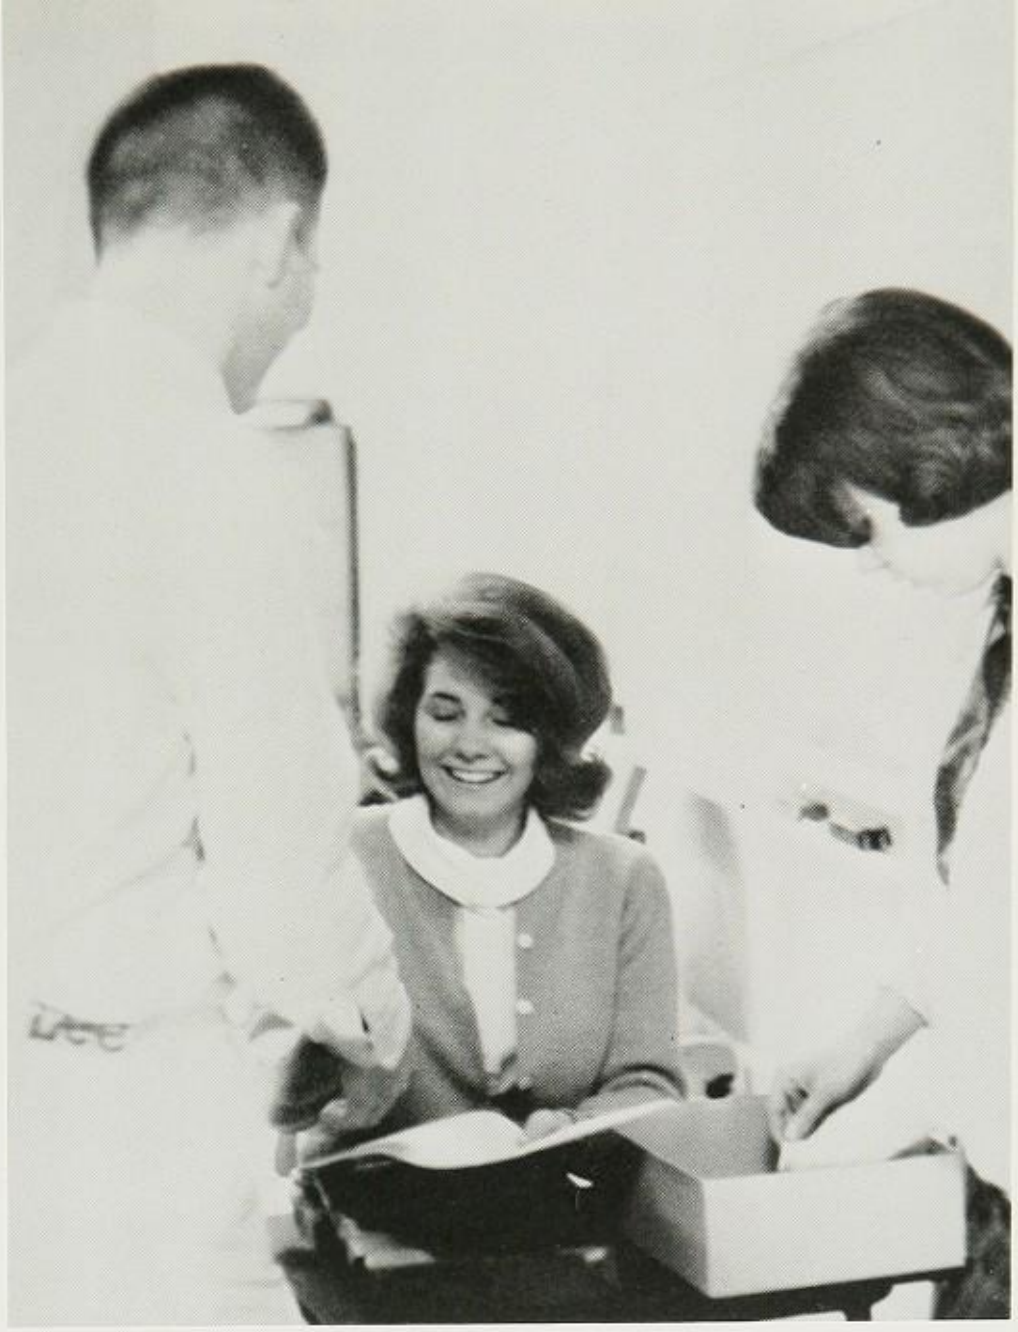
Candidates in the Student Council elections used ingenious posters and campaign techniques.

COUNCIL ACTIVITY

The Student Council has played an important part in the life of RHS. Under the guidance of Mrs. Elizabeth Mann, sponsor, the officers have fullfilled the promises they stated in their speeches last spring.

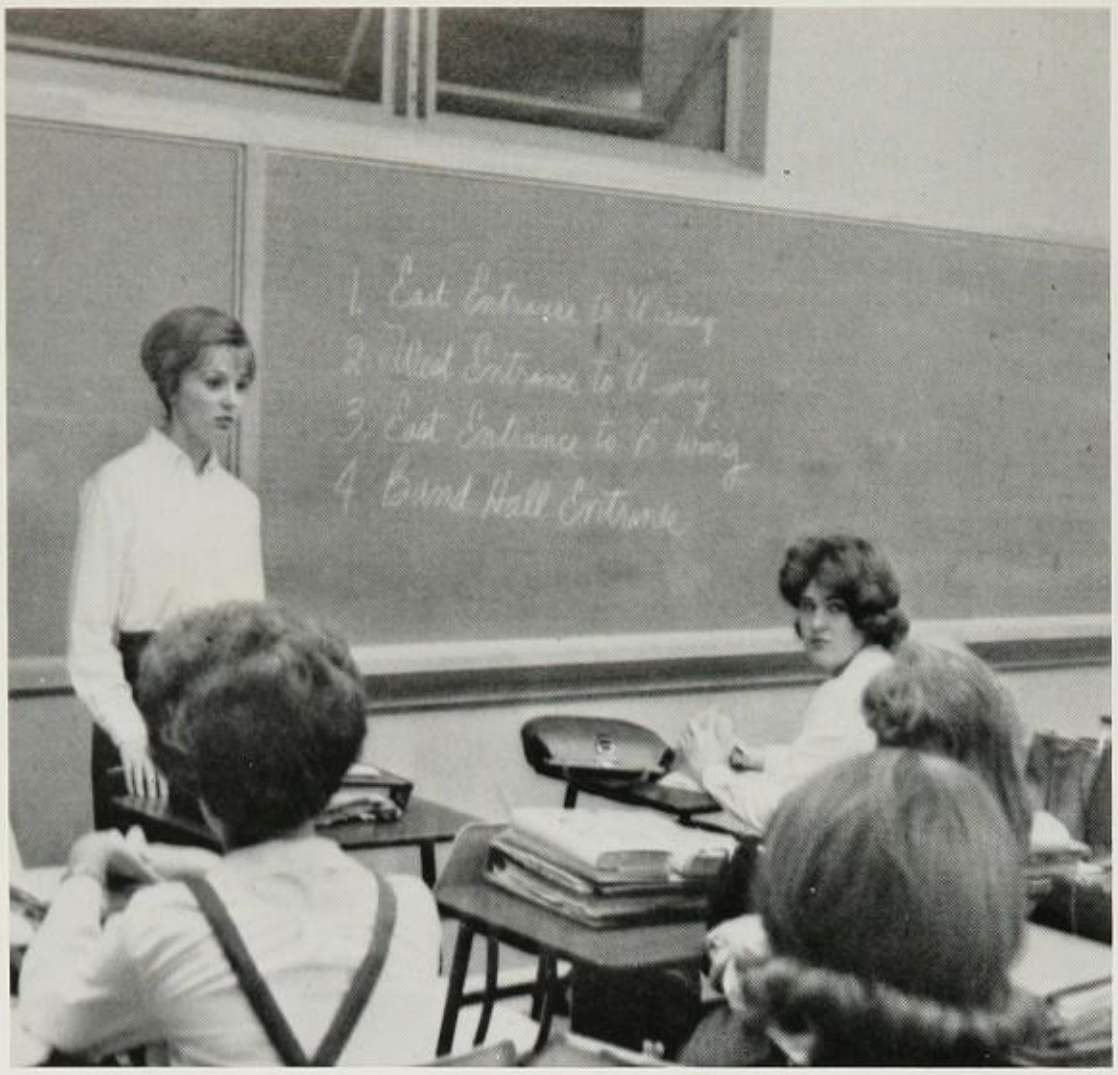
The school year opened with a dance for new students and the election of homeroom representatives. Paper, book covers, decals and pencils were again sold this year in the school store operated by the Student Council. Student directories, sold in the fall, were all bought the first day they went on sale. Posters for the football games involved the whole Student Council several days a week after school. To this year's painted pep posters were added pictures of individual Eagles with each player's number on them. The election of favorites and class officers were again held by the Student Council.

The election of Eagles of the Month and a Christmas dance rounded out this year's activities.



A Student Council member sells school supplies to two of the many students who take advantage of the SC store before school.

Marion Athans and Ronnie Simpson work on football posters after school.



Miss Knobel congratulates the girls on the fine work they did at Buckner's.

"To help when we are needed" is the motto of the Girls' Service League. Both chapters under the leadership of Miss Norma Knobel, Chapter I and Mrs. Mickie Collander, Chapter II, have completed another very successful year.

Buckner Childrens Home has continued to be the main project for Chapter I. The six and seven year olds, there received Halloween, Christmas, Valentine and Easter parties. GSL members also spent several Saturdays wrapping bandages for cancer patients and visiting the Cerebral-Palsy Center in Dallas.

Chapter II visited the Sunnybrooke Nursing Home in the fall, taking potted plants and visiting with each resident. At Thanksgiving they prepared and served the Home's Thanksgiving dinner.

Both clubs have taken active parts in the two open houses, special assemblies and contributing to the school's landscaping project.

"TO HELP WHEN NEEDED"

Chapter II discusses the upcoming dinner for the Sunnybrooke Nursing Home.

Chapter II president Sharyn Staecker gets volunteers to monitor the halls during exams.

EXCHANGE STUDENTS FROM AUSTRIA AND ECUADOR

Gabriel Bernal, Mrs. Dooley and Sue Fekety discuss plans for a school AFS assembly.

Robert

This year's exchange students Gabriel Bernal, Claes Aahren and Niki Spitzy.

The letters AFS stand for the international organization, the American Field Service. This group brings students from other countries to the U. S. and sends U. S. students to other foreign nations.

This year's exchange students were Niki Spitzy from Austria; Gabriel Bernal from Ecuador and the Rotary exchange student Claes Aahren from Sweden. RHS sent Sue Fekety to England last summer and hopes to send another student abroad this summer. Mrs. Louise Dooley is the club's sponsor. The club is divided into two groups since there were so many interested students.

The AFS held a picnic for the exchange students, sponsored another AFS drive to bring another student next year and an AFS school assembly to interest students in the program.

KEY CLUB RENDERS DEDICATED SERVICE

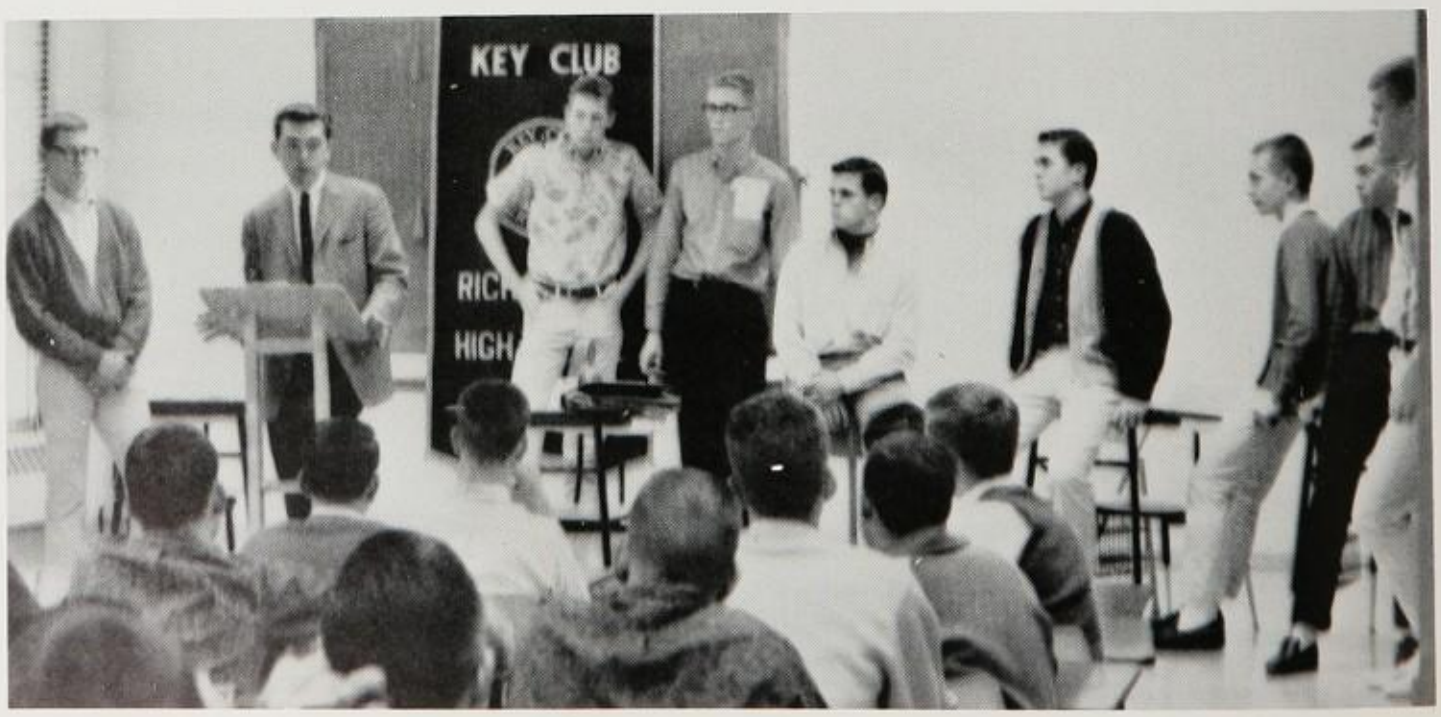
The Key Club worked after school to prepare the bonfire for the Garland Football Game.

"To Render Dedicated Service" is the main purpose of the Key Club, a major service organization at RHS. Members of this club are chosen for their high qualities and leadership abilities. The objectives of the Key Club International are to provide experience in living and working together, to cooperate with the school principal, and to prepare for useful citizenship. The executive staff this year consisted of Ron White, President; Dick Anderson, Vice-President; Terry Lumpkin and Denton Jones, Secretaries; and Bill Harrison, Treasurer.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Howard Starr, the Key Club participated in school and community activities. Among their many projects were the annual candy sale, "Project Buddy" at Scottish Rite Hospital, the celebration of the teachers' birthdays with gifts of flowers and ties, and the concession at the football games.

Members of the Key Club receive before-hand instructions on effective ways to sell candy.

Mr. Starr volunteers his Key Clubbers to work in the parking lots during Exams.



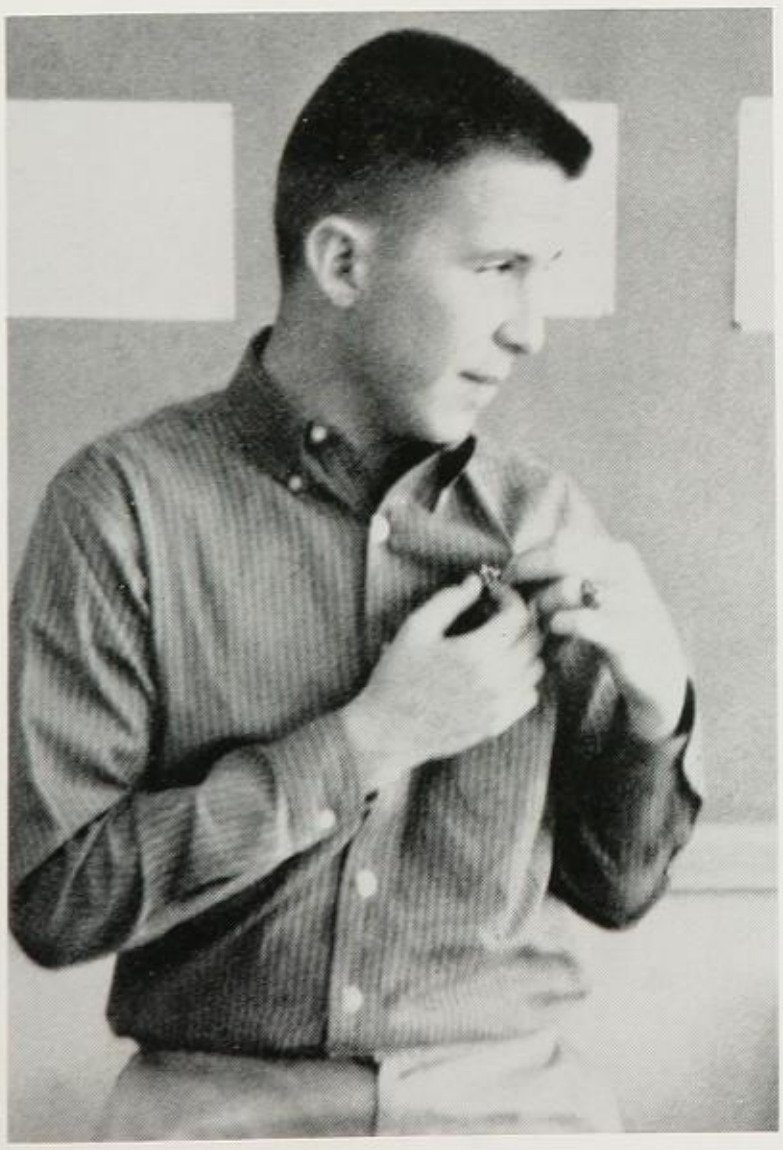
PALS RECEIVE NEW PINS

Oh no! There's another flat on my car.

In its fourth year, the PAL Club has become a strong service organization in RHS. The PAL'S chief purpose is to serve RHS and the community.

The annual projects include supporting the exchange students, giving Christmas gifts to Boys Town of Dallas, working in concession stands at the football games, and serving refreshments at Open House.

During football season, the PAL's purchased an old car and painted it to represent an opponent, the Garland Owls. This project gave both the teachers and students an opportunity to hit the car and let off steam.



Reg Jackson, a PAL member, just received his club pin.

Pal officers, Jack Noteware, President; Chris Noble, Vice-President; Tom Hutton, Secretary; and Neil Matzen, Treasurer, are looking over plans for the PAL's service projects.

N.H.S. INSTALLS 52 NEW MEMBERS

New Honor Society members were installed at an evening meeting.

The National Honor Society is a nation-wide organization dedicated to giving recognition to high school scholars. Qualifications may vary from school to school but RHS requires a 90 average and no grade below 85. A list is compiled of students who have maintained this average during the previous spring semester. Members of the faculty grade the students on leadership, service, and character. These grades, ranging from 0-5, are then averaged and added to the scholarship grades. Students with highest total points are selected.

On November 19, fifty-two new members were installed at a tea given in their honor. Of this number, fifteen were Seniors and 37 were Juniors.

The club is co-sponsored by Miss Darnall and Mrs. Barnett. The officers were John Heitmeyer, President; Mark Beuler, Vice-President; Sylvia Schaelling, Secretary; Larry Di Paolo, Treasurer.

John Heitmeyer, President, presided over the installation.

Barbee Deering lights the candle of scholarship.

STUDENT FORUM IN THIRD YEAR

Student Forum committee members discuss Patriotism Week.

In its third year, the Student Forum tried to reaffirm faith in the traditions of the American people and to exemplify the ideals of patriotism and loyalty.

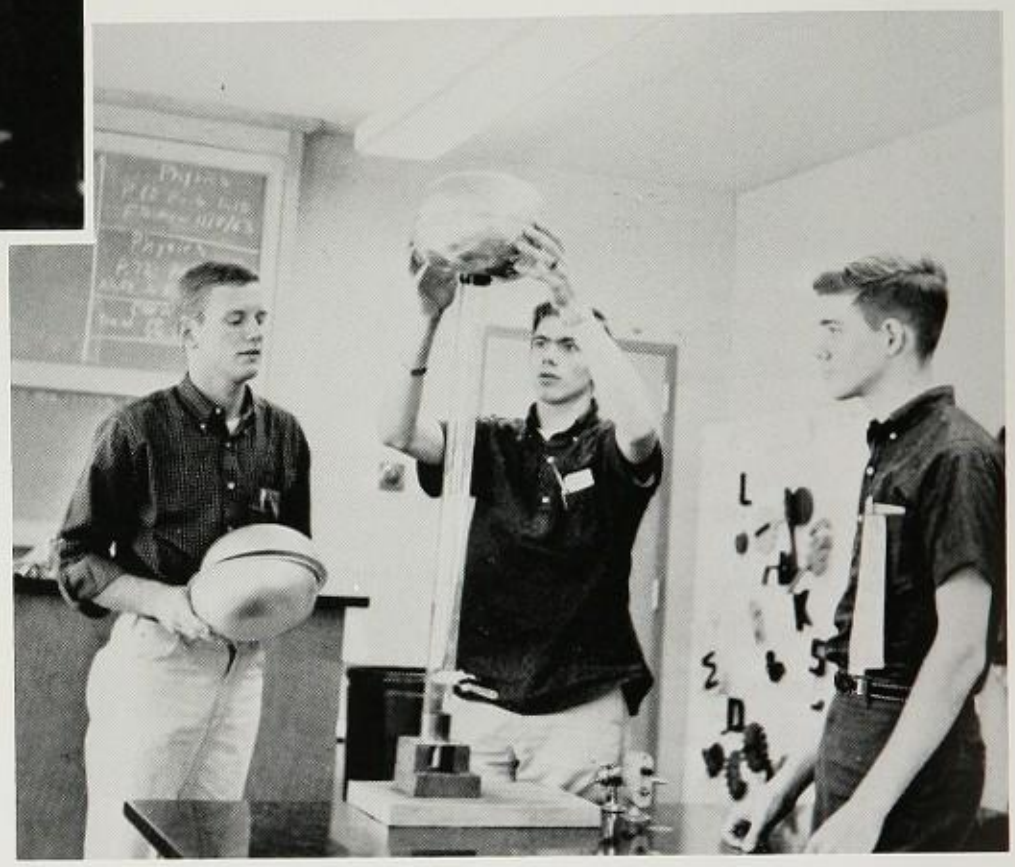
During each club meeting, the Student Forum discussed the current world problems and situations. They attempted to spread Americanism by sponsoring Patriotism Week. The club motto was "Sell America." This year the club was co-sponsored by Miss Darnall and Mrs. Barnett. The officers were Sharon Douglas, President; Vicky Kofender, Secretary; Jeanie Miller, Treasurer; and Mickie Esunas, Reporter.

President Sharon Douglas leads the members of the Student Forum in the Pledge of Allegiance.

CHEM-PHY CHOOSES ACCELERATOR AS PROJECT

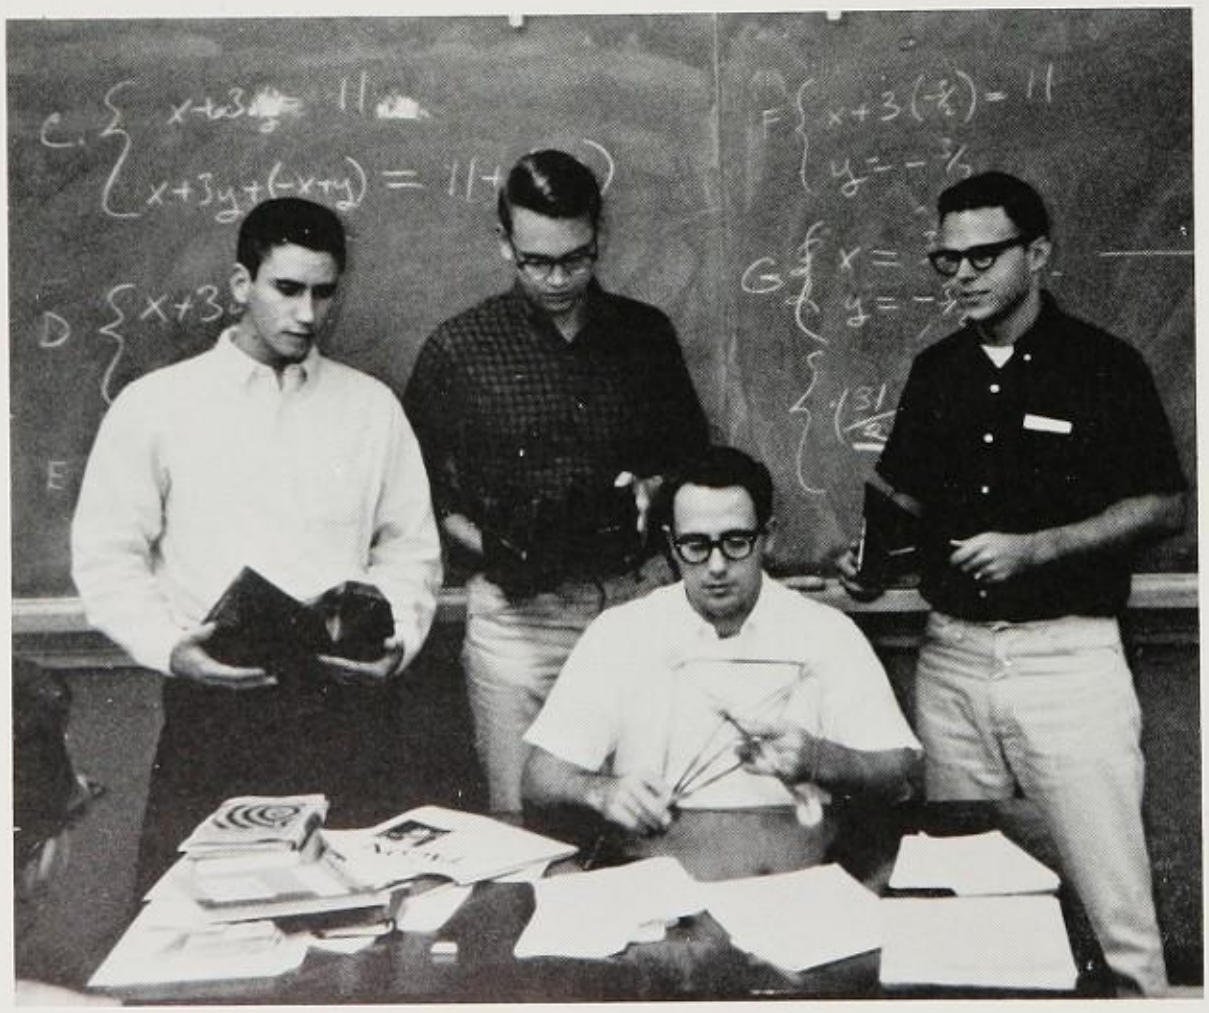
Mr. Slaughter explains new project.

Bill Henrich, President; Jim Lewis, Vice-President; and Robert Klunder, Reporter, assemble part of accelerator. Linda Roberts, Secretary, is not shown.



Chem-Phy Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. G. Slaughter, learned about the related fields of chemistry and physics through visiting speakers. Building a particle accelerator and generator was chosen as the main project of the year.

MATH CLUB STUDIES ADVANCED MATHEMATICS



Mr. Swann studies geometry in tinker toys.

Math Club consists of juniors and seniors with above average ability in mathemathics. The club's programs concentrate on subjects not covered in regular classes, and its members sponsor a team to take a national mathemetical exam in the spring. This year speakers came from industry and colleges to discuss job opportunities.

Officers were President, Dennis Dawson; Vice-President, John Mayfield; Secretary-Treasurer, Paul Randolf. Mr. J. E. Swann was the sponsor.

CHORAL CLUB GIVES CHRISTMAS CONCERT

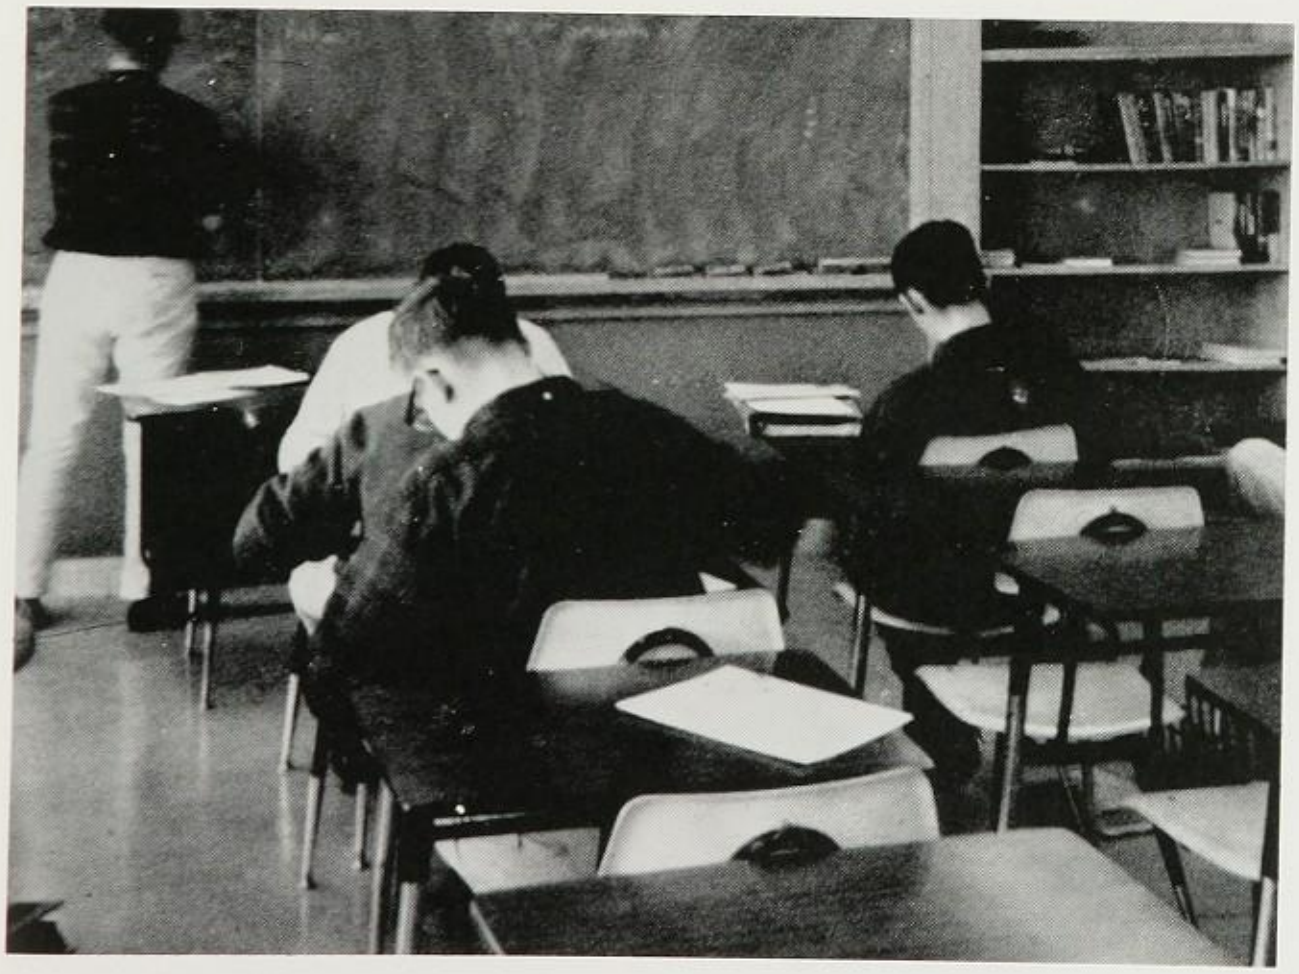
Under the direction of Mr. Figg, the Choral Club presented parts of two Christmas programs for the RHS student body. The club's chorus combined its talents with those of the Golden Eagle Band and the Drama Club to perform a medley of Christmas songs and aided in the dramatization of the Christmas story. The Choral Club also presented a concert for the entire community at Greenville avenue auditorium during the Christmas season.

Six members of the chorus auditioned for places in the All-State Choir in November. Fred Mayes, tenor, and Jonathan Slocum, bass, were chosen as alternates in the highly selective chorus.

All-State alternates Fred Mayes and Jonathan Slocum practice on Christmas music.

Choir works on Christmas music.

SLIDE RULE WORKS FOR PERFECTION



Advanced Slide Rule members work on standardized tests.

Two Slide Rule clubs, Advanced and Beginning, worked to obtain speed and accuracy in using the slide rule. The Advanced club compared their skill with other students across the country by taking standardized tests administered by Mrs. Mann, sponsor. Beginning Slide Rule studied practical applications for the slide rule.

Advanced Slide Rule officers were President Dennis Dawson and Vice-President Jim Lewis. Mr. Hill sponsored Beginning Slide Rule with Neil Redshaw, President; Larry Dipaolo, Vice-President; and Joanie Luckett, Secretary-Treasurer as officers.

FUTURE NURSES STUDY OPPORTUNITIES IN NURSING

Mrs. Gant and Karen Currens discuss plans for trip to Parkland Hospital.

Mrs. Ann Gant and Mrs. Paula Stringer, co-sponsors of Future Nurses, helped the members of this club to become better acquainted with the opportunities open to them in the nursing field. Mrs. Katherine Dempsey also aided the club in its many activities and projects of the year. The programs included speakers such as Earl Davis, Richardson chairman for cerebral palsy.

Projects carried out by the future Nurses included helping with the March of Dimes, making rag dolls for children with cerebral palsy, and taking candy and gifts to the Oak Lawn Rest Home.

Several trips highlighted the year's activities. Members of the club visited Parkland Hospital, Southwestern Medical School, and the Denton State School for the mentally retarded. Lou Ann Carrington, Suzanne Stringer, and Karen Currens represented the RHS chapter of Future Nurses at a convention held in Abilene, Texas.

Officers for this year were Karen Currens, President; Linda Krisl, Vice-President; Suzanne Stringer, Secretary; Becky Burrage, Treasurer and Cornelia Blair, Historian.

"AND GLADLY WOULD HE LEARN, AND GLADLY TEACH"

The Future Teachers has as its goal to further the aims of those who wish to enter the field of education and to help those considering it to decide whether they wish to make it a vocation. At bi-monthly meetings this was accomplished through the use of educational films, qualified speakers, and other similar means.

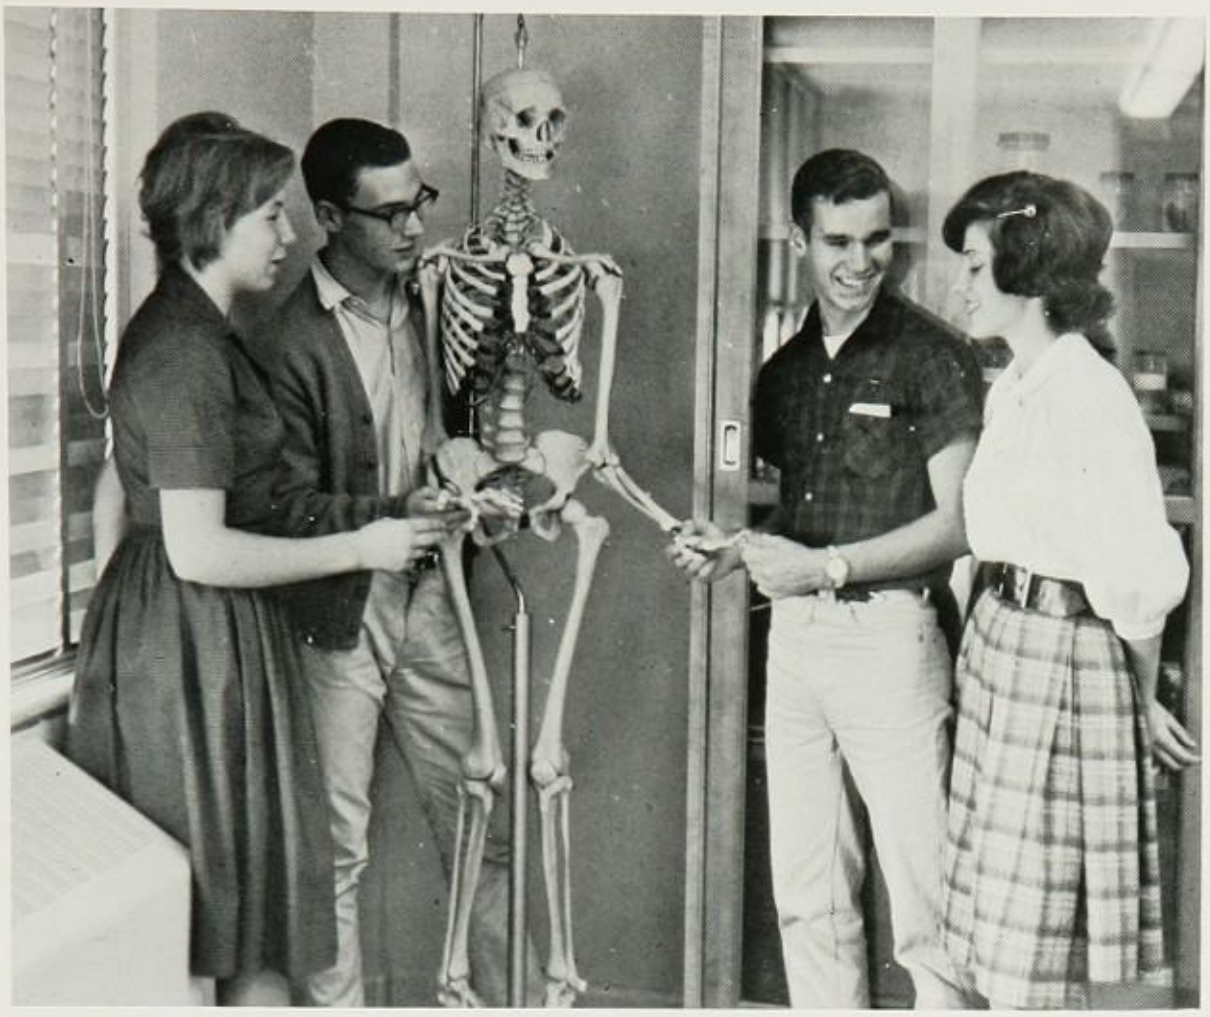
In addition, two major conventions are held each year: The District V convention and the State Convention. Here one finds high level programs, and the work and planning that make so large an organization possible.

Finally, toward the latter part of the year, members of the club participate in student teaching throughout Richardson school district, a fitting culmination for one seeking to learn, that he may teach.

Officers this year were Pat Helm, President; Lynn Glass, Vice-President; Martha Ferrell, Secretary; and Charles Marstrand, Treasurer.

Mrs. Joe Hitt speaks to Future Teachers about varied fields of teaching.

BIO-SCI TAKES VARIED FIELD TRIPS



Officers Belinda Forest, Richard Colbert, Martin McNeese, and Mary Ann Bailey welcomes new member into club.

The Bio-Sci club took several field trips to scientific centers in and around Dallas, including the Wadley Blood Center, several college laboratories, the Southwestern Research Center, and other surrounding areas of natural interest.

Officers Martin McNeese, President; Richard Colbert, Vice-President; Belinda Forest, Secretary; Mary Ann Bailey, Treasurer; and Mrs. Keasler, sponsor, planned various programs which developed interests in biology and the related sciences.

JUNIOR-SENIOR CAREER GIRLS LEARN OF NEW PROFESSIONS

Junior-Senior Career Girls familiarized their members with many careers open to women. Speakers for the clubs programs were professional women from varied fields in the business world. A discussion period with these speakers gave the members many ideas for future business life.

Officers were Mike Lovelady, President; Judy Erwin, Vice-President; Martha Massheder, Secretary-Treasurer; Sondra Swor, Reporter; Sandy King, Program Chairman; and Bybeth Byers, Project Chairman. Mrs. Gardner served as sponsor for the club.

Judy Erwin, Bybeth Byers, and Mike Lovelady await the arrival of one of their many speakers.

FHA SPONSORS DOLL ASSEMBLY

Judy Booker, Dorothy Morris and Lynn Glass give their version of the Beatles at a meeting.

Susan Rountree organizes plans for a FHA slumber party.

Gail Glisson, Chapter II president, presides over a club meeting.

The object of the FHA is to promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfaction of homemaking; and better family living for all. They render service to the school, home and community. This year's activities included a football doll assembly and a slumber party.

The sponsors of the chapters are Mrs. Mickie Collander and Mrs. Dean McKeown.

UN CLUB STUDIES INTERNATIONAL PROBLEMS

UN club members Bob Boykin, Warren Wincorn, Bill Rickenbacher and Mike Main join in discussion.

The UN club, under the direction of Mrs. Marilyn Ward, meets twice a month to discuss current domestic and international problems. They also delve into past phases of World History. The meetings are carried on in discussion form. This year's exchange students also spoke on their countries.

BEAUX ARTS INSPIRES CREATIVITY

Beaux Arts club members view their latest work of art.

The Beaux Arts is a service organization to provide good quality art work for the school, the T.V. teaching section, and other qualified organizations. The club made the posters for the Playhouse RHS production and numerous other school sponsored activities.

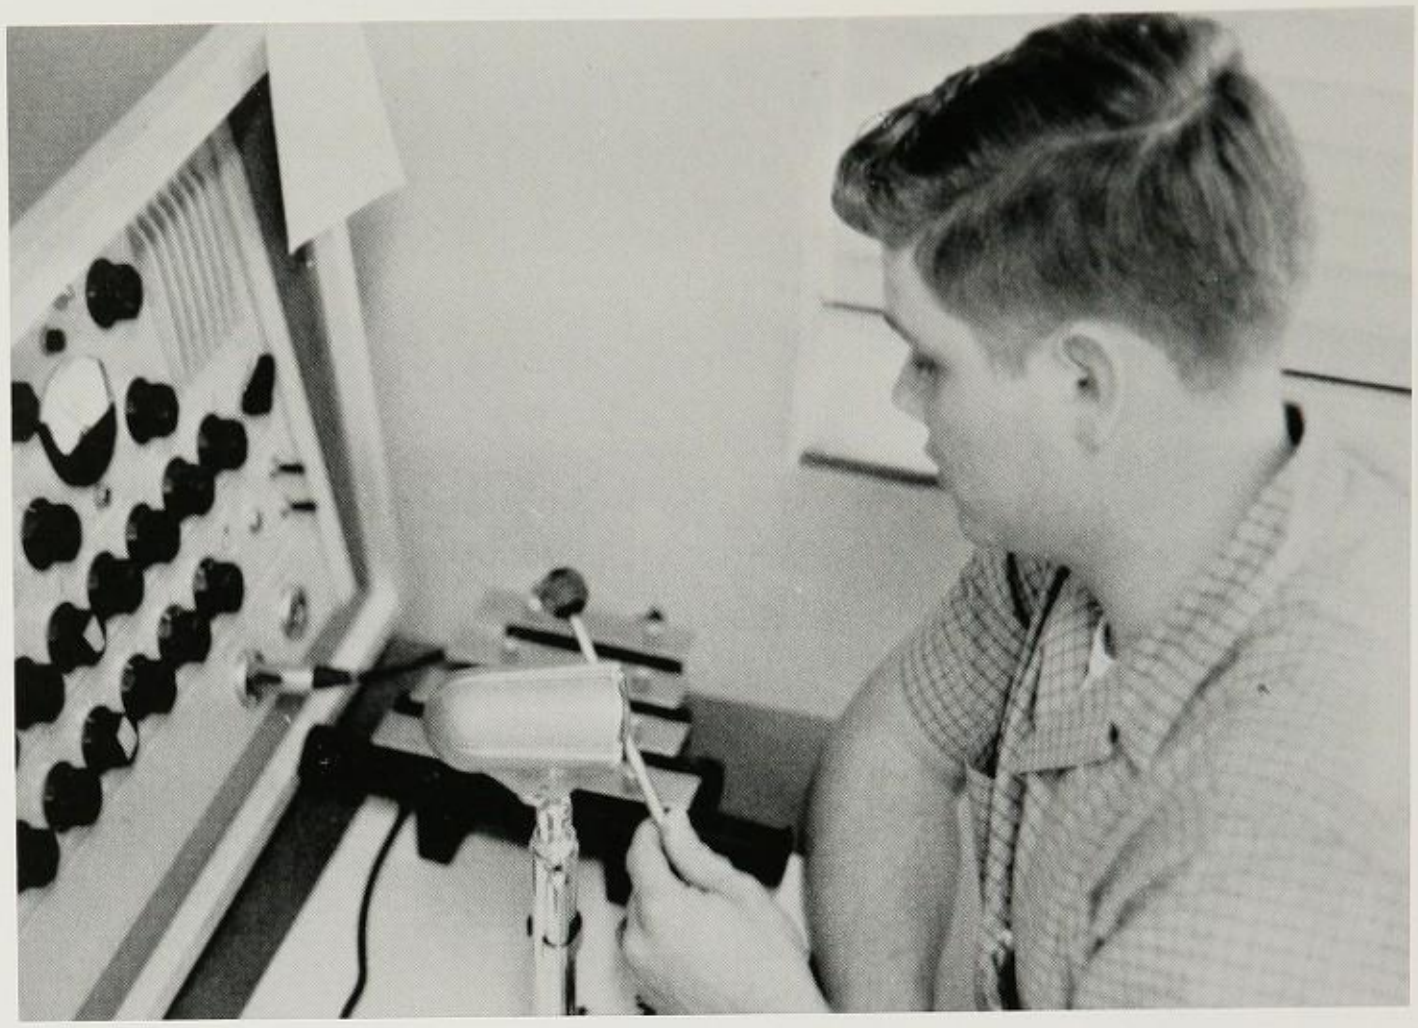
Mr. Michael N. Roach is the club sponsor.

KRHS SERVES AS VOICE OF RHS

During second, fifth, and activity periods the voice of RHS comes over the P.A. system into the rooms of Richardson High School. This voice informs students of all activities, club meetings, and school news in which they might be interested.

Activities include making regular announcements three times daily, recording all special programs such as student council election speeches, preparing a news program every two weeks, and setting up the P.A. system for all assemblies. KRHS also supplies music during homeroom period.

Officers of KRHS this year were President Ronnie Wesch, Vice-President Mary Coleman, Secretary Linda Roberts, and Treasurer Tom Brown. Mrs. Gray sponsors KRHS.



Ronnie Wesch prepares to give announcements.

DEBATE CLUB MEMBERS ENTER DEBATE TOURNAMENTS

Bill Skocpol conducts meeting as Belinda Brockman looks on.

Debate Club has as its main purpose the promotion of interest and effectiveness in debate at RHS, with corresponding improvements of the individual abilities of the members. The club serves as a medium for gathering material, learning the basic methods of debate, and representing RHS at debate tournaments. Debate Club is affiliated with the National Forensic League.

Debate is a highly competitive time consuming battle of facts, logic, and speaking ability that requires hard work and dedication. Debate offers little glory, but provides an invaluable chance to improve many abilities that will be useful in the future.

Sponsor Mrs. Ruth Gray aided President Bill Skocpol, Vice-President Janie Groves, Secretary Belinda Brockman, and Treasurer Jane Johnson in preparing the club's activities.

HI-LI CLUB PROMOTES PAPER BACK EXCHANGE

"Hi-Li" club members straighten shelves and collect author information.

The library club has served the school by reading the shelves, helping to process books, clipping material for the vertical file, compiling current author information, and making bulletin board and show case displays. The club's special project this year was collecting paperback books for a "paperback exchange." The books chosen were those that are read by a majority of the students.

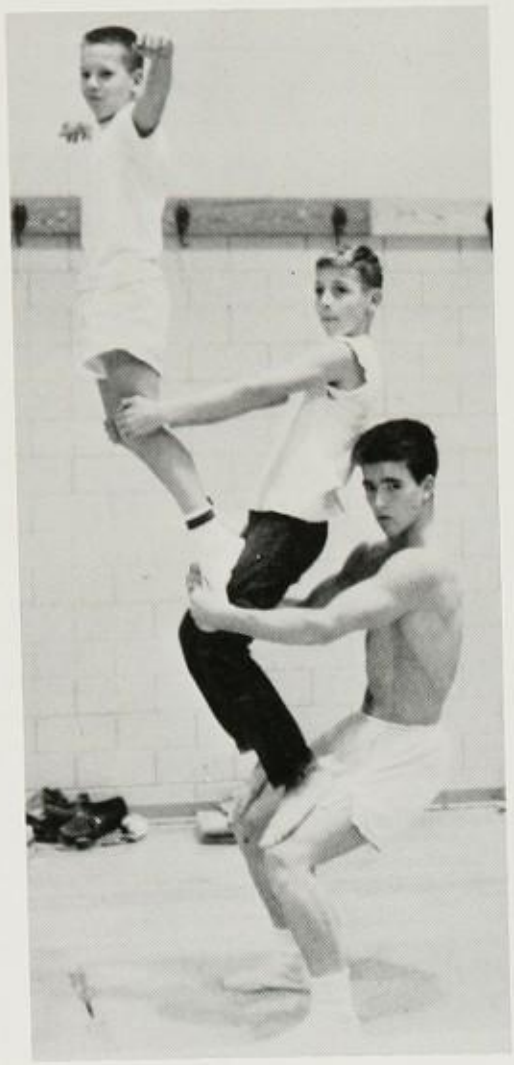
President Carolyn Ingram checks the date of the Red Cross Assembly.

The Red Cross has helped to promote understanding and friendship with other people in our own city and the world. Mrs. Easter Stokes is sponsor of the club and the officers are: Pres. Carolyn Ingram; V-P Chip Besio; Secretary, Kathy Werner. The club sponsored a talent assembly; the profits of which they used to supply the school with a disaster chest.

PARALLELS ENTER COMPETITION



Parallel members show co-ordination.

Daily practice is essential to Parallel members.

The Parallels are the recently formed gymnastic team which entered its first competition this year. The group practices on the trampoline, parallel bars and mats. In the meet they entered they brought back several medals to prove they are an upcoming sport in the life of RHS.

GRA INVOLVES STRENUOUS ACTIVITY

GRA members engage in a game of volleyball during Homeroom period.

The GRA meets twice a month to provide an opportunity for all girls to participate in a variety of sports. Mrs. Gay Tunnell sponsors the club which meets in the gym.

JETS HELP SPONSOR SCIENCE FAIR AT RHS

Natalie Martin prepares her chemistry exhibit.

Jets, Junior Engineering Technical Society, is a natural organization sponsored in Texas by Texas A.&M. Physical science topics are discussed in meetings designed to stimulate further interest in science. Members prepare demonstrations and talks which they present to the club. During Open House, Jets prepared and displayed labratory equipment and demonstrated experiments.

A field trip in the spring through the power plant and other facilities at Lake Whitney was the outstanding activity for the year. On this trip, engineers at the power plant explained the various functions of machines used to produce electricity.

Officers this year were President Gary Thomasson, Vice-President Steve Jones, Vice-President Tom Clarke, Secretary Gary Norsworthy, and Treasurer Randy Whittington. Mr. J. G. Thompson served as sponsor for the club.

DEUTSCHE GESELLSCHAFT STUDIES GERMAN CULTURE

Deutshe Gesellschaft, commonly known as the German Club, worked to further the learning of German speech and culture. The club serves as a supplementary step for interested students who wish to gain additional knowledge of German life. Programs of the club presented new information to the members through several guest speakers, including Mr. Fox, former RHS counselor who has toured Europe, and Niki Spitzy, exchange student from Austria.

Mrs. Mankus, s p o n s o r, worked with Belinda Brockman, President; Mark Buehler, Vice-President; Johnathon Slocum, Secretary-Treasurer; and Carol Trewin, Historian to teach the club various aspects of German customs and music.

Belinda Brockman and Mark Buehler display German chart while Johnathon Slocum checks roll and Carol Trewin looks on.

Reporters bring their problems to the editors who assigned them stories.

The Talon is published bi-monthly by the journalism class under the sponsorship of Mrs. Maurine Atwood. Page editors assign stories on Tuesday to be turned in by the following Tuesday. Everything is then typed and taken to the printer. Galleys or long strips of stories are proofread and pasted to dummy pages. These are returned to the printer for the final copy of the Talon. Making sure the stories are of student interest, attractive headlines, accurateness and following proper journalism procedure involve long hours by editors, reporters and sponsor. The task of depositing the many Talon dimes is the job of the business managers.

Feature editors, Jeannie Gibson, Pat Starr and Belinda Brockman criticize their page in the latest issue.

PLAYHOUSE "OUR

John Simon and Steve Lusk discuss their children in "Our Town."

The membership of Playhouse RHS was again full this year. Students from all classes enjoy the activities and work involved in belonging to Playhouse. Mrs. Suzanne Nabours, sponsor, was congratulated for turning out another find production this year, "Our Town." The play involved long hours of rehearsal and production work. A play was also sent to interscholastic competition. Playhouse members also represented the school at the Hillcrest, Bryan Adams and Jesuit speech tournaments. Several placed in the semifinals and finals.

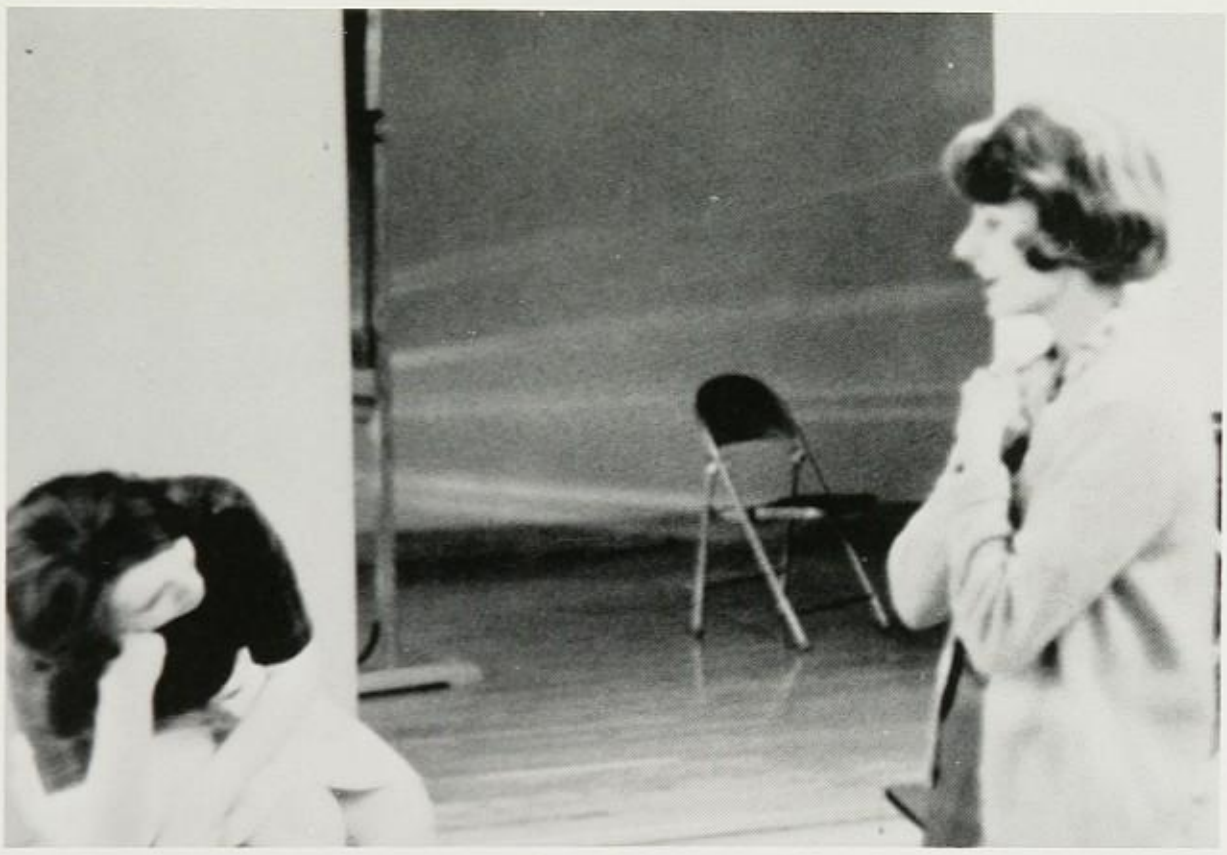
Playhouse meetings included showing scenes students were working on, films, and movies.

Steve Bates and Becky Berry ascend the ladder which portrays their home in "Our Town."

PRESENTS

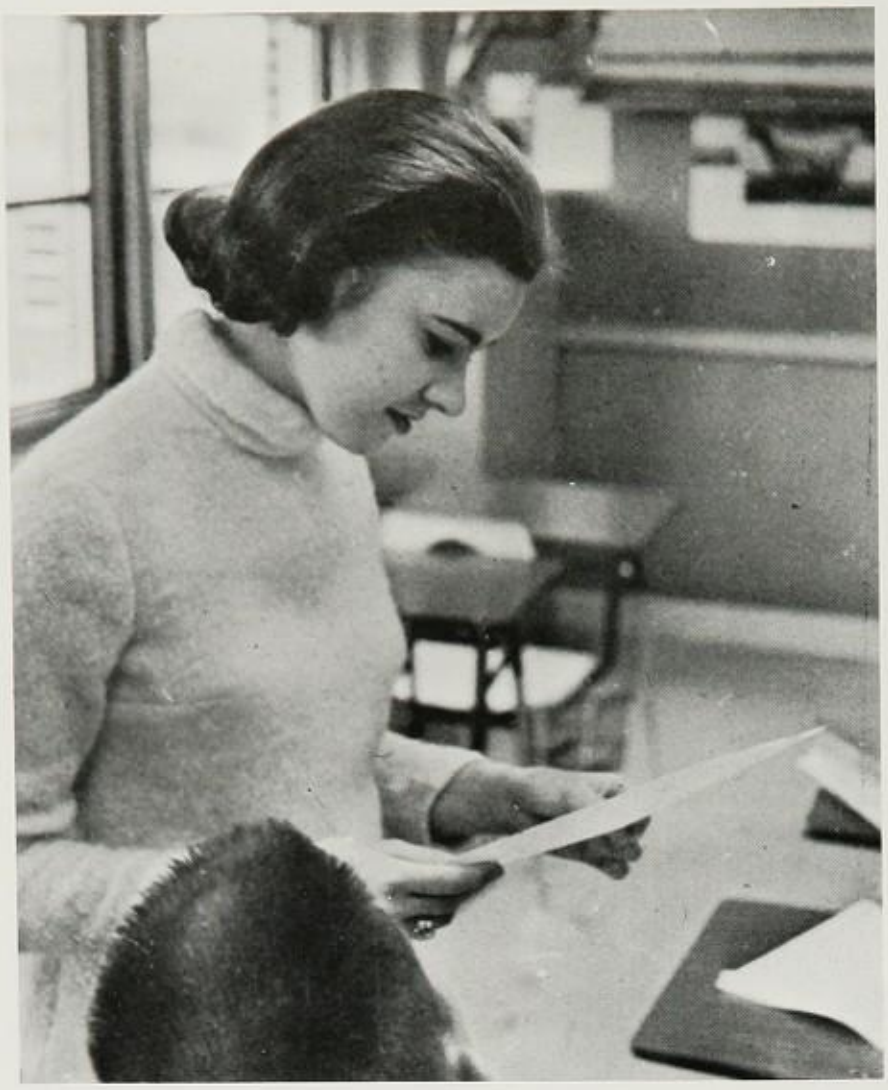
TOWN"

Mrs. Suzanne Nabours, sponsor, answers a members question concerning the upcoming Jesuit speech tournament.



Cathy Paikowski and Janeen Frensley practice their scene for the Jesuit tournament.

Jim Wheeler, president, sets up a film for a meeting.



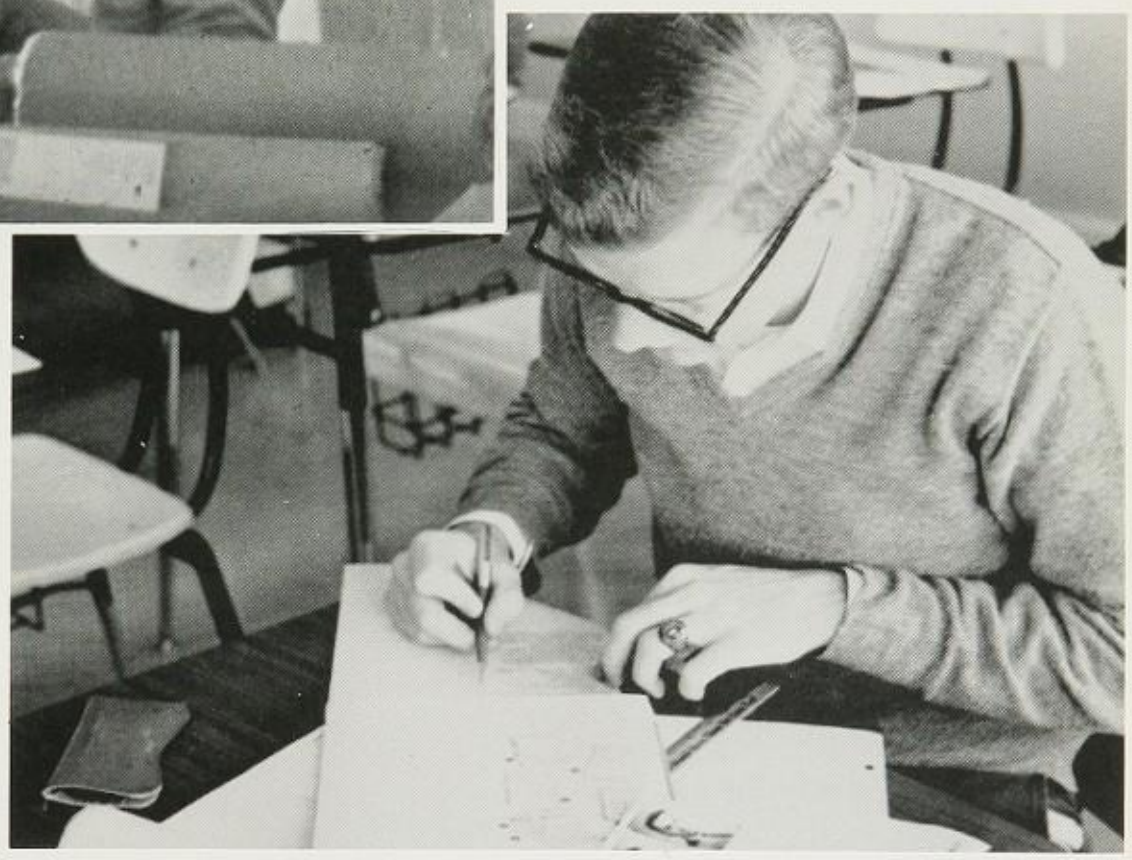
Editor Barbee Deering checks copy before it is sent to the printer.

Suzanne Hastedt is wearied by the strain of the upcoming deadline.

Annual staff members search the piles of pictures for those they are able to use.

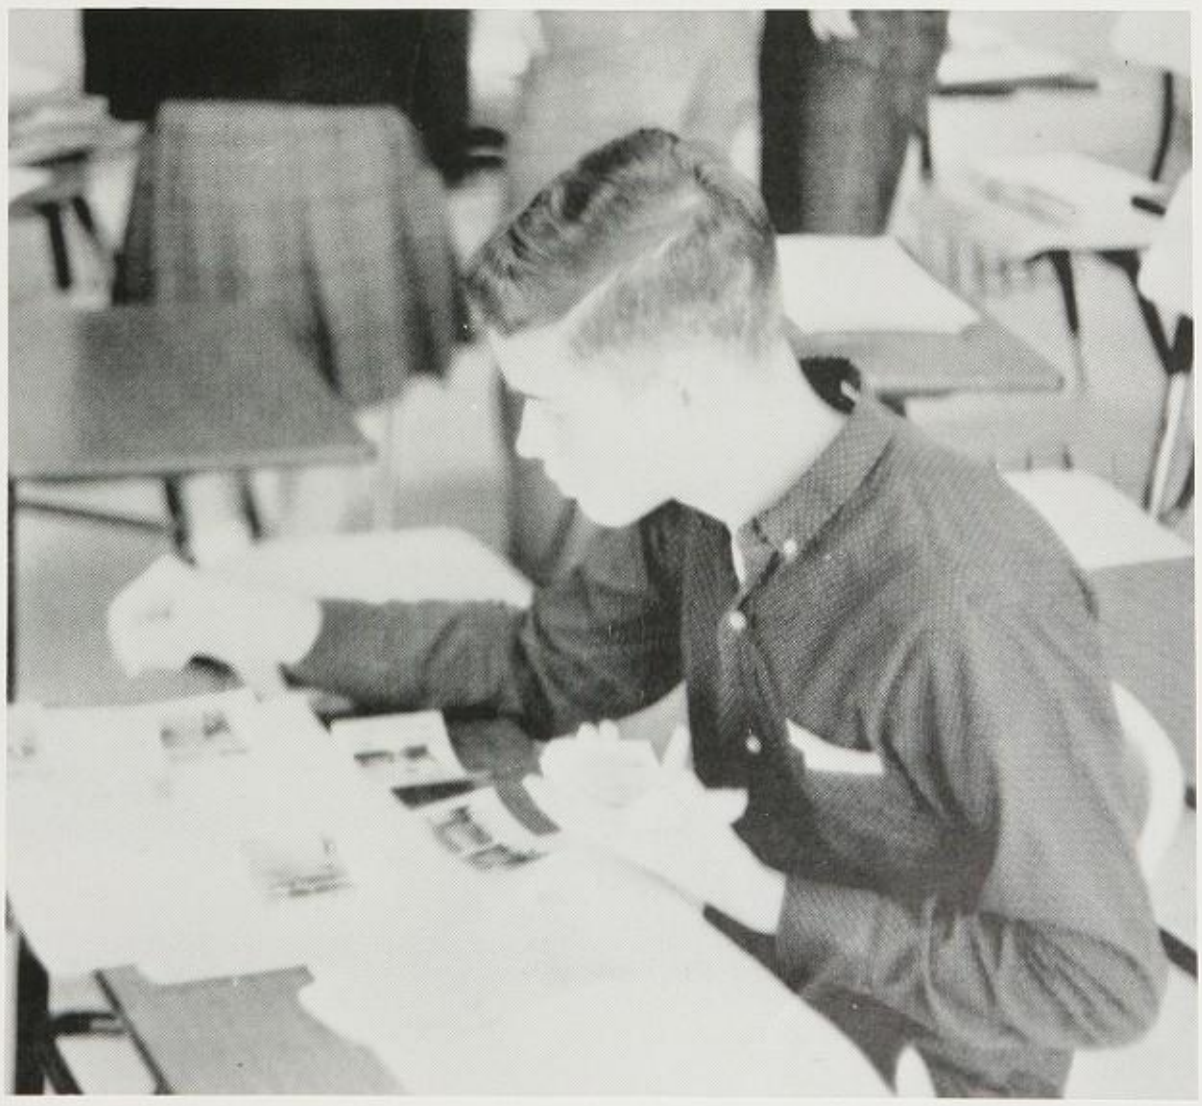
DEADLINES

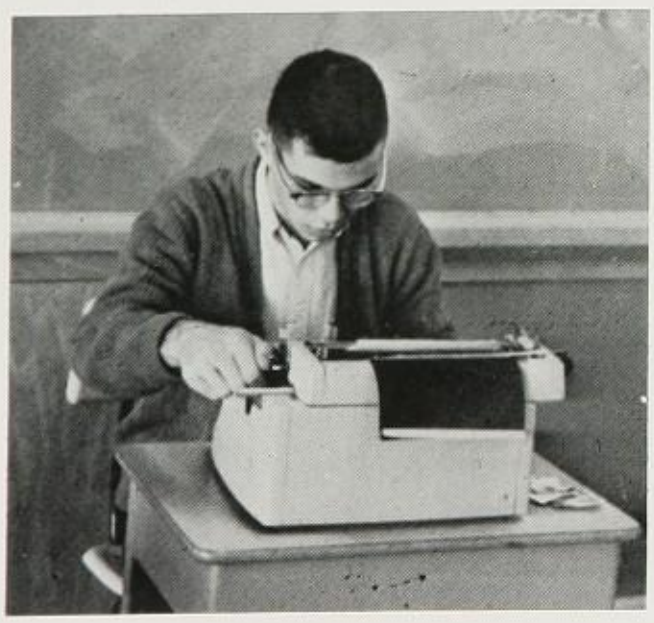
Miss Julia Darnell, sponsor, must proof-read all the pages before they are turned in to the publisher.



Bob Klunder is using his creative ability to compose an interesting page arrangement.

Bill Henrich works at write ups for his faculty section.





Ronnie Simpson uses the one finger method.

Liz Deem and Kay Mackey discuss an upcoming sophomore activity they need to cover.

Reg Jackson, John Mayfield, Marion Athans, Suzanne Hastedt and Cathy Paikowski work frantically to meet that day's final deadline.

Kathy Werner collects annual sales money from a homeroom representative.

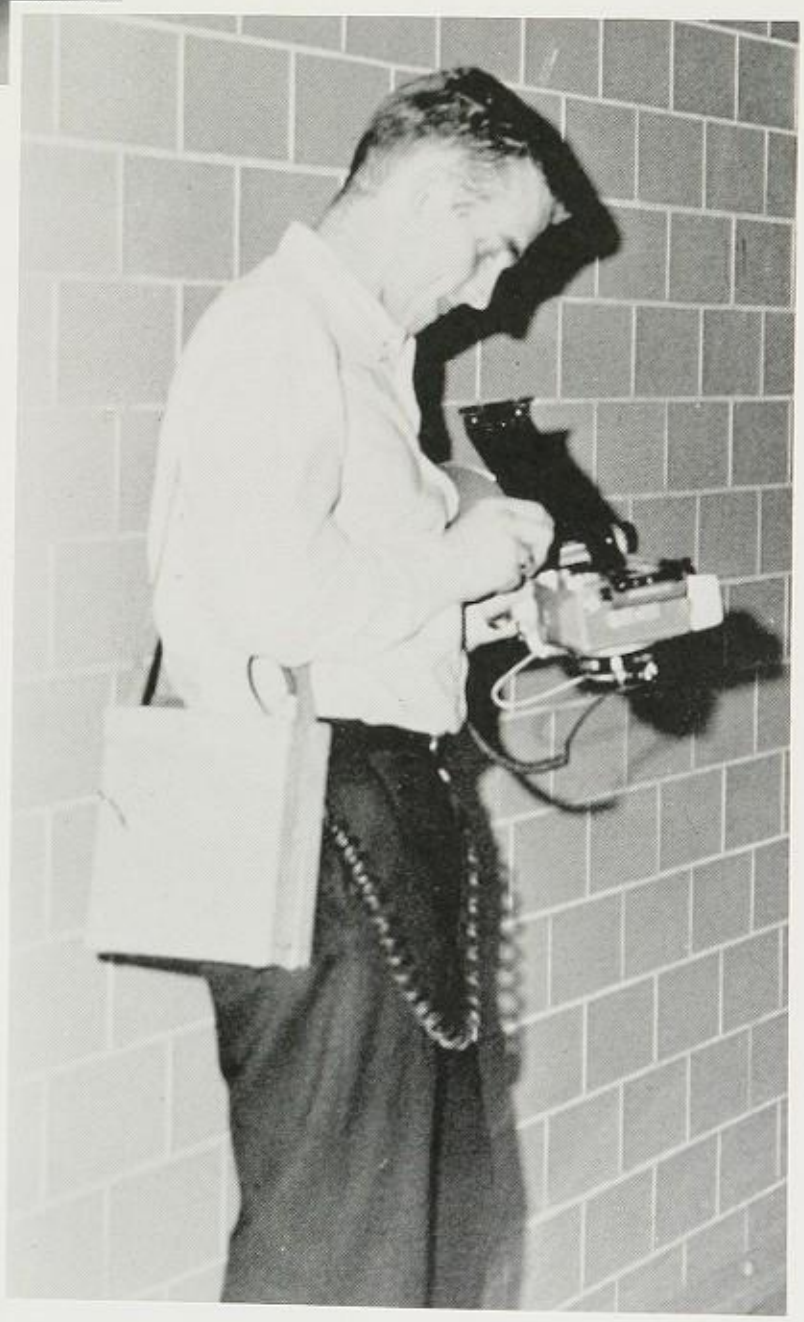
DEERING

EDITOR

Jeannie Miller and Cathy Paikowski try to find their names on this year's staff plaque.

One of the biggest responsibilities of the annual staff is to meet the deadlines with the publisher. To do this, pictures must be taken, arrangements made with individuals, copy must be written and checked by Barbee Deering, Kay Forsyth or Miss Julia Darnall. Much work and many hours are spent in making another successful RHS annual.



Mike Wheat, photographer, covers all activities for the staff.

J.C.L. ENCOURAGES APPRECIATION OF ANCIENT CULTURES

Junior Classical League at RHS is affiliated with the state and national J.C.L. organizations and is represented by delegates to the state convention who participated in many contests and workshops.

The J.C.L. encourages an interest in and appreciation of the language, literature, and culture of ancient Greece and Rome, and strives to give some understanding of the debt of our own culture to that of classical antiquity.

The high points in the year were the observation of Latin Week, March 15-21, and the annual Roman banquet which the gods and goddesses themselves attended.

Nicki Spitzy tells the Latin Club of her native Austria.

Mrs. Edwards, sponsor, listens intently to one of several speakers who participated in J.C.L. program.

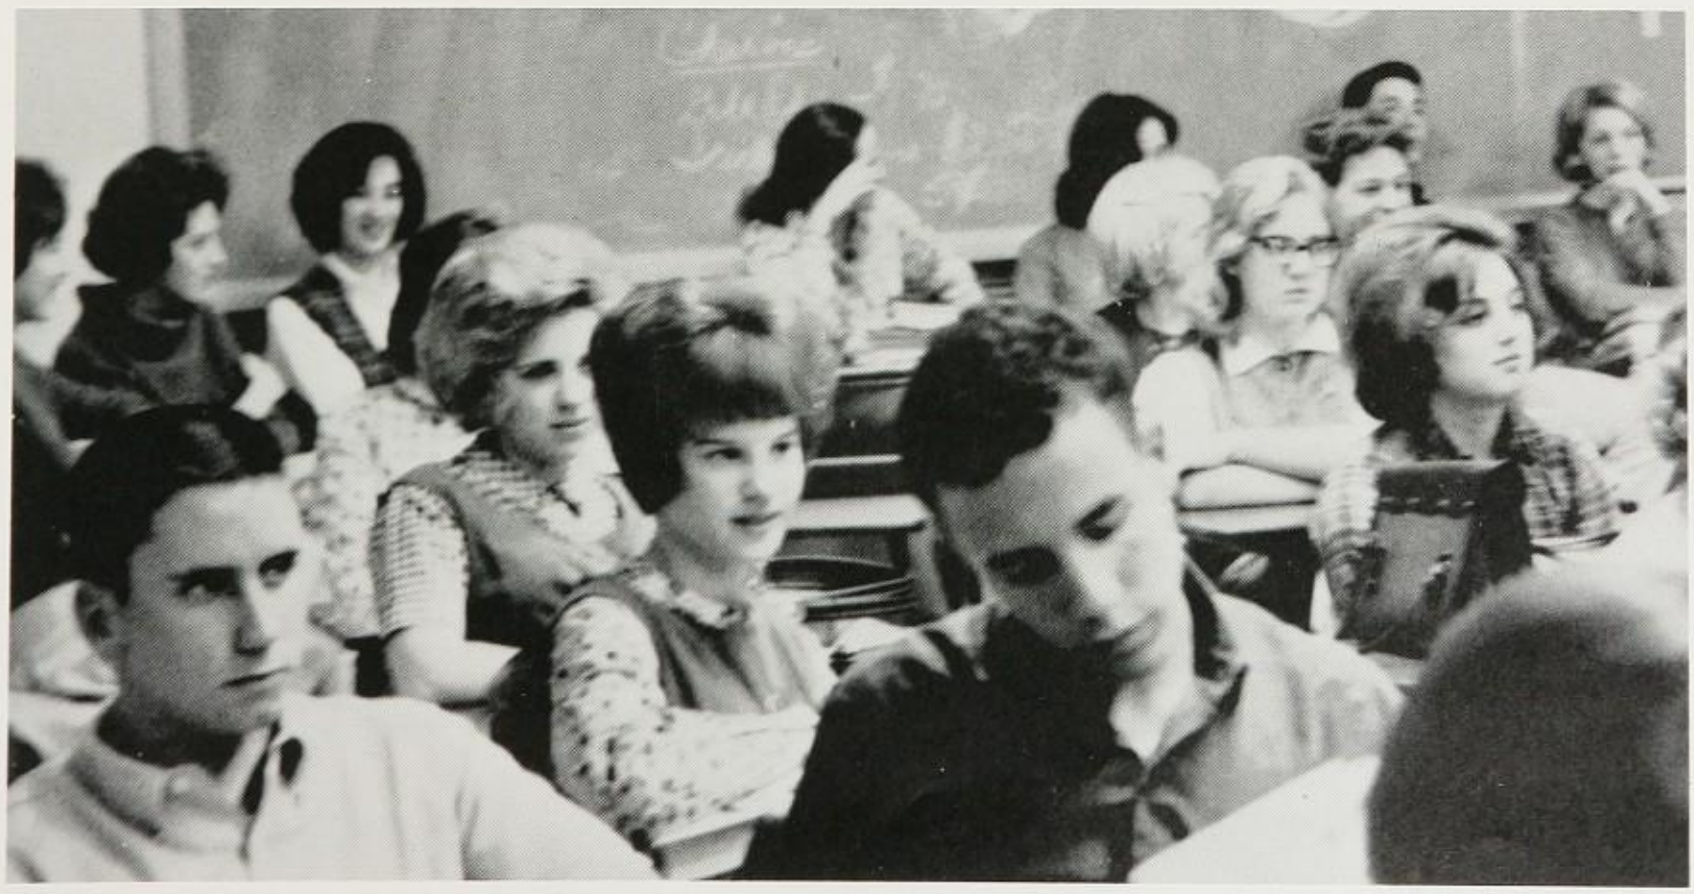
Sara Jo Hubbard ponders over French Scrabble.

Two French Clubs at RHS, Beginning and Advanced, promote a better understanding of the French people, their customs, and their country. In addition to this primary purpose, the two clubs worked together for the betterment of RHS and the community. A needy family in Richardson was provided with canned goods and a Thanksgiving dinner. At Christmas, members collected discarded toys for the Fire Department's Christmas program.

Advanced French Club sponsored the annual Pancake Breakfast at RHS. This French custom insured good luck and plentiful money for all those who attended. The club's programs included a talk presented by a French exchange student from Dallas. Beginning French Club held a banquet early in February. Guest speaker at the banquet was Monsieur Coulanges, a French professor at Dallas College. Awards were presented at the end of the year to members outstanding in scholastic achievements and club participation.



Advanced members listen to plans for a future project.

Francis Potts calls Meeting to order.

Promotion of better Texas-Latin American relations is the primary aim of the Pan American Student Forum. In carrying out this aim members acquire better use of the Spanish language and more knowledge of the Spanish culture. An outstanding event in both the Beginning and Advanced P.A.S.F. was a coke party held for Mexican students visiting Richardson.

P.A.S.F. sponsored Genie Simpson at the state convention held at Austin in her efforts to be elected Second Vice-President of Texas P.A.S.F.

GOURMET CLUB FORMED THIS YEAR

Mrs. Dean McKeown, sponsor, demonstrates cooking techniques to her club members.

A Gourmet Club was formed this year under the sponsorship of Mrs. Dean McKeown. This club was opened to boys only and the sole requirement was a real interest in learning how to cook. The boys have prepared meals, beginning with a lesson in preparing biscuits. The only mishap was when one boy washed the forbidden flour sifter. Mrs. McKeown is proud of the work her boys have done and the improvement they have made in the past year.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB INTERESTS MANY

Learning to use the many different types of cameras and how to take clear and interesting pictures is the objective of the Photography club. Mr. Michael Roach, sponsor, was present at the meetings to answer any questions in photography the members might have. Members brought their own cameras to the meetings and discussed their use and advantages.

Mike Blew heads a discussion on photography techniques.

A Patricia Stevens model spoke to the club on hair, figure and dress.

Y-TEENS IN FIRST YEAR

Y-Teens is a newly organized service Club at R.H.S. It is an organization for girls that branches out from the Y.W.C.A. It is an important addition to R.H.S. because of its helpful service projects and drives.

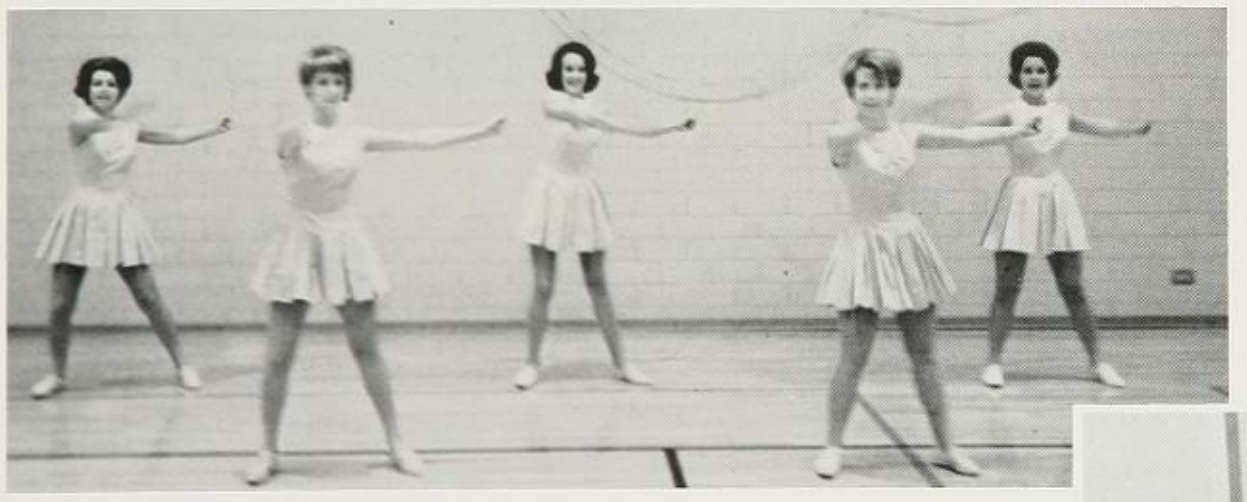
RELIGIOUS COUNCIL GIVES WEEKLY DEVOTIONALS

The Religious Council was founded to stimulate the spiritual life of the students at RHS, to increase the understanding between various denominations and sects, to be a medium through which the members can practice their religious convictions. The club operated under the guidance of Mrs. Ruth Johnson.

Sophomore Caron Young explained her Jewish faith to the Religious Council.

This year's cheerleaders were Vicki Veerman, Boo Curry, Judy Gant, Denise Bullard and Patsy Foster.

RHS SPIRIT
LED BY CHEERLEADERS



The Cheerleaders lead the school in victory yells at all sports assemblies.

Judy Gant was chosen head cheerleader this year by the other cheerleaders. The girls started the year by keeping busy with football spirit posters on the player's locker doors. They led school spirit in the gym at pep rallies and on the field at the games. They also supported the basketball team by cheering them on in the gym. Four of this years cheerleaders were sophomores Boo Curry, Vicki Veerman, Denise Bullard, Patsy Foster and junior Judy Gant. The group was under the guidance of Mrs. Carol Hancock.

Activities of the Eaglettes again include performing at football half-time activities. The Homecoming dance, which they sponsored, had a Harvest Time theme. The girls also sold programs at the football games and supported the basketball team during the winter. A second spectacular Eaglette Review ended the year. Another second was the Eaglette, school sponsored, slumber party. The Eaglette officers, under the leadership of Mrs. Carol Hancock, placed fourth at the SMU summer officer workship. The officers were: Captain, Nena Thompson; Lieut. Sharyn Staecker; Lieut. Barbee Deering; Lieut. Nannette Hasty; Lieut. Linda Eppright. The group also marched in the summer fair parade and the Christmas parade.

GOLDEN EAGLE BAND AIMS FOR FIRST PLACE IN STATE

"CHICAGO or BUST"

On even numbered years music critics of the Interscholastic League choose the best AAAA concert high school band in the state of Texas. The band chosen could easily be considered the best high school band in the world, since the United States has the finest bands in the world, and Texas leads the United States in high school bands.

Two years ago the Golden Eagle Symphonic Band entered AAAA competition for this award, even though the school was still in class AAA. The band was picked as sixth in the state. Last year the Eagle Band entered the Buccaneer Festival of Corpus Christi, the most difficult band contest in Texas. From among the best bands ever to compete in this contest the band was picked as third in the state.

Late this year music critics again choose the best AAAA band in the state. Richardson entered with probably the best band in RHS history. Results are available in the 1964 Tailfeather.

Mr. Frank enters the band hall to begin another day of rehearsal

MARCHING BAND RECEIVES FIRST DIVISION RATING

O'BRIEN GOLDSBERRY

O'Brien Goldsberry, senior drum major, has been in the Golden Eagle Band for three years. He has studied percussion for six years and is presently studying piano and clarinet. He is active in the high school choir and the chapel choir at his church.

Among his other honors, he has been in the Dallas Area Band for two years, All-Region Band, and All-Region Choir his senior year. He has received Class I ratings for Interscholastic League solo and ensemble competition for the past four years. O'Brien plans to attend the University of Texas and major in Music Education.

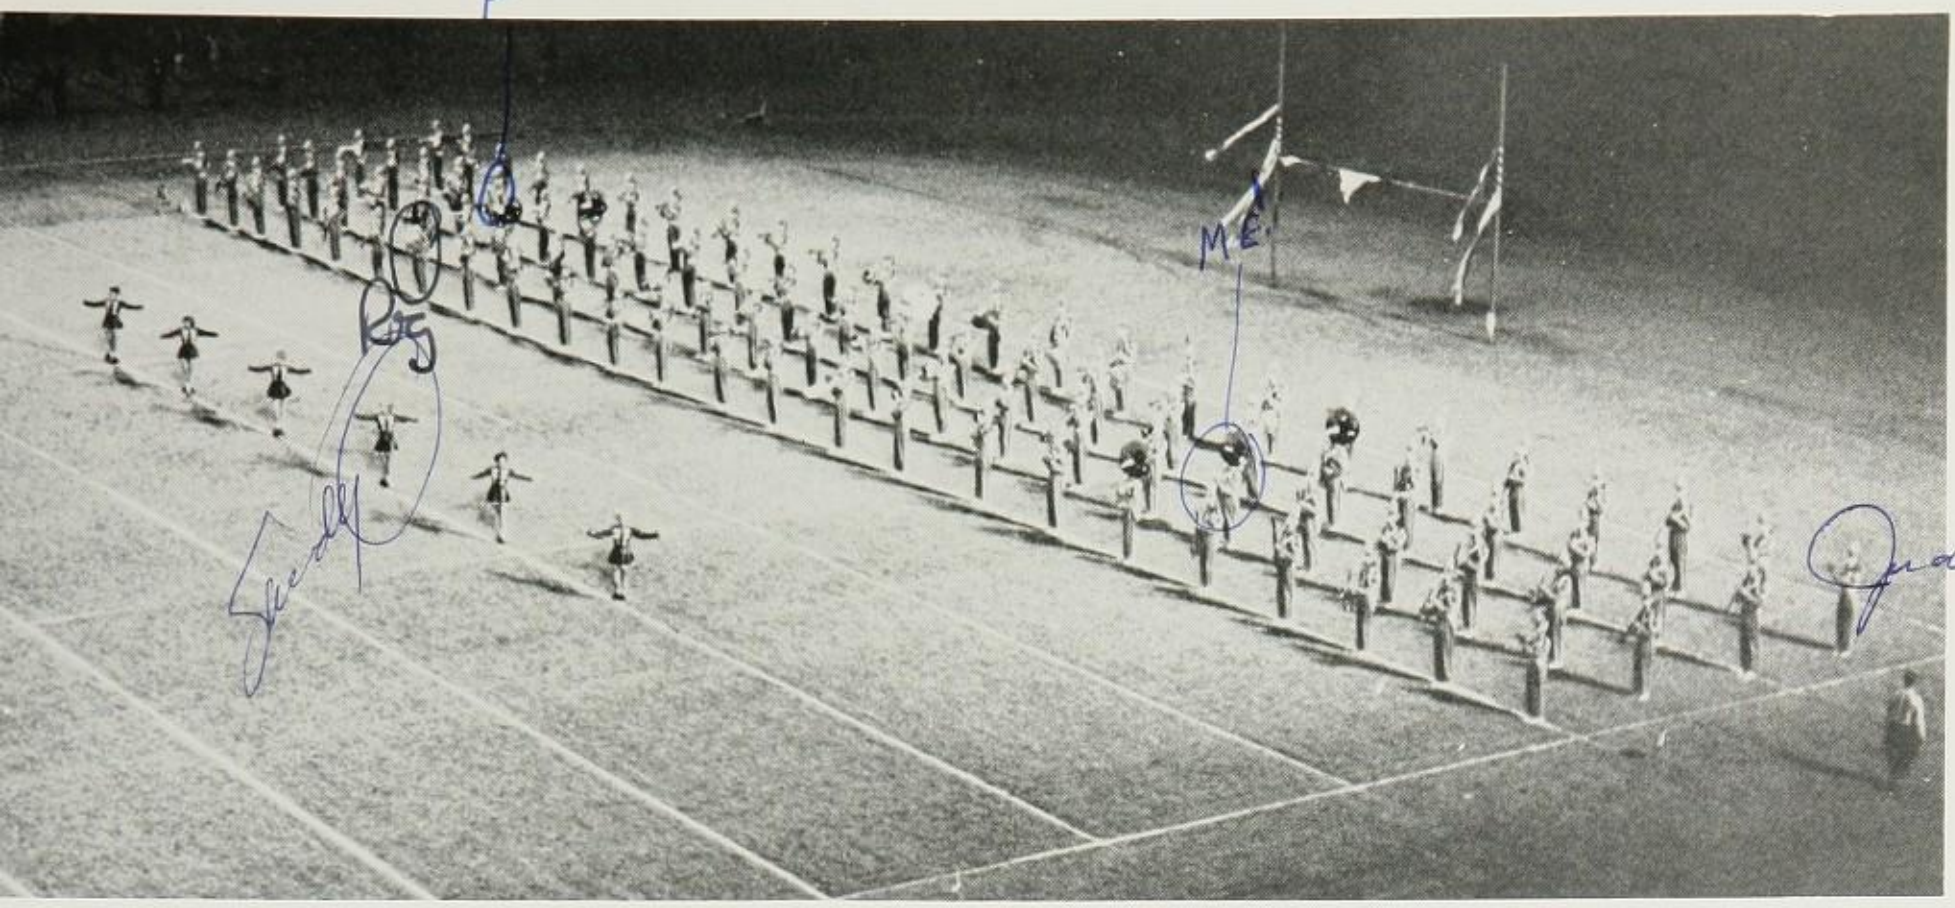
Band officers Steve Speer, Reg Jackson, Sam Martin, and Elizabeth Henry.

Steve Speer, President, has been a band member since the seventh grade. Sitting first chair clarinet for the second year, he earned a position on the All-Region band in this, his senior year. After high school he plans to attend Southern Methodist University where he will major in chemistry.

Reg Jackson, Vice-President, entered the Richardson band program when he moved to Richardson in the ninth grade. A senior, this is his third year as first chair alto saxophone in the Golden Eagle Band. His future plans include North Texas State University and a profession in music.

Sam Martin, junior chaplain, has been a band member since the seventh grade and a member of the Eagle Band for two years. He plans to attend Texas University after graduation.

Elizabeth Henry, Secretary, has been in band for four years. She served as band librarian for the past three years, a senior flutist, she plans to major in music next year at North Texas State University.



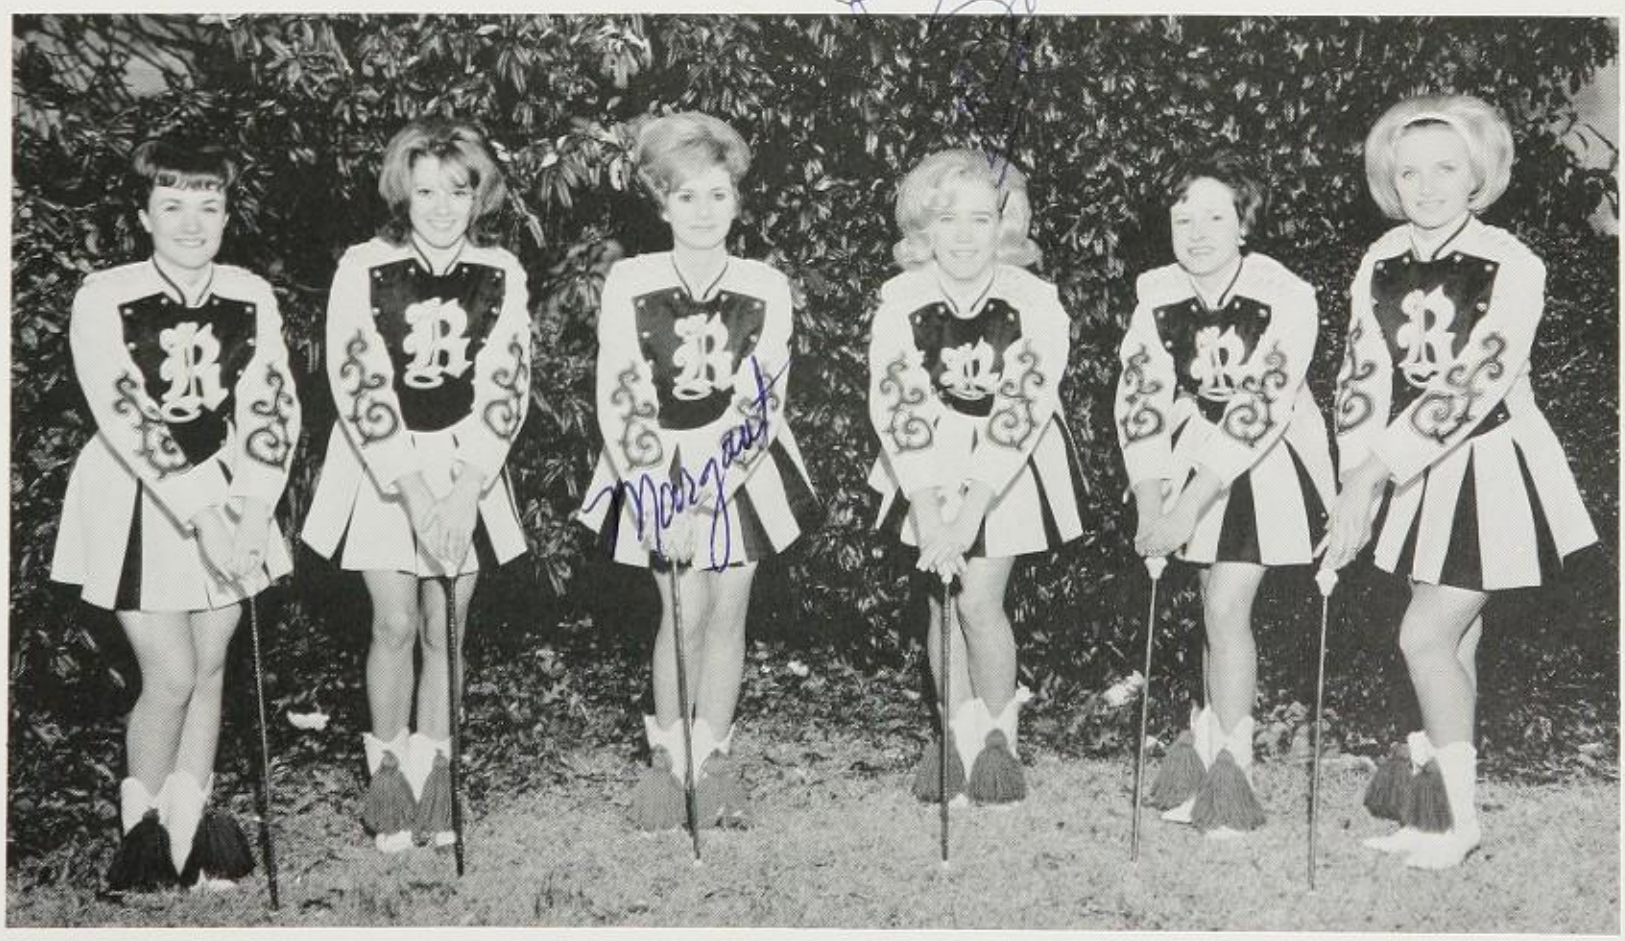
At Interscholastic League marching contest, which is held in November, bands are judged on appearance, marching ability, and playing while marching. An inspection preceding the band's marching performance includes such points as polished shoes, neat haircuts, arrangement of feet in a forty-five degree angle, polished instruments, and uniformity of trouser length. Three judges from outstanding college and high school bands criticize each band's performance on the field. Few bands receive a rating of First Division on inspection and marching, a rating which the Golden Eagle Band achieved for the third straight year.

Dr. Gene Brought of Oklahoma University, J. R. McEntyre of Odessa High School, and Marion Busby of Del Mar College in Corpus Christi were the judges for this year's contest. The following comments tell the story of the Golden Eagle Band's accomplishments:

Dr. Brought—". . . beautiful sound! Congratulations on a great job and sound!"

J. R. McEntyre—"A beautiful sounding band . . . One of the finest playing performances on the field that I've heard with very outstanding marching to go with it.

Marion Busby—"I can sincerely say that this is one of the greatest thrills I have ever had at a marching contest. I know you must have a great pride in this wondrous band. You play and march with distinction. To Mr. Frank and the Eagles my most hearty congratulations. Bands like this make American school bands play better throughout the nation. I thank you for a great experience."



Majorettes Janet Lillie, Alice Keese, Margaret Okerberg, Sandra Goldsberry, Sally Thompson, and Eileen Tullos don their new uniforms.

To a "fair" bass player.
Really you're going to do a good job for the Eagle Band next year. Raise hell this summer but don't get into too much trouble. Have fun in Chicago - I'll see you up there. Be good to Mr. Frank or at least try to. Good luck -
you'll probably need it.

SPRING BRINGS A FRESH SURGE OF VITALITY TO RHS

As the cold winds of winter gave way to the softer breezes of spring, RHS bustled anew with springtime activities. Outdoor sportsmen took to the tennis courts, baseball diamonds, and cinder tracks with almost as much enthusiasm as their spectators. Students who had worked through the winter showed their accomplishments at the Interscholastic League events.

Looking ahead to the next year, sophomores and juniors began assuring their status through the Eaglette tryout, the Junior Usher election, and various club elections. Seniors, also planning ahead, arranged for their graduation ceremonies and noticeably paid extra attention to their Career Day speakers.

RHS-ites had an enjoyable array of year-end diversions and entertainment: The Eaglette Revue, the Senior Play, the Junior-Senior Prom, the Annual Signing Party, and many more.

As the year drew to a close amid summer-like sunshine, the departing seniors collected their laurels along with their underclassmen at the honors assembly. All that was left for them to complete the year was an exhausting and enjoyable senior trip, several tough final examinations, and the solemn Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises. The All-night party gave the RHS-ites leaving in 1964 one last chance to be with those who would make up RHS in 1965; then the year was gone.

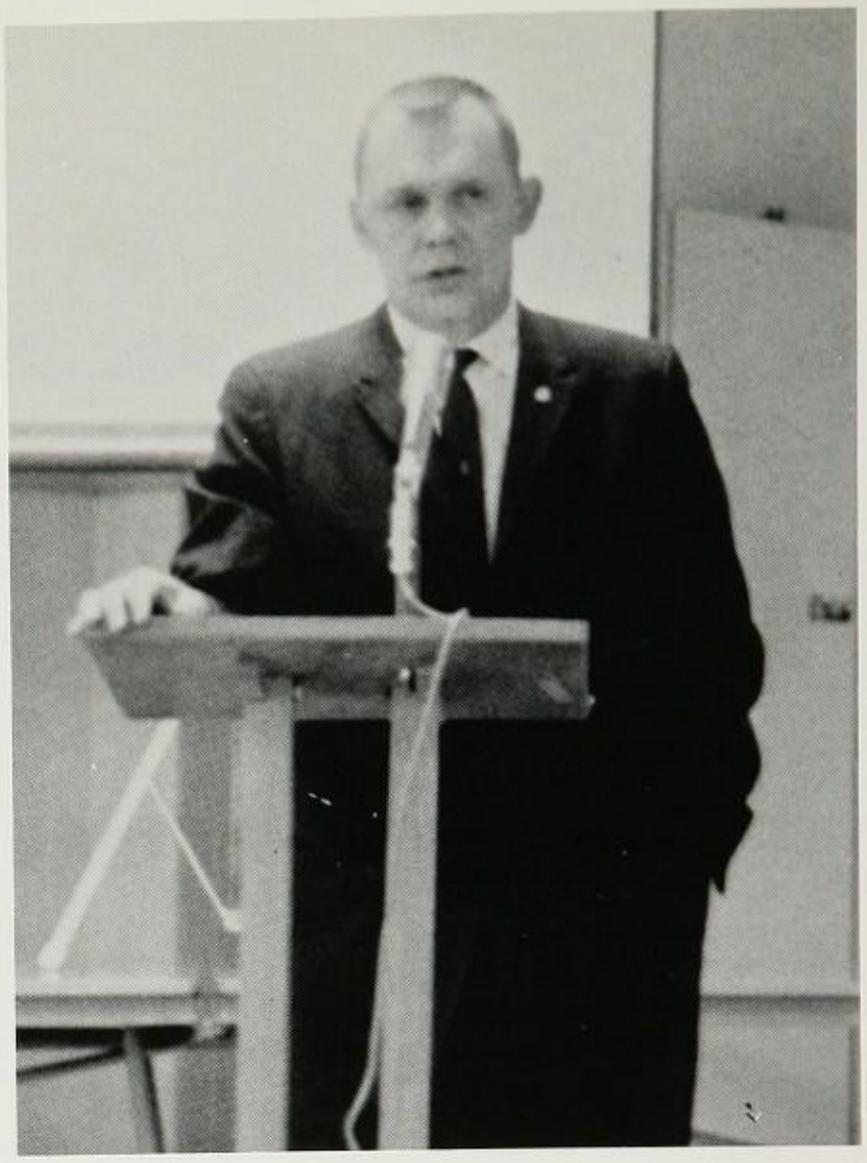
SPEAKERS AND EXAMS HILIGHT THE SPRING

A number of preparatory examinations were offered this spring, as in the past, to participating seniors and juniors so that they, their teachers, and their counselors might know each individual's strong and weak points. The tests are offered as part of the program at RHS that strives to prepare each student for college.

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test was one of the spring tests taken. This test enables some high scoring students to obtain monetary assistance from a testing agency.

The ACT, SAT, and PSAT tests, also taken in the spring, gave students a chance to learn the areas in which they needed work before undertaking a college career.



Dr. Bob Cordell used films and lectures in his presentation on geology and geophysics on career day.

Mrs. Dooley gave the scores for the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying test and interpreted them for the students.

Throughout the spring, speakers with experience were invited to come to RHS and enlighten the student body or a specific group of interested students on a topic of importance.

Career Day, April 30, brought many speakers to the school to discuss all facets of the vocations that RHS-ites might choose to follow in the future.

R.H.S. PLACES IN SIX EVENTS

This year, in Interscholastic League competition, Richardson carried off all honors in Slide Rule and Number Sense, while placing high in several other divisions. The district meet was held on April 18 in Denton.

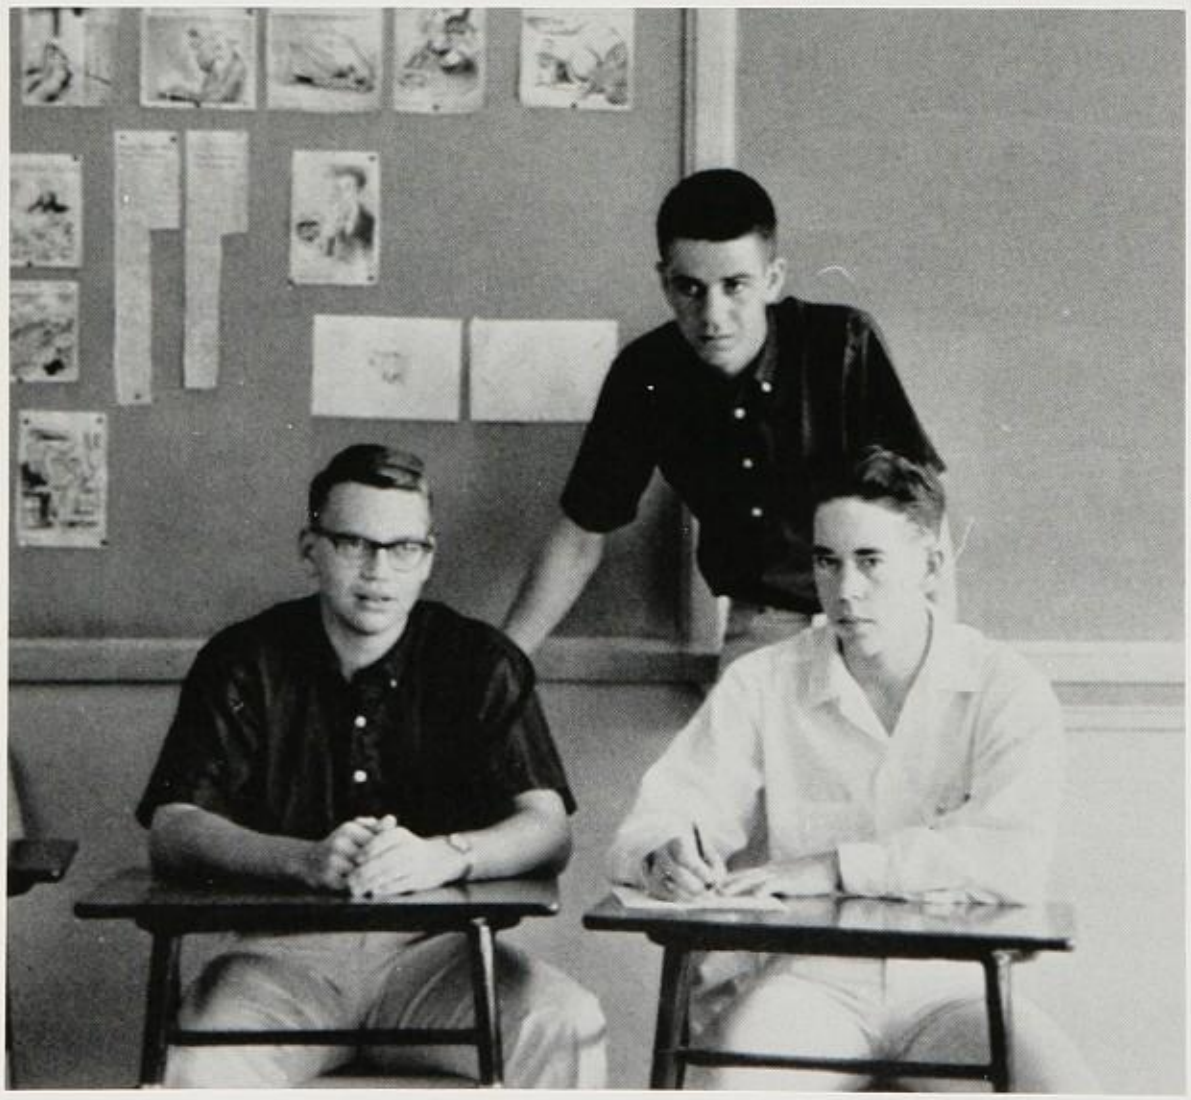
Winners of first, second and third places in Number Sense were Chuck Marstrand, Dennis Dawson, and Larry DiPaolo, respectively. The same trio scored a similar victory last year. In Slide Rule, Dennis, Chuck, and Jonathan Slocum garnered the top three prizes.

Richardson was also represented in other fields by Richard Hess, third in Science; Joe Sharkey, first in Extemporaneous Speaking; Pat Gruben and Lee Halford, first in Spelling, and Chuck Marstrand, second in Poetry Interpretation.

All first and second place winners qualified to enter the regional meet held on April 25 in Fort Worth. Against strong competition, Dennis Dawson won third in Slide Rule and fifth in Number Sense, while Joe Sharkey took second in Extemporaneous Speaking.

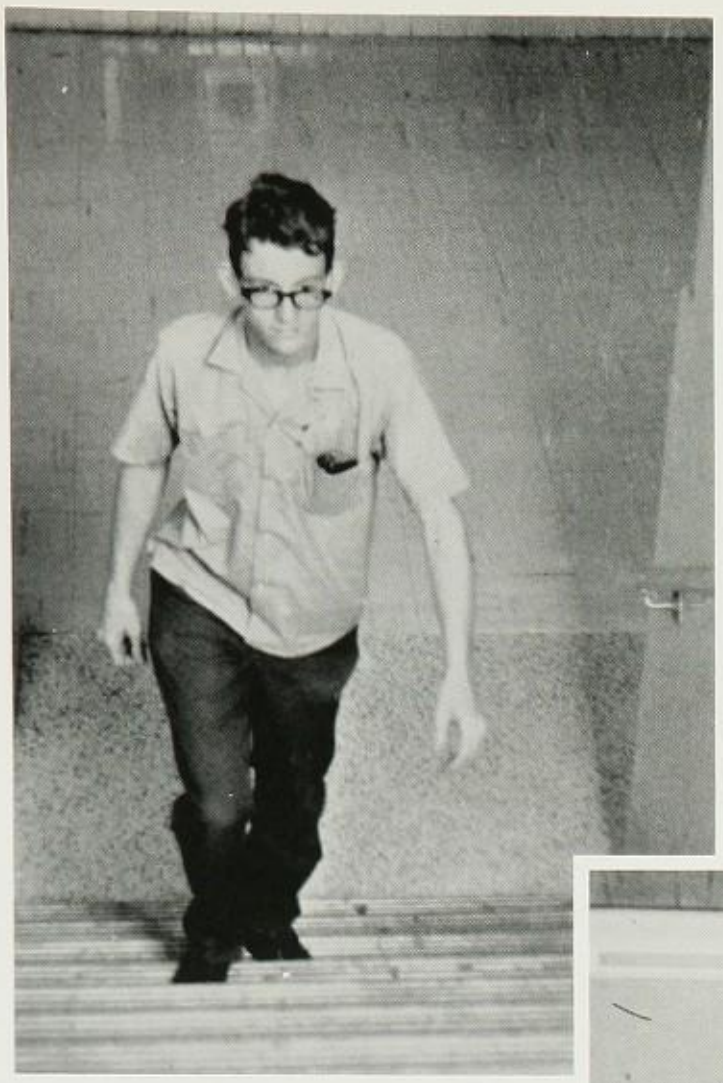
First organized in 1910 in Abilene, Texas, at a state teachers' meeting, the Interscholastic League has been sponsored by the University of Texas ever since. From its beginning in 1910, the League has expanded from ten schools to a peak of some 6,000 just before World War II. It is the largest organization of its kind anywhere, with membership for the 1962-63 year totaling 2,573 schools. The cost of participating in the League varies with the classification of the school, and, of course, all schools must abide by the League Constitution and Contest Rules.

Originally, contests were held only in debate, but other events have added over the years. All are designed to improve the citizenship of students. The list of literary events entered by R.H.S. comprised Debate, Extemporaneous Speaking, Number Sense, One-Act Play, Persuasive Speaking, Poetry Interpretation, Prose Reading, Ready Writing, Science, Shorthand, Slide Rule, Spelling, and Typewriting.



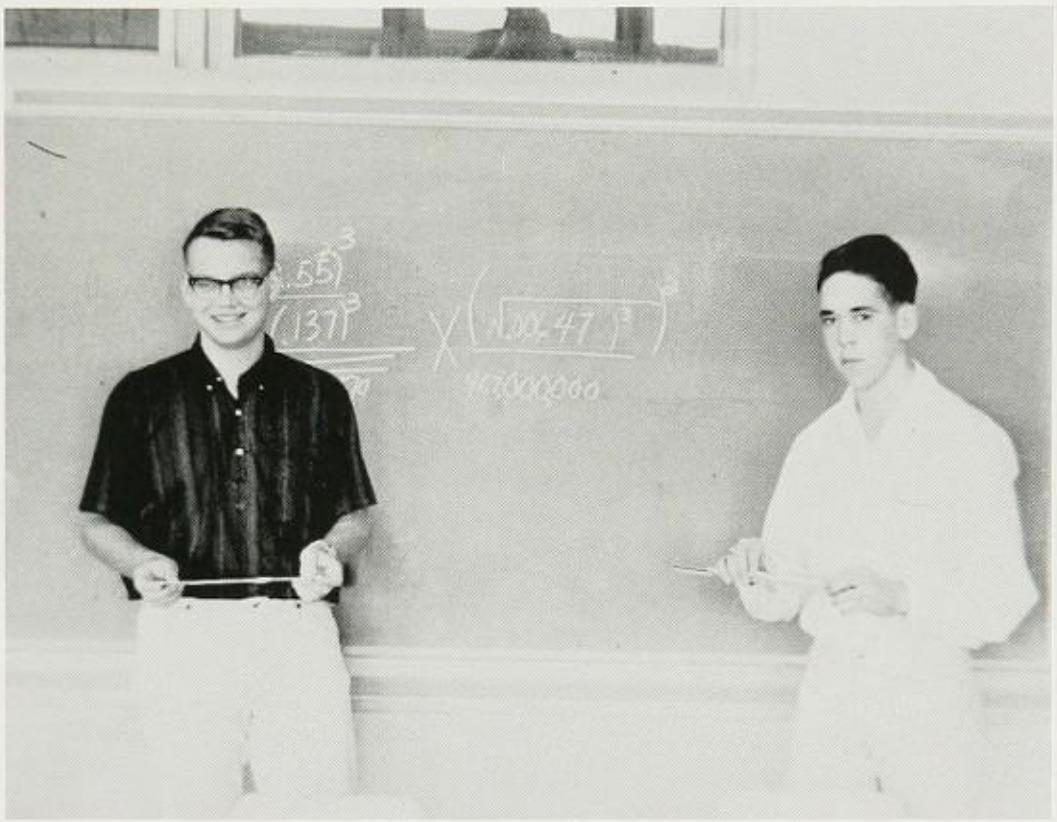
R.H.S. loses a great math team, when seniors Larry DiPaolo (standing), Dennis Dawson, and Chuck Marstrand graduate. They have monopolized Number Sense for two straight years.

Plane geometry teacher Mrs. Elna McKinney is sponsor of Number Sense group.

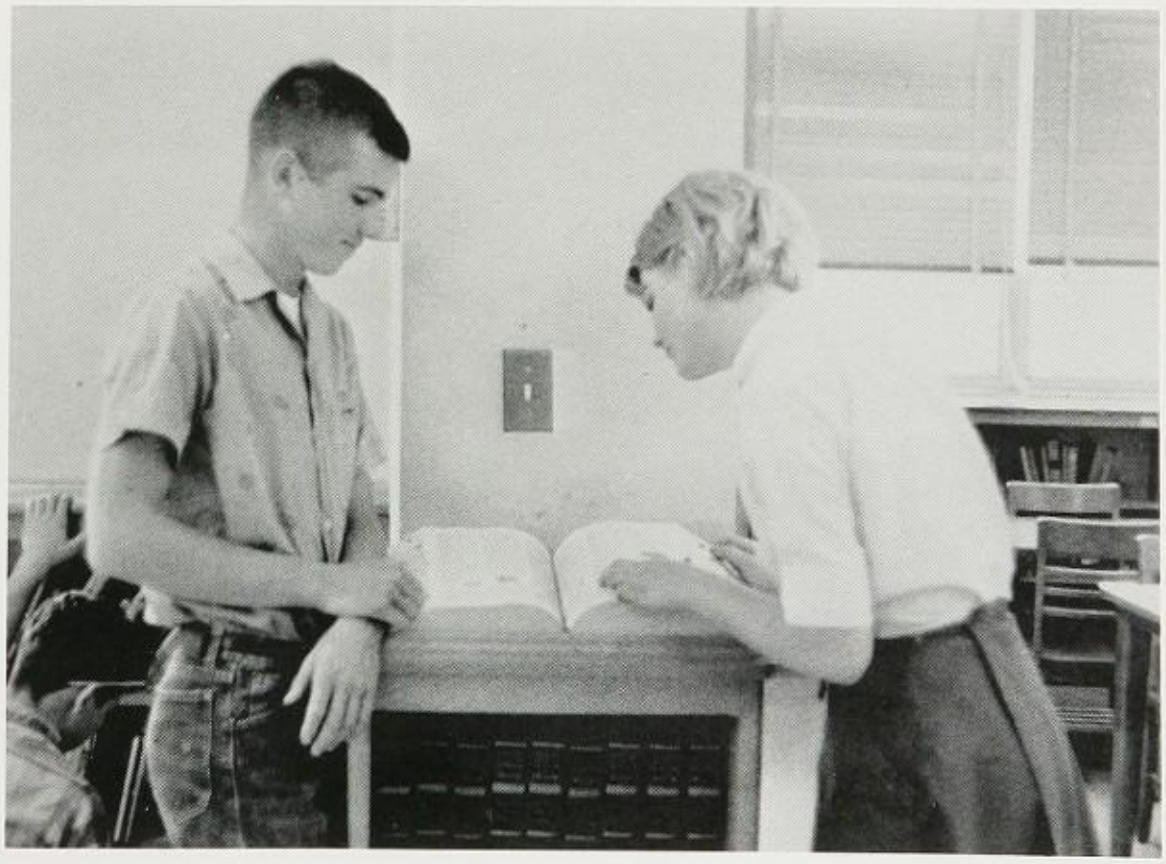


Seniors Dennis Dawson and Chuck Marstrand (right), and senior Jonathan Slocum (above), swept the top three places in the Slide Rule category.

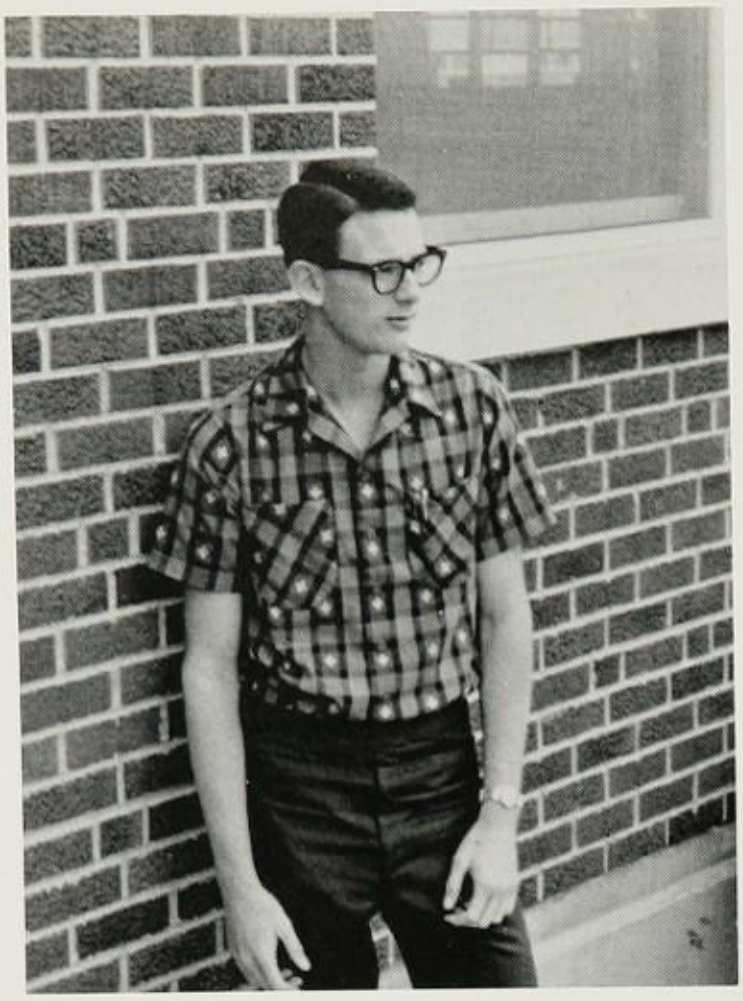
Mrs. Elizabeth Mann, who teaches trigonometry and elementary functions, was the sponsor of the highly successful slide rule team.



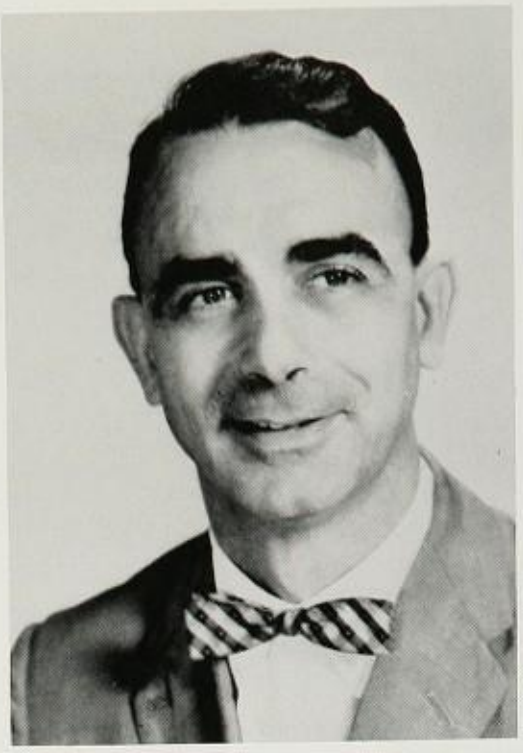
Mrs. Robert Gant sponsored the first place combination in Spelling. A graduate of Austin College, Mrs. Gant teaches senior English.



Senior Pat Gruben and junior Lee Halford repeated their victory of one year ago, when they again won first in district spelling.

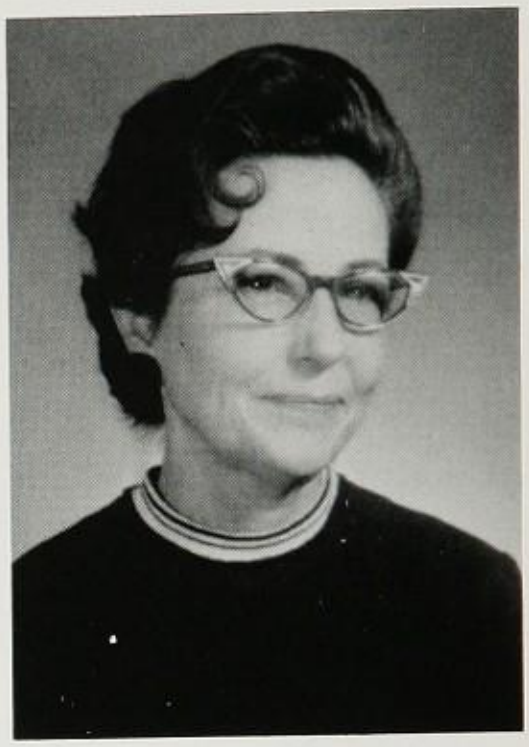


Senior Richard Hess took third place in Science.

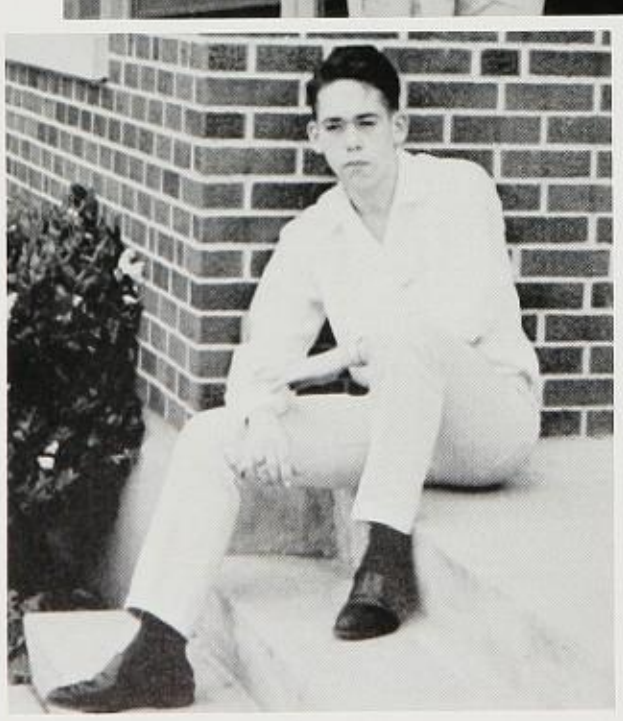


Mr. J. G. Thompson, sponsor of the Science division, accompanied students to Denton.

Speech teacher Mrs. Ruth Gray sponsored all Richardson speaking events.

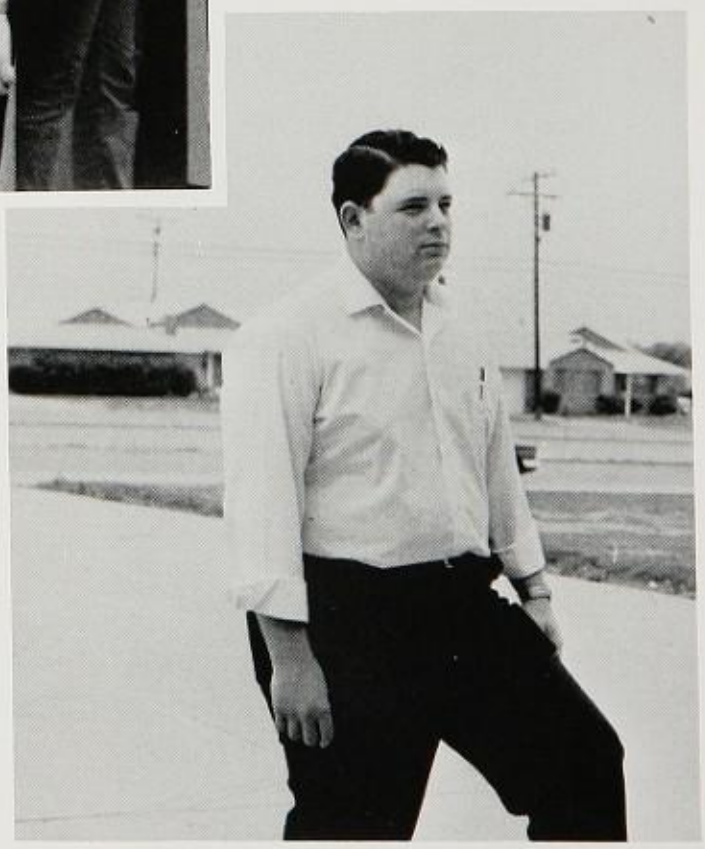


Winning prizes in scattered events were Chuck Marstrand, Richard Hess, and Joe Sharkey.



Having placed second in Poetry Interpretation, Chuck Marstrand was the only three place winner.

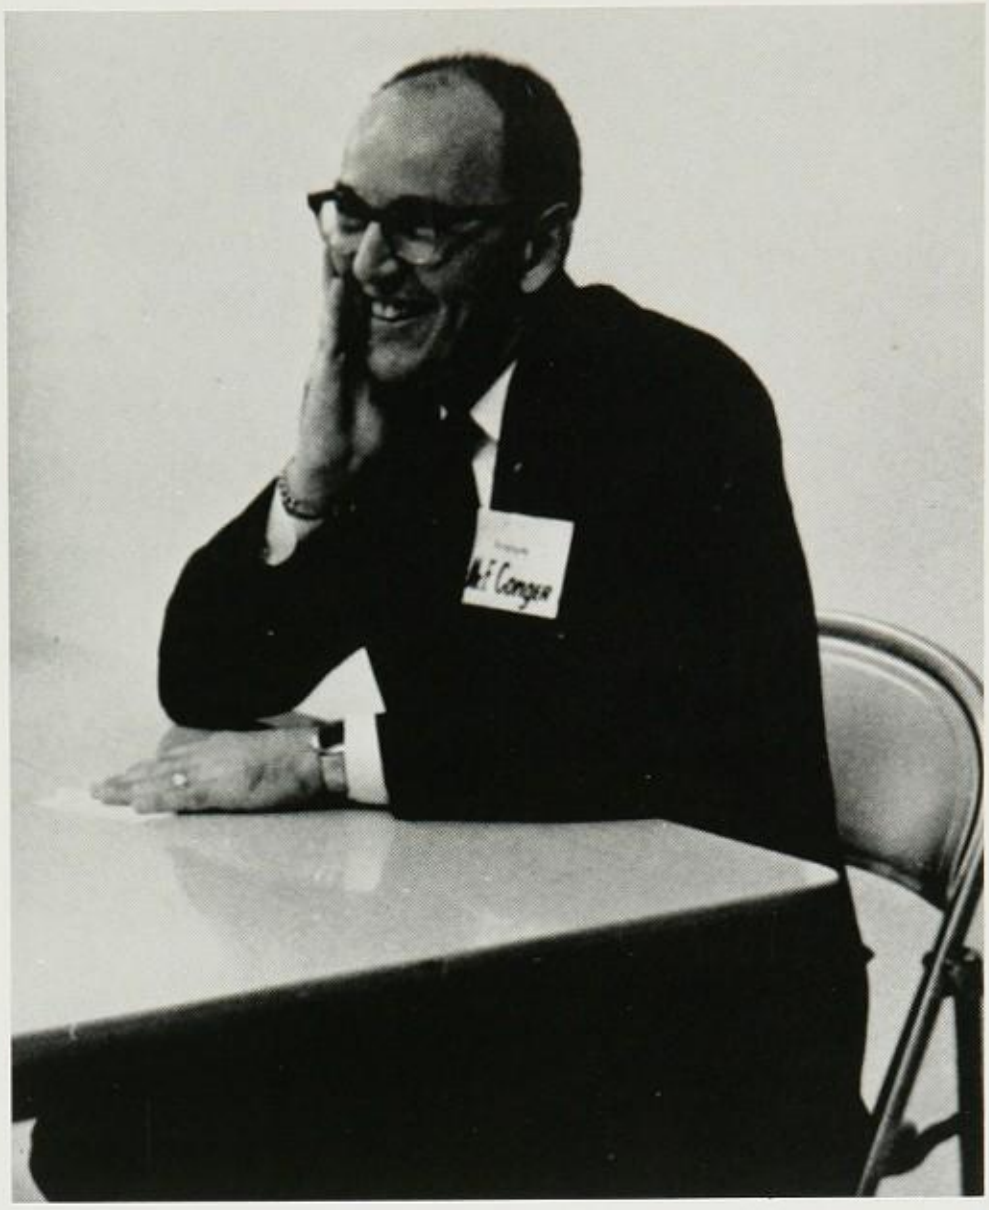
Joe Sharkey, sophomore, defeated experienced competition to win first in Extemporaneous Speaking; then went on to win second place in regional.



STUDENTS ENJOY CAREER DAY

Early in April the R.H.S. student body selected first, second, and third choices as to the careers they would most be interested in hearing about. On April 30, the students enjoyed hearing from some 70 men and women from different professions.

Many of the questions proved to be quite puzzling.



Mr. Conger, who spoke about photography, seems to enjoy the questions asked by R.H.S. students.

As many R.H.S. students discovered, psychology is very interesting.

EAGLETTE, CHEERLEADER TRYOUTS ATTRACT MANY

Judy Gant congratulates Mike Bolin after the results of Cheerleader tryouts were announced.

Each year the highlights of the Spring semester are Eaglette and Cheerleader tryouts. As the date draws near, muscles become sorer and practices longer.

This year was no exception. Thirty-three people tried for the coveted cheerleading positions. The number of cheerleaders was increased, and the victors were Mike Bolin, Vicki Veerman, Boo Curry, Cathy Canada, Barbee Brown, Patsy Foster, Steve Cook and Barbie Johnson.

For the future Eaglettes, there were three Eaglette Workshops. The officers, both old and new, taught the routines that would be used for tryouts. After long hours of practice and much effort on all parts, there were new Eaglettes chosen for the 1964-1965 school year.

EAGLETTES TAKE R.H.S. AROUND THE WORLD

The second annual Eaglette Review was one of the signs of spring at R.H.S. Using the theme of "Around the World in Ninety Minutes," the Eaglettes spent many long hours developing routines to represent many foreign lands. The audience was treated as passengers on an airplane. Under the care of their hostess, Miss Nena Thompson, they visited such countries as Mexico, Japan, Scandinavia, England, the Netherlands, and many others.

South of the border, down Mexico way, the Mexican Hat Dance provided interesting entertainment.

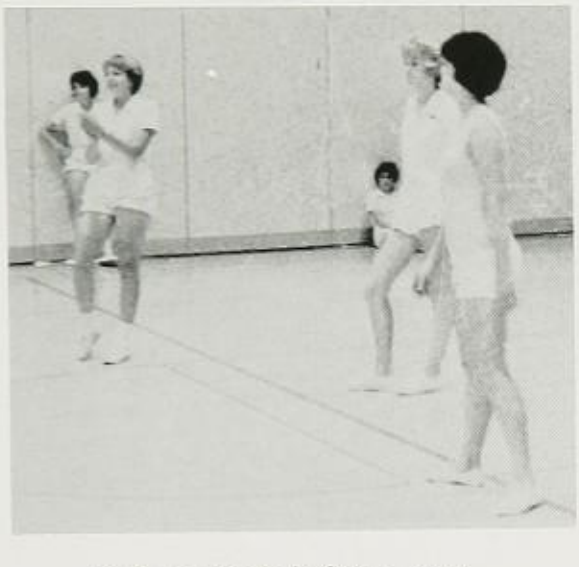
VOLLEYBALL TEAM PLACES THIRD IN STATE COMPETITION



Tense moments before a serve.

The volleyball team of RHS is composed of twenty-six girls who practice daily during sixth period. They are under the leadership of Mrs. Carol Hancock.

Both the "A" and "B" team boast consecutive wins over many of the surrounding community teams. A victory over Sherman won District and also the right to play for State. In Abilene a third-place trophy was won.

The "A" team captains are Carrell Grisby, who was chosen "All State," and Joan DeGan.

"B" team members include Janis Powell, Melanie Heald, Dawn Cavalier, Margaret McBride, Kaye Mackey, Sherry Johnson, Sue Chattaway, Janie Pool, Jean Magner, Linda McGee, Carol Zart, Jan Downing, Donna Gross, and Sharon Kershner.

Guardian angel of the Eagles is Coach Max McClearin. He is shown here while trying to decide who will pitch.

For the first time in eight years, the Eagle baseball team did not win the district crown. Instead, they faltered to a poor fifth-place finish. The defending champion Eagles had what is often called "one of those years."

Team awards were given at the close of the long season. Lou Breuer was given the "Most Hustle" award; Jackie Don Noteware received the "Sportsmanship" award; and John Mayfield was given the "Leading Fielder," "Leading Hitter," and "Most Valuable Player" awards.

Departing seniors Larry Waldrop, Dick Vaughn, Rick Melton, Lou Breuer and Marion Athans will be missed.

However, the future looks bright as returning lettermen Don Russell, Don Carrington, Jerry Blackwood, Doug Reagor and Bob Johnson will try to bring the pennant back to Richardson.

Coach McClearin is expressing the thought, "What can I do? I can't play the game for them!"

Top relief artist for the Eagles was Don "The Tongue" deRegnier.

Shown watching Marion Athans is Grant Gatlin. Marion's big bat was missed most of the year because of a severe leg injury.

EAGLE TRACKSTERS FINISH FIRST IN DISTRICT

R.H.S. set the pace in 7-AAAA with a terrific first place. The Eagles literally ran off with the crown. Half miler Tommy Maupin went on to take a first in the state meet. So many new records were set that this has been called the Eagles' greatest year.

This year the Richardson tennis team completed its most successful season ever. The Eagles competed in several tournaments, practice matches, and in the district meet held at Denton. Highlights of the season include the consistent play of the boys' doubles team of Bill Henrich and Larry Peeters. the improvement of singles player Don Chancey, and the remarkable district showing of three R.H.S. girls: Sylvia Schaelling in singles, and Bobbie Wylie and Judy Stuart in girls' doubles.

Mr. Jerry Hill coached this year's netters, and he is to be credited with a fine job. Next year Coach Hill hopes to begin a full-time tennis program, and bring Richardson to the very top in high school tennis competition.

Tennis and golf team members board the bus that will take them to Denton for the district meet. Action took place on April 17, 1964.

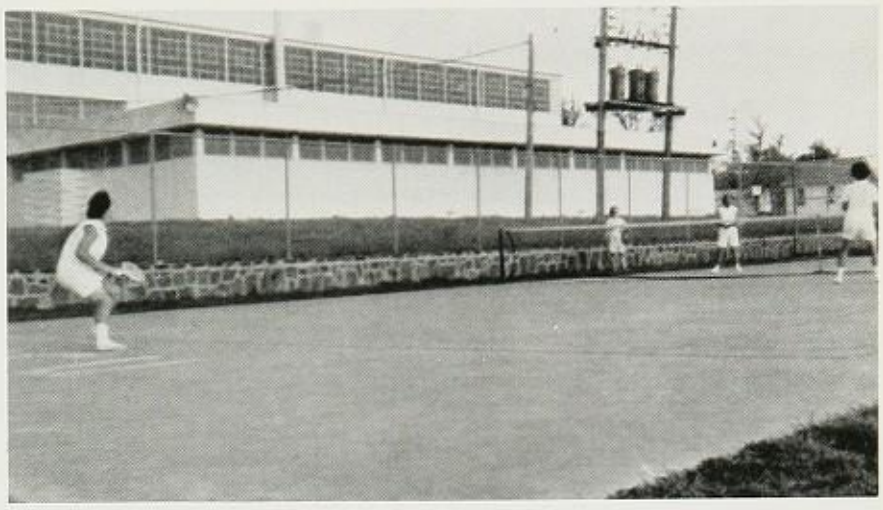
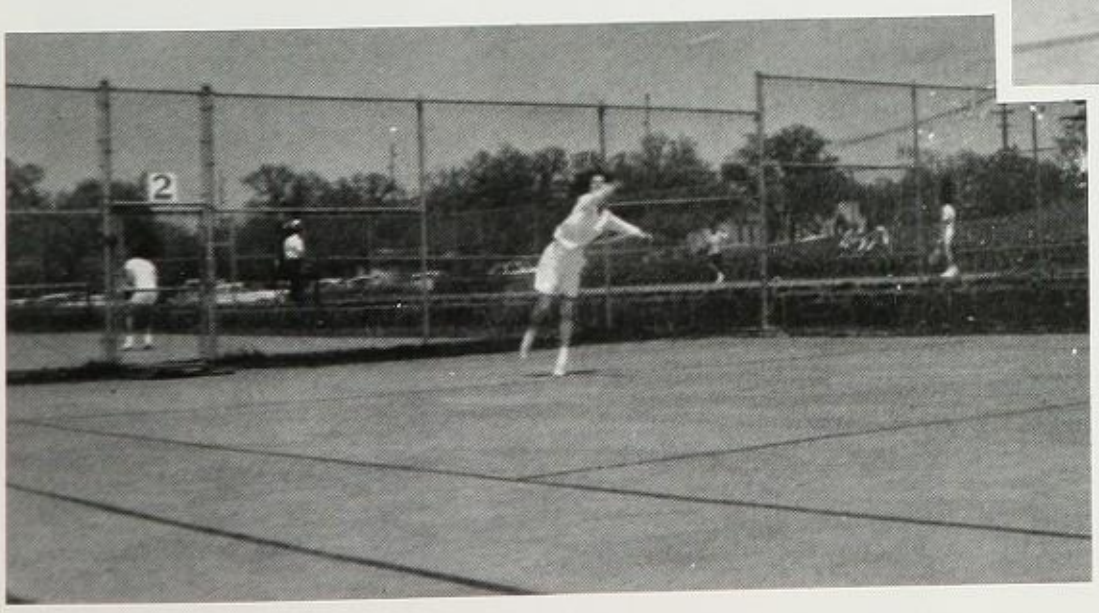
Judy Stuart, left, gets ready for a return as her partner, Bobbie Wylie, right, waits at the net. The girls defeated Denison in this match, and moved on into the finals against Highland Park. The scores of this match were 6-3, 5-7, 6-4.



TURN IN TOP PERFORMANCES

Larry Peeters blasts in his big serve against Denison while his partner, Bill Henrich, waits at the net. Peeters and Henrich lost this match by the heart-breaking score of 10-8, 9-7. It took 2½ hours to complete.



Sylvia Schaelling, Richardson's top girl, hits in her tricky service against Garland. Sylvia had little trouble, as she moved into the finals with a 6-2, 7-5 win.

After the arrival of the 1964 Eagles and the first hurried looks through their pages, RHS-ites then wanted to sign their friends' annuals anywhere and everywhere. To fill the students' need, a yearbook signing party was held in the gym. Hundreds of RHS-ites attended, and, hopefully, signed all the annuals that they wanted to.

ON A SOUTHERN PLANTATION

On May 9 at the Crystal Ball Room in the Adolphus Hotel, the Junior Class honored the Seniors of 1964 with a traditional prom. Everyone danced to the music of the Euel Box Band of eight musicians. The theme, "On a Southern Plantation," was enhanced by program dances and songs of the South given at intermission by several Junior students. It was an enjoyable evening which both the juniors and seniors will treasure in their memoirs.

"Look, Ma, no cavities," states Neil Matzen.

Dena Merrill giggles at a remark from Bob Turner, as Sandra Swor smiles appreciatively.

Everyone danced to the tunes of Euel Box.

"Now you can teach me to dance," remarks Warren Wincorn.

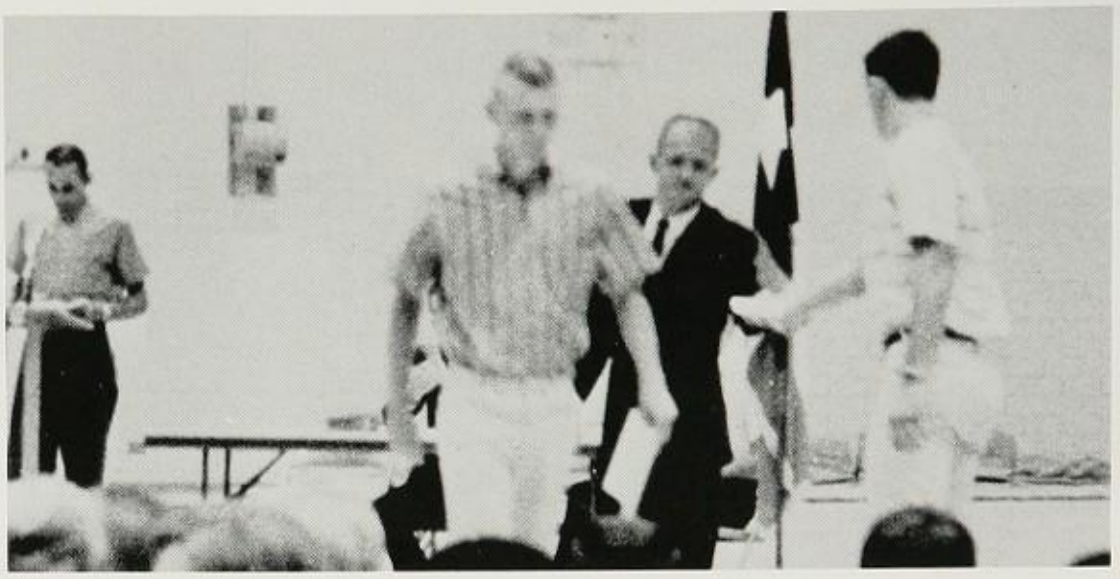
ASSEMBLY HONORS THOSE WHO EXCELLED DURING THE SCHOOL YEAR



As Coach McClearin reads the name of another Eagle baseball player to receive a letter, D. J. Luburick accepts his letter from Coach Atkins and Rick Melton returns to his seat with his.

Before the band members and Eaglettes seated on the gym floor, the student council officers of 1963-64 rise in preparation for installing the new officers. Patty Lipinski, outgoing secretary, picks up her notepad as Mike Oliver, Chris Noble, and Larry Waldrop watch.

Miss Darnall gives Kay Forsyth, assistant editor of the Eagle, her annual staff award. Other recipients of annual staff awards were Kathy Werner, business manager, and Barbee Deering, editor.

Mr. Frank awards Mike Echols his band jacket, while other awardees admire their own new jackets.

Amid the admiring looks of Patty, Mike, Larry, Mr. Passmore, Mr. Atkins, Chris, and Donna Foster, the recipient of the DAR Good Citizenship Award, Sharyn Staecker, returns happily to her seat.

A school-wide assembly was held late in may to recognize those students at RHS who had made notable achievements during the school year.

The first award of the assembly went to Tom Hutton, winner of the Civitan Essay Contest. Jeannie Gibson received the library award; Mary Dennis, the Outstanding Student Council member award; Lou Ann Carrington, the award for the Most Deserving Future Nurse of the Year.

Others to be honored were: Jim Wallis and Pat Gruben, outstanding second year German students; Rick Houston and Beverly Silwood, Beginning French Club scholastic awards; Charles Speer and Mega Moody, Advanced French Club scholastic awards.

Spanish awards were given to Susan Chanslor, Mark Buehler, Genie Simpson, Nancy Hammond, and Jill Howell.

The Danforth Foundation Certificates of Leadership went to Bill Skocpol and Sue Fekety.

Winners of certificates of acceptance given by the National High School Poetry Press for original manuscripts were Loyce Slovak, Frances Potts, Bill Skocpol, Judy Uglow, Genie Simpson, and Barbara Light.

The final awards of the assembly were given to the honor graduates of 1964. In suspenseful sequence, the 54 honor graduates were named, beginning with those with the lowest averages and concluding with the names of the salutatorian and valedictorian.

SENIORS TRAVEL TO GALVESTON

This year's seniors enjoyed a trip to Galveston and Houston. In Houston they viewed the Battleship Texas and the San Jacinto Monument. In Galveston, they enjoyed the beach and a barbecue dinner. There was dancing to the music of a combo cn the train that took two full nights for traveling to and from Galveston.

With many memories, the Seniors of 1964 met May 31 to dress for their long awaited Baccalaureate service at Park Cities Baptist Church in Dallas. This was the first of the final two exercises left in their high school career. In a short while they were to become adult citizens choosing the steps of the future.

Finally placed in alphabetical order and tassels given one last adjustment, the Senior Class began its processional down the aisle as parents smiled knowingly and underclassmen gave them envious winks.

The sermon was delivered by the Reverend A. Blanchard Boyer of Saint Margaret's Episcopal Church of Richardson.

Junior ushers helped the Seniors with a whisper to one or two "Not that aisle, the next one!"

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES BECOME

On Monday evening, June 1, Graduation Exercises were held in the new RHS football stadium for the first time.

The Commencement Address was given by Felix R. McKnight, publisher of the Dallas Times Herald. Salutatorian, Barbee Deering gave the Welcoming Address in which she summed up the year's activities, and Valedictorian, Bill Skocpol, offered a dramatic challenge for the future in his Farewell Address to RHS and his fellow classmates.

After the presentation of awards and the class, 365 Seniors proudly stepped across the stage to receive their diplomas from Mr. G. M. Crittenden, President of the Board of Trustees. Junior usher Sam Martin assisted each Senior from the stage and calmly remarked to each "Change your tassel, Senior, you finally made it." Other junior ushers were Barbara Brown, Linda Chambers, Linda Eppright, Judy Gant, Patty Merritt, Annette Miller, Suzanne Stringer, Marilyn Tipton, Jim Fincher, Lee Halford, Bill Harrison, Kent Kelley, Charles Major, Tommy Maupin, Tom Scott, Ronnie Simpson, Jim Wheeler, and Randy Whittington.

Principal, Mr. Bill B. Passmore, Valedictorian, Bill Skocpol, and Salutatorian, Barbee Deering, listen . attentively to Mr. Felix R. McKnight. Bill graduated with a 2-year average of 98.25, and Barbee graduated with an average of 96.62.
